Prophet's Lawyer Declares Manuscript Stolen and Altered.

ADDITIONS ALLEGED MADE

Federal Investigator Testifies That Interlineations Were Made in Book-Letters of Bridges to His Wife Read.

CHICAGO, June 30.—That portions of Evelyn Arthur Soe's "Bible" were forged, after the manuscripts had been stolen from See's safe, was the allegation made by Attorney Cantwell of the defense, in the trial of Evelyn Arthur

"Portions of these books were forged, parts underlined and additions made," the lawyer told Judge Honore, while the jury was excluded. Charles D. Woody, a Eederal investi-gator, who investigated the "Bible" with a view to prosecution of eSe in the United States courts, said there were interlineations in the book when it came into his possession, but he knew of no changes or additions being made. Two letters alleged to have been written by Stephen Bridges were introduced by the defense. In one Bridges told Mrs. W. J. McKeown that if her daughter had escaped unscathed from See ! was through no fault of the latter.

Bridge's Letter Read.

Another letter was to Mrs. Bridges, in which Bridges told his wife he was just beginning to understand her.
"I feel that some day you will throw a light on the world that the people do not know," the letter ran. "I think you are the chosen one to redeem the world and all others will sit back and world and all others will sit back and take notice. God must send someone and you are that one."

"I think See was the one to tell you, but that's all. He had nothing to do with it more than i. As you get more of it, you will go to the people of the world with your message and the people will stop and listen. See is a baby to you—to the great enlightenment you have." you have.

Mrs. Felicia Rees, mother of Mona, testified for the defense. She said her daughter came to Chicago to enlarge her knowledge of "absolute life" and spent her first night in the city with Mr. and Mrs. See, who were then liv-ing together. Witness said she and Mrs. See wrote parts of the "Book of

CLEVER FORGER ESCAPES Hoquiam Farmhand Cashed $517 in Bogus Paper.

HOQUIAM, Wash., June 20.-(Special.) -Police of this city and Aberdeen and Sheriff Ed Payette are seeking John Harmon, who passed forged checks to-taling $17.50 in this city yesterday and Thursday night and escaped. Two checks for a total of 355 were cashed by the Lumberman's Bank and the other for $72.50 was cashed by the Club saloon. Harmon is believed to have a genuine check for $72.50 still in his possession.

Harmon, who has been working for Peter Hunley, a rancher, near this city, for some time, was paid off Thursday and came to Hoquiam. Mr. Hunley gave him a check for $72.50 and it is believed he used this as a sample for the three forgeries, as he used only such figures as appear in the original. One cashed by the bank was for $272,50 and the other

The work on the checks was so good and the signature was so perfect the authorities were unable to tell the forged signatures from the real, and Mr. Hunley himself was confused. His own check has not been brought to the bank.

STATE RESTS IN SEATTLE

Wappenstein's Second Trial Brings Out Gill as Prominent Witness.

SEATTLE, Wash., June 30 .- The state rented its case today in the sec-ond trial of ex-Chief of Police Charles W. Wappenstein, accused of secepting a bribe of $1000 from Gideon Tupper and Clarence J. Gerald, for per-Tupper and Clarence J. Gerald, for permitting the operation of cribbouses in the old King street vice district. No evidence was introduced by the state that was not presented at the previous trial when the jury disagreed.

The defense began today by calling ex-Mayor Hiram. C. Gill, who declared that he was responsible for the establishment of the restricted district. In. J. K. Crichion, City Health Commissioner, was a witness for the state at the previous trial and was called by the defense in an effort to show that Wappenstein was not responsible for the collection of money from the for the collection of money from the women in the district but that a plan of enforced medical examination had been fostered by the City Council in order to enrich the City Treasury.

Willamina Druggist to Answer Federal Charge.

SHERIDAN, Or., June 30.—(Special.)
—The first result arising from the Federal investigations in Sheridan, Willamina and Dolph was made public yesterday when the Circult Court at McMinnville imposed a fine of $200 on William D. Easter and L. D. Hopfield, of Dolph, for bootlegging. Easter and Hopfield were also given a jail sentence of 20 days, which was suspended but good behavior, however.

These two men were running a gallon-house at Dolph without a license, and it seems they were doing a "land-office business" when they were apprehended a few days ago by the Federal officers who were sent there to investigate conditions regarding promiscuous bootlegging.

dan School District at the annual meeting, to such an extent as to practically close the school, has aroused such a general unfavorable comment that the School Board and patrons deem it wise to take steps to repair the threatened injury to the school system. At the annual meeting of the school district it was voted to levy a 7-mili tax, which tax would be insufficient to tax, which tax would be insulitated to run the schools for a period of more than six months; there was a clause in the motion that carried the placing of the levy which provided that the school year close when the district levy is exyear close when the district levy is exhausted and that no bonded indebtedness shall occur, and this would mean that the school district would not get

Treasury officials say they have positive evidence of instances where German cutlery manufacturers have prepared one set of price lists for the American Custom-Houses and another for the private use of their customers.

Large shipments of cutlery had been held up in New York by Collector Loeb. pending investigation into the charges of undervaluation, and this caused the protests by the Germans. Arrange-ments have been made by which the ments have been made by which the imports may be released. The Government will formally selze these goods, but they may go forward to destination on filing of a bond covering home values and a cash deposit of additional duties and possible penalties. The German government is investigating the complaints of its merchants.

FATHER FIGHTS FOR CHILD

Kansas Man Seeks Daughter: Girl's Grandparents Oppose

ALBANY, Or., June 30.—(Special.)— To obtain the custody of his 3-year-old daughter, Evelyn Clark, Hal R. Clark, ninent attorney of Independence Kan, filed a petition for a writ of ha-beas corpus in the County Court here today.

The child has been living with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Stewart, four miles east of Albany. Sheriff Smith went to the Stewart home and in response to the writ, brought the girl to this city, where she will be held until a court order settles the place of her future home. Clark's wife died when the girl was a baby and Mrs Clark's parents took her to and Mrs. Clark's parents took her to live with them and brought her with them to Oregon about two years ago. Clark remarried recently and desires to regain possession of the child. He came to Albany for that purpose, but the grandparents refused to part with the baby. They will contest the ha-beas corpus proceedings, which will be heard before County Judge Duncan tomorrow. Clark is County Attorney of Montgomery County, Kansas.

Census Shows Capital Nearly Doubled, Number of Employes Increased.

649 PLANTS ARE COUNTED

Value of Products Is Estimated a $48,861,000, Increase of 64 Per Cent for Period-Salem Figures Are Announced

WASHINGTON, June 30 .- (Special.)-A preliminary statement of the general results of the thirteenth United States census of manufactures of Portland, Or., was issued today by Acting Census Director Falkner. It contains a summary comparing the figures for 1904 and 1909, by city totals, prepared under the direction of William M. Steuart, chief statistician for manufactures, Bureau of the Census. The summary shows percentages of increase as follows: 110 per cent in the miscellaneous expenses; 93 per cent in the capital invested; 87 per cent in the value added by manufacture; 87 per cent in the number of salaried officlais and clerks; 70 per cent in the salaries and wages; 64 per cent in the value of products; 49 per cent in the number of establishments; 49 per cent in the average number of wage-earners employed during the year; and 47 per cent in the cost of materials used.

Establishments Number 649.

There were 649 establishments in 1909, as compared with 437 in 1904, an increase of 212, or 49 per cent.

The value of products in 1909 was $46,861,000, and $28,651,000 in 1904, an increase of $18,210,000, or 64 per cent. The average per establishment was approximately $72,000 in 1909, and about $66,000 in 1904,

The value of products represents their selling value or price at the plants as actually turned out by the factories during the census year, and does not necessarily have any relation to the amount of sales for that year. The values under this head also include the amount received for work done on materials furnished by others.

Laundries Represent $681,000. The preliminary totals for steam laundries for Portland, in 1909, are not included in the foregoing figures, as the thirteenth census was the first at which they were canvassed, and therefore they are here given separately, as follows: Number of establishments, 20; capital invested, $681,000; cost of materials used, $192,000; salaries and wages, $607.000; miscellaneous expenses, $113,000; value of products, $1,131, 900; number of salaried officials and clerks, 132; and average number of wage-earners employed during the year, 986.

The same report includes the figures of manufactures in Salem, Or. It gives no comparison, as it is the first detailed report from Salem the Census Burea has prepared. It shows that there were 62 establishments in 1909 and the value of their products was $2,208,000, an average per establishment of approximately $36,000.

Salem Figures Given.

Further details can be drawn from the summary which follows: Number of establishments, 62; capital invested, $1,661,000; cost of materials used, $1,-177,000; salaries and wages, $464,000; miscellaneous expenses, $270,000; value of products, $2,208,000; value added by manufacture (products less cost of materials), $1,031,000; number of salaried officials and clerks, 135, and average number of wage-earners employed during the year, 597.

The details of Portland's growth in manufacturing are given in a comparative table, which, excluding laundries from the classification of manufactorles, is as follows:

	Census.		50

Postal Business Gains. Postal receipts for the fiscal year, ending June 30, show a large increase for the corresponding year of 1910, for the corresponding postoffice yes-figures compiled at the Postoffice yes-$985,849, as against $841,929. The tables show a steady increase month by month over the months of the preceding year. The tabulated receipts for the month of June, 1911, totaled $81,840, as against $73,879 for the corresponding month in 1910. This is slightly over a 5 per cent increase, and has been the best midsummer month in the history of the Postoffice. While the real estate market is always more or less inactive at this time of the year, Portland operators and realty men continue to make important deals. There is a fairly good demand for city property, while acreage sales are keeping up well. Conditions are looking forward to an unusually good business this Fall.

Stockyards' Activity Great. The first six months of the year showed a great increase in the amount of business transacted at the Portland Union Stockyards. A total of 2956 cars of stock of all kinds were handled, which is a gain of 233 over the quan-

Seattle Banker's Alleged Offense

Barred by Limitation.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 30.—(Special.)—Albert J. Henry's suit for $100,-000 damages against S. Foster Kelley, a Seattle banker, for altenation of the affections of his wife, Mrs. Ivy May Henry, was thrown out of court today on a demurrer sustained by Superior Judge Sturievant.

Judge Sturievant upheld the demurrer on the ground that the action was barred by the statute of limitations.
By section 340 of the civil code, suits Judge Sturtevant. By section 349 of the civil code, salts brought on the ground of the seduction of a wife must be filed within one year. In his complaint against Kelley the aggrieved husband alleged that the banker had persuaded his wife to elope with him from Seattle to San Francisco. in December, 1909, and that they have been living together as husband and wife most of the time since.
