CHANGE TO HAVE PATRIOTIC PROGRAMME—A patriotic programme, appropriate to the Fourth of July, will be given this afternoon at the meeting of Evening Service, Patrons of Husbandry, in the hall on the Section line road. Miss Willida Buckman, lecturer, will be in charge. The following will deliver addresses: Oration, Rev. Harold Oberg, of Montavilla Methodist Church; talk on "Constitution in the Making," J. J. Johnson, master of the Grand, "The American Case," by A. A. Gibbard. Music and recitations will be given in connection with the address. The programme will be open to the public in the afternoon.

"KID" MORRISSEY ARRESTED—James Morrissey, who says he is a pugilist and as a matter of course wears the sobriquet "Kid," was arrested yesterday by Patrolman Hennessy on the charge of vagrancy. Beatrice Smith, 33 North Ninth street, advised that she had been striking her in the face and taking $10 from her. She asserts that she has been furnishing him money for five months.

THEATER SINGER ARRESTED—Charles Pavey, singer in a Sellwood theater, was arrested yesterday by Detective Price and taken to the station on a warrant taken out a month ago, but held up at the request of the complaining witness, who charges Pavey with stealing a watch. The defendant was arrested in his home, at East Forty-fifth and Belmont streets. The complainant is R. T. Livermore. The watch was found in a kitchen sink, and that Pavey took it from there.

CRIMINALS ARRESTED—A. Lawrence, said to be the most unruly prisoner known in Oregon or Washington, went along like a lamb when arrested by Patrolman Hennessy, on the charge of being drunk. He was sentenced to serve 30 days on the rockpile. Lawrence had just left the Walls Workhouse Penitentiary where he served five years and gave an exhibition of intractability that puzzled his keepers. He has been arrested many times and usually required a fight to get him into jail.

A DIVIDEND OF 20 per cent and the payment of interest on claims filed and approved having been ordered by the United States Circuit Court for the District of Oregon, creditors are notified to present their books, certificates of deposit, and other evidence of indebtedness, for payment of same at the office of the Receiver, corner of Second and Washington streets, Portland, Or., on or before July 15, 1911.

Mrs. J. B. Hirsch at Rest.—Mrs. J. B. Hirsch was buried in Beth Tzedek cemetery yesterday. Mrs. Hirsch came to Oregon 45 years ago and lived here continuously. She is survived by two children, Mrs. Albert Hirsch, of Chicago, and Mrs. Richard Hirsch, of Portland. Mrs. Richard Hirsch, of New York, a sister of Mrs. Hirsch, arrived here last month, after a separation of 25 years, and was present at the bedside when death called Mrs. Hirsch.

FORMER MORROW RESIDENTS TO REUNITE.—The Morrow County Reunion Association will hold its annual picnic at Columbia Park. Former residents of Morrow County and their families will attend, each to take a picnic basket and pass the day with old friends. A programme has been arranged. Those not able to attend have been asked to send postal card of greeting to Mrs. J. N. Brown, of 1614 Thurman street, Portland.

POLICE TO HERD COWS.—Detail of a police officer to herd cows was requested by the city manager yesterday. The police station yesterday. "Our cows don't give as much milk as they used to," the herd operator Van Overen. "I think some of the neighbors are milking them on the sly. I want you to have a policeman watch them." Van Overen assured the complainant that the officer on duty would be vigilant and eye upon her bovine herd in the future.

"OLD GEORGE" FOUND DEAD.—"Old George," an aged shack-dweller, known by other names, was found dead in a cabin at the foot of Sheridan street yesterday by employees of the Portland Lumber Company. Death appeared to have come from natural causes. The old man was about 60 years old and supported himself by catfishing with a hook and line.

CHILDREN GET LIBRARY BOOKS

Miss Millard, of the Portland Public Library, yesterday afternoon, began the circulation of books for children at the new Brooklyn Park, or playground, on Milwaukie and Powell streets, for the summer. It is planned to have a box of books to be distributed to those who want them and to receive the books given out the week before. Miss Millard will also entertain the children with stories. Miss Muir will be in charge of the ground from 9 A. M. until 5 P. M. to look after the children. Parkkeeper Peterson will be there from 10 A. M. to 5 P. M. The Brooklyn Improvement Club, which was instrumental in establishing the Brooklyn Park, plans to celebrate opening of the playgrounds soon.

SANDY INCORPORATION OPPOSED.—The movement to incorporate Sandy, started by the Sandy Commercial Club, will be fought out in the courts. The club got the matter to a vote and it carried, but the opposition has caused the case to be brought to court. George C. Brownell has been employed by the Commercial Club to handle the legal end of the case. Blue prints of the proposed new city have been prepared showing the territory and at a meeting of legal voters the movement was approved. The club has raised $150 to meet the expenses of the case. Sandy has a population of 250 people. This is the second attempt to incorporate.

CLUB BOOSTS AUDITORIUM.—Taking into consideration the opening of the auditorium ordinance and the selection of the site committee, the Portland Commercial Club has issued a convention booklet, describing the advantages of the city and surrounding country, the scenic and natural advantages, hotels, parks, trips, conveniences and amusements of the city. It is accompanied by a comprehensive map and is for general circulation.

PATROLMEN SAVE SLUMBERERS.—Quick action of Patrolmen Miller and Hewston saved lodgers in the Morrison rooming-house, 533 Morrison street, from injury, when a fire was discovered at 4:35 o'clock yesterday morning. The officers turned in an alarm and then went through the house arousing the sleepers, who started from a defective flue, and did damage to the extent of $100, partly covered by insurance. The building was damaged in the same way about a month ago.

THEATER SINGER ARRESTED.—Charles Pavey, singer in a Sellwood theater, was arrested yesterday by Detective Price and taken to the station on a warrant taken out a month ago, but held up at the request of the complaining witness, who charges Pavey with stealing a watch. The defendant was arrested in his home, at East Forty-fifth and Belmont streets. The complainant is R. T. Livermore. The watch was found in a kitchen sink, and that Pavey took it from there.

FIRST MASS CELEBRATED.—Rev. Nicholas Paterson, of St. Nicholas Church, Portland, will celebrate his first mass in Sacred Heart Church, in Benedictine Heights, Sunday, at 10:30 A. M. He lived in Sacred Heart parish for 10 years and also attended school at Mount Angel. He was ordained June 19 for the diocese of Boise. Very Rev. Fr. Adelhelm, O. S. B., superior of the monastery, will deliver the sermon. The new priest has many friends and acquaintances in Portland.

CRIT AWARDS CONTRACT.—The Water Board yesterday afternoon awarded the contract for a branch office in Upper Albina to the Newport Engineering Company, the Bid was $22,540. It is a contract to Schade Bros. for the plumbing; heating plant to Swanby & Schneider; wiring to the Haszall Engineering Company; electrical to the Electric Company and lighting fixtures to M. J. Walsh.

OLD RESIDENT DIES.—Mrs. Phoebe J. Dunstan died at the home of her grand-daughter, Mrs. A. R. Watson, Thursday afternoon, July 1, at the age of 76 years. She had lived in Portland for 20 years. She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Sarah M. Crosby and Mrs. Ida E. Boyles, and a son, George E. Dunstan. The funeral will be held Sunday from the funeral home of the East Side Funeral Directors, 414 East Sixth street.

WILLIAM F. FISHER DIES.—William F. Fisher died at his home, 1091 Maryland avenue, yesterday, at 44 years of age. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. George E. Fisher. He was the son of Mrs. W. H. Payne and brother of Mrs. J. A. Kessley and Mrs. J. Byrne, of this city. The funeral will be held at the home of Mrs. Fisher, at 1091 Maryland avenue, at 2 o'clock, and the burial will be made in Multnomah cemetery.

MULTNOMAH CAMP ENTERTAINS.—Multnomah Camp, 17 Woodmen of the World, entertained members, their families and friends last night in the hall on East Sixth street. Rev. Albert Ehrhott gave a stereopticon lecture, "On Wheels Through Europe." Mrs. Ehrhott spoke on "Unique Life of Burmans," in the course of which she appeared in native costume.

4TH PLANS CHANGE

Celebration Not to Be as Elaborate as Intended.

OUTSIDE EVENTS LURE
Athletic Events to Be Held in Every Park and Band Concerts Are Arranged—Auto Races Are Country Club Card.

The Fourth of July celebration in Portland will not be as elaborate as at first planned, excepting of residents from the city that day tending to cut down the number of attractions arranged for the holiday. There will be plenty of entertainment, however, especially for children, and the Mayor's committee for a sane and safe Fourth has arranged an attractive programme at the parks in Portland.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH MINISTER WILL SPEAK HERE TOMORROW.
Rev. F. M. Rains, secretary of the Foreign Christian Missionary Society of the Christian Church, has just completed a tour of the world and is now in Portland to attend the National convention of this church, which begins Tuesday, July 4. Mr. Rains will speak at the Central Christian Church, East Twentieth and Salmon streets, Sunday morning, at 11 o'clock and at the First Church, Park and Columbia streets, in the evening. Mr. Rains is an eloquent speaker and is recognized as a man of great ability by the people of the church which he represents.

Many Towns to Celebrate.
A number of Fourth of July celebrations in the small towns of the vicinity of Portland are expected to take away from the city a large number of persons. At Vancouver there will be an athletic contest between the soldiers at the fort and various drills by the regiment.

AT ST. JOHNS a large entertainment will be given by the P. O. B. Lodge in the Eagles hall, in which dancing will figure prominently. There will also be a number of basket picnics by various organizations.

AT GLENDON a Chautauque will open for a 13-day season, and at Gresham there will be racing and baseball. At Crystal Springs the Journeymen Barber's Union will hold its annual picnic and at Estacada there will be an old-fashioned Fourth of July celebration, with a parade, speeches and old-time dances. There will also be a baseball game.

Among the excursions leaving Portland will be that of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, who have chartered the steamer Monarch for a trip up the river to Emerald Grove. Music will be furnished, and at the grove an athletic carnival will be held.

Veterinary Inspects Fine Herd.
WASHOUGAL, Wash., June 30.—(Special.)—Dr. S. H. Nelson, Assistant State Veterinarian of Washington, was here today inspecting dairy herds in search of tuberculosis. He came at the request of E. C. Palmer, a leading dairyman of this place. The doctor made a test of 70 head of milch cows and found no evidence of the tubercular germ. Mr. Palmer supplies much milk and cream to the military post at Vancouver, and wishes to have what is known through this section as a "certified herd."
