TRESSPASSER FOUND IN BANK.—Secreted all night in a corner of the Ladd & Tilton Bank, Spalding building, Dominic Loskey was discovered by Police Eargeant Riley yesterday morning, just as he broke a pane of glass in the door of the bank and was crawling out to freedom. He was arrested on a charge freedom. He was arrested on a charge of treaspass. The prisoner could give no account of how he got into the bank or what his object was in doing so. It is supposed that he secreted himself before the bank closed. Saturday noon, but the police are unable to account for his remaining so long without being detected. Loskey had just finished a sentence at the Linnton quarry, given him for assaulting a prisoner in the City tail.

Trainan Dennes Guilt.—Identified as one of the gang which bliked Quintilio Desideri out of $1500 last January. Stephen Ferra, arrested by detectives Saturday night with other alleged. Saturday night with other alleged bunco men, who are accused of playing a similar game upon George Dariotis for $1600, protested his guilt with the police yesterday. Desideri said that Ferra is the man who boarded at his house and learned that he had the house and learned that he had the money to invest. Then he disappeared and others of the gang turned up, who induced him to enter a real estate spec-ulation and "switched" satchels, gotting away with the money. Ferra and his three companions gave ball yesterday and were released until this morning.

MRS. PHOEBE DUSTAN BURIED.—The funeral of Mrs. Phoebe J. Dustan. who died at the home of her granddaugh-ter, Mrs. A. R. Watson, 560 East Sal-man street. Friday, was held yester-day afternoon from the chapel of the East Side Funeral Directors. Burtal was in Lone Fir Cemetery. Mrs. Dustan was 78 years of age, and came to Portland 20 years ago from Pennsyl-vania. She had been a member of he First Universalist Church, and the First Universalist Church, and Bev. James D. Corby, the paator, con-ducted the services. She is survived by three grown children—Mrs. Sarah M. Crosby, Mrs. Ida E. Boyles and George Dustan, all of Portland.

KENTON GETS FIREHOUSE.—The fire-house in Kenton will be completed and turned over to the city within 10 days. For the present a hose reel by a volunteer fire company, but later it is the purpose of the city to provide a chemical or steam fire en-gine. The growth of Kenton is such that it is considered probable that a full-fledged fire company will be needed in less than a year.

CHURCH TO CALL NEW PASTOR.-The CHURCH TO CALL NEW PARTOR.—The congregation of the Mount Tabor Presbyterian Church will appoint a committee at the meeting next Thursday night to recommend the calling of a regular pastor to take the place of Rev. E. M. Sharp, who resigned. The names of several prominent Pres-byterian ministers have been menfloned in connection with the Mount Tabor Church, which has just finished a $17,000 stone edifice.

Dominican Fathers at Brack.—The Dominican Fathers of the Holy Ro-Dominican Fathers of the Holy Ro-sary Church, Union avenue and East Third street, have gone to North Beach, for July and August and the first week in September. They will conduct services at Beach Center. The Sunday school has closed for the Summer and the choir has also taken a vacation, but will return to take part in the feast of St. Dominic on August 5.

NEW PRIEST WARMLY GREETED,-Rev. Father Nicholas Hahn, newly-ordained priest, celebrated his first solemn mass yesterday morning in Sacred Heart Courch, on Benedictine Heights. A large congregation, including his father and mother and sisters, who live in the parish, greeted him. Rev. Father Hahn formerly lived in Port-land. Rev. Prior Adelheim, O. S. B., of Mount Angel, delivered the sermon.

YOUTH FORCED TO RETURN

C. A. Rowland, Charged with Election Fraud, Given Up by Bondsman

Because he failed to keep faith with his bondsman, Courtney R. Rowland, one of the five youths arrested for forging names to ex-Councilman Ellis' petition for a competitive paving measure, was arrested at Hood River by the bondsman, C. B. Mitchell, and was delivered to the custody of the police yesterday morning.

Rowland was arrested several months ago, on a charge of loading the Ellis petition with forged names. He was indicted by the grand jury and was held under bond of $1000. The young man found difficulty in giving this surety until a friend induced Mitchell to put up the amount. Mitchell did so upon Rowland's promise that he would report to the bondsman's office every day. Instead of doing so, he went to Hood River, and Mitchell went into Circuit Court and surrendered him. Before being exonerated, the bondsman was compelled to bring the prisoner back within the jurisdiction of the ack within the jurisdiction of the ourt, which feat he accomplished yes-

Greatly Reduced by the Holman Undertaking Company,

Heretofore it has been the custom of funeral directors to make charges for all incidentals connected with a funeral. The Edward Holman Undertaking Company, the leading funeral directors of Portland, have departed from that custom. When casket is furnished by us we make no extra charges for embalming, hearse to cemetery, outside box or any services that may be required efus, except clothing, cemetery and carriages, thus effecting a saving of $25 to $75 on each funeral.
