DEFEAT COMES TO BEAVERS IN 19TH

Long. Brilliant Contest Won the odd game of the series. Senators - Seaton and Baum Battle.

GAME SEASON'S LONGEST

Portland Pitcher Allows but 14 Hits to Opponent's 22, but Luck Comes to Sacramento at Close. McCredies Win First.

SACRAMENTO, Cal., July 2 .- (Specfal.)-After playing one of the old sand-lot exhibitions in the morning at Stockton, where Portland won by a score of 19 to 11, the Beavers and Senators settled down in the afternoon and went 19 innings in the recordbreaking game of the present Coust League season. Sacramento winning 6

For 10 innings each team tried to hreak the 4-to-4 tis and Portland finally put over one in the first of the eighteenth. In the last of the inning Sacramento scored, balancing up the tallies for what looked like an "allnight stand," until the locals edged one over in the last of the mineteenth.

A wild pitch and Thomas' hit broke A wild pitch and Thomas' hit broke up the afternoon game in the nine-teenth. Mahoney awung at the third atrike, which was a wild outdrop. The ball bounced through Catcher Kuhn and against the wire netting in the grandstand, Mahoney easily making first. He was advanced a bag by Thornton's neat sacrifice and scored by a narrow margin from second when Thomas drove one over second base into centerfield. centerfield.

Senators Score First.

Sacramento began the afternoon hostilities in the second when Danzig sent a homer to the far left field corner. Three more hits and Chadbourne's miscue gave the Senators three runs.
Nebinger walked in the fourth and scored from first on Thomas' double to center. Nebinger ran so fast he became sick and had to retire in the fifth.
It was Portland's turn to fall into line in the fifth, Baum had only allowed two scattered hits up to this time, but the Beavers got wise to nis curves. Knhn hit but was forced out on McKune's grounder, and after Seaton flied out, Chadbourne singled.
Sheehan's double brought two across.

Sheehan's double brought two across.

Krueger made two bases on a Texas leaguer in the sixth, and Peckinpaugh brought him around with a single.

The Beavers tried to break up the game in the eighth with three hits and Lerchen's error. Bapps and Krueger singled. Mahoney held on to the ball so long that Rapps, who took third on Krueger's hit, made a dash for the plate, but was pegged out by for the plate, but was pegged out by a relay to Baum. Lerchen, fielding Peckinpaugh's grounder, throwed over Danzig, Kruseger scoring. Kuhn beat out an infield hit, but was caught trying the double steal with Peckin-

Fine Playing Seen.

The extra innings saw the finest ball playing of the day. Baum and Seaton were each determined to win. Hits were scarce. In the 14th inning, each team executed a smart double play. A double play in the 13th took Haum out of a hole after Chadbourne had led off with a hit, but the two In the 14th saved each side.

A double play checked Sacramento in the lith and fast fielding head Portland down in the same frame after Warren had dropped Krueger's fly. Krueger singled in the 18th and Peckinpaugh fouled out trying to Kubn's triple to left brought

In the last of the 18th, Heister's one to center tied the score, bringing Lerchen over.

Although Ryan got a scratch hit in the 19th, Portland was helpless and the Senators then got the winning

OAKLAND LOSES BOTH GAMES

Vernon Outbats and Outfields Transbay Organization.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 2 .- Outbatting and outfielding Oakland, Vernon took both games here today. Oakland substituted Gregory and Mitze for Pearce and Ables in the afternoon game, but the onslaught on the trans-bay batteries was heavier than in the morning session, the southerners totaling 12 hits to Oakland's five. Gipe opened hostilities for Vernon in the morning match, but was replaced by Breckenridge after he had allowed one run and four hits in four innings. Morning game-

...... BACKSTOP JUMPS FROM CLASS A TO CLASS B AND BACK IN MONTH.

Backstop Bradley, of the Portland Beavers, has the unique rec-ord of going from Class A ball to Class B and back to the higher to Class B and back to the light classification, all within one month's time. Bradley is the stocky receiver secured from Johnstown of the Tri-State League, through Cleveland. He reported for service with the Portland Coast team, was then transferred to the Portland Northwesterners and later recalled when Tommy Murray suf-fered an injured digit in the Oakland series a week ago.

afternoon. The Glants took the first game Sunday-a free-hitting affair-6 to 5, and lost the second in a farcical exhibition, 9 to 1, following the ignominious rout of Southpaw Archer, whom Manager Tighe had picked to pit against his former teammates.

The series was evenly split with three games aplece. Over 4000 fans and fannettes were on hand when Umpire Alien pressed the button for maledictions to begin at 2 P. M. Portsider Tonneson mounted the platform for the Portland Northwesterners, opposing old Jim Wiggs, the same disciple of cabbagepatch fame responsible for Thursday's 4 to 6 whitewashing. Wiggs won again, but not before the Roadsters had binged him for an ill-omend 13 safeties.

Ort's Single Turns Tide.

Ort really dumped the cornucopla for Seattle by a single to center in the seventh inning with the score tied and three men on the bags and two out. Shea and Wiggs, who had also hit safely, were sent across the pan. Seat-tle added another to this score of 5 to 3 on hits by Weed and Shea in the eighth, but Portland was also busy with a tattoo off Wiggs' platterings, Williams driving in Stovall in the seventh and Coltrin crossing after three singles in the eighth.

Lamline twirled beautiful ball in the final contest, allowing six hits scattered in six different innings. Knight or Fullerton had been originally scheduled to heave for Seattle, but Tighe finally decided to try out Archer, released yesterday by Port-land and signed up just before the game.

Tighe Explains Move.

"I believe he'll go in there and pitch rings around the Roadsters," said Tighe in explaining his move.

Archer did pitch rings for three innings. Then came the awful fourth, when 12 men went to the plate for eight hits, a walk and eight tallies. Seaton was finally called in from center field to hold things down to rea-sonable proportions and hurled fine ball from that on. Archer's unfortusonable proportions and hurled fine ball from that on. Archer's unfortu-nate showing will probably spell re-lease by Seattle.

School twirter, recently recently fixed to toria, is one of them, and Roy WiHett, who has been with Vernon in the Coast League, is the other.

Willett has been highly recommended

icase by Scattle.

The line-ups of both squads suffered divers and sundry changes. Casey was kicked out of the curtain-raiser for fussing about a strike decision, Men-sor switching in to second and Harris to the outfield. In the second contest, Ort suffered a similar fate and Weed Ort suffered a similar fate and Weed was brought in to first from the sunfield, Nelson a Portland "semi-pro," being ordered to Weed's garden. A slight injury to Mensor also dislocated Williams' batting order, Moore, who had played great ball in the opener, going in to receive and Harris to the Lamiline and Williams pulled off a beautiful play at first base after Seaton's grounder had been speared by Williams in the second inning of the final game. Lamiline took the throw on the dead run.

The locals tried to bunt Wiggs out of the ber but could not connect properly and abandoned the tactics after an inning or two. Wiggs threw away the only bunt in the Thursday game.

The details of the fourth inning of the second contest when Portland ran in eight runs are as follows: Stovall flew out to right. Williams walked, Mensor singled to center. "Roscoe Fawcett, Sporting Editor Ore-gonian-Dear Sir: I am up against it for fair and I want you to wise me up so my foot won't slip. I've been trailing with a swell girl and she tips me she wants some cyster forks like she's been read-ing about at banquets. Not being strong on this millionaire stuff, I ain't next on on this minionaire state, and the what oyster forks is like. Are they anything like clam rakes? Now, deal me on the level with this, for I don't want me girl to get sore on me and give someone else a chance to tunner under Yours for class, JAMES HANLEY." 'Oregon City Sure thing, James, I'll tip you the best I know, for it's tough to lose a girl you've been spending real money on. Oyster forks are not like claim rakes, although I've known of social events where clam rakes would be more useful Oyster forks are something like Oyster forks are sometime that observed tongs, only more so. Any first-class ship chandler will fix you up with the oyster forks. I don't know the price, but they cost less than clam rakes and are not so heavy to carry.

Lamline is a big fellow, a willing worker, has speed, control and sharp benders, and gives promise of developing into one of the most consistent performers in the league. His season's record now reads nine wins and five defeats, and that with a club whose average is less than half its games.

Lamline could undoubtedly have set the Seattleltes down with four hits yesterday had he so willed, for it was apparent to everybody in the stand that he was doing the good Samaritan act with his ex-pai and teammate, Fullerton, who shunted to Seaton's place in the center garden after Portland had cinched the game. Fullerton fattened his batting average to the extent of two hits in three trips. St. Louis did a similar turn with Nap Lajole last Fall in an ineffectual effort to beat Ty Cobb out of the high batting automobile, in that instance the entire St. Louis team being in on the deal.
