WIFE THINKS HUSBAND DEAD,-Charles H. Parish, who left his home at 1672 East Morrison street Saturday morning, leaving a note which indicated his intention of jumping into the river, is still missing, and the authorities believe that he has carried out his threat. Detective Hawley was as-signed by Captain Moore to the task of finding him if alive, but obtained or inding him if alive but estained no results. Search is still being made for the unknown man with whom Parish was seen riding down town in a streetcar, with the hope that he may be able to throw light on the movements of Parish. The missing man's wife is convinced that her husband is

COUPLE SAVED FROM DROWNING .- A man and a woman, not identified, nar-rowly escaped death in the river op-posite the Portland Lumber Company's mills. Saturday night, when the boat in which they were was rammed and overturned by the launch Farragut, carrying a load of passengers from the Oaks. The accident happened shortly before midnight. In attempting to avoid collision with another rowboat, the Parragut ran head-on into the boat containing the two, and hurled them into the water. They were dragged out by the launch crew and put ashore.

Chinase Woman Alleged Thire.— Larcony of $1700 is charged by Sold Sing. of the Hop Sing Tong, against Hong Gon, a Chinese woman, who was arrested yesterday by Detectives Tichenor and Howell. The woman fought vigorously against arrest and it was necessary to use force in placing her in jail. At the same time Wong Quang, her male compainion was taken into custody and was found to be carrying a loaded revolver. He had in his possession drafts for $1000, $200 in currency and several valuable pieces-of Chinese jewelry, BELLIGERENT CONTRACTOR HELD,-For engaging in a fist fight in which an eye of T. A. Ketchum was draped in mourning. D. J. Mott, a contractor, was held to answer to the grand jury in Justice Olson's court yesterday. Mott and Ketchum were associated in a grading contract and engaged in a dispute which led to blows. The com-plaining witness has been a frequent belligerent in the courts.

COMPANIES EXAMINED. Mayor Rushlight yesterday requested that all bonding companies furnish statements of their resources and Il-abilities. Many of these firms '-ond contractors who are engaged in city work and it has come to the Mayor that some of them may not have sufficient backing to make good any claim that might be required. To save the cost of storage on two 100-horsepower return tubular bollers which we are now taking out, we will sell them at a bargain if taken at once. WELL balanced and full of comedy solving the problem of a "sane Fourth" today, and of entertainment for the re-mainder of the week.

Grace Cameron who is a bundle of delight all in herself, heads the list with her "songs," only one of which, "The Miller's Daughter" is a legitimate melody. The others are delivered with a delicious throaty affectation. Miss Cameron has two "pieces de resistance," one of which is "If Adam had never tended portion will also be paved.

"Father" Royal's Book Being Printer. The book of pioneer history, written by Rev. "Father" T. F. Royal, a well-known pioneer of Oregon and completed just before his death, is being printed in Cincinnati, O., under the supervision of his son, Stanley O. Royal, and will be completed about the last of the month or first of August. The book will be profusely illustrated and nearly all the pioneer missionaries will gure prominently in the work. "Father" Boyal spent the last years of his life at the home of Rev. Harold Oberg, his son-in-law, in Montaville, where the main portion of the book was written. He did not live long enough to revise the manuscript, but his son has done that work and friends arranged for the publication.

Hailet Gatzert's Engine Falls. been introduced to Eve," and an alto-gether new treatment of Marie Dressgether new treatment of Marie Dress-ler's "Heaven will protect the working girl" in both of which Miss Cameron created gales of mirth at the first jinks of the Press Club last Fall, while she was in Portland with her musical comedy "Nancy." Miss Cameron's "elo-cution" and gestures are chapters of fun, and her costume invites police in-vestigation as a disturber of the peace.

Very much out of the ordinary is the indoor circus under the auspices of the Lerch family of 10, two trick ponies and trick mules. Their tumbling is hazardous and they keep their audience in a state of open-mouthed wonder. Old favorites, back once more, are James F. Kelly and Annie Kent, in their hodgepodge of amicable conversation and songs. Miss Kent does a feminine house." Impresentation that provokes "bruiser" impersonation that provokes joy, and the two have a soft shoe dance that delights. One of the attractions of the bill is Clifford Walker, a monologist, who plays his own incidental music and chats a few songs in new way. All of Clifford's chatter is new. Gerald Griffin, an actor of the old school, offers a playlet, with the help of a trie of actors, which he calls "Other People's Money." The audience it was assured the steamer would have all passengers allowed under her license. She arrived here early this morning and will be ordered at once to the yards. As the steamer Dalles City was not available here the excurother People's Money. The andence is "in" on the plot and anticipates the denoument, in which a foxy financier is outwitted by a foxier young man.

Upside down boys are Vittorio and Georgette, who prance and dance on their mitts, finishing with a clever and unique boxing start. MRE. J. W. Virtue, wife of J. W. Virtue, wife of J. W. their mitts, finishing with a clever and unique boxing stunt.

A quartet of "almost singers and dancers" are the two Fays, and the two Coleys, blackface folk, who offer a mediocre act that has as an excuse a novel finale in which they "imitate" a streetcar and a motor. A special feature of the programme yesterday that will be repeated today is the patriotic music, "Recollections of the War," introducing pictures and scenic effects, stories of the North and South.

Mrs. Virtue was a resident of Portland for several years, until about two years ago when she was taken to California by her husband in the hope that the change of climate would benefit her health. She is survived by her husband and two children. Mrs. Lilah Virtue Hardy and Robert Virtue. I. B. Bowen, proprietor of the Baker City Democrat, is a brother of Mrs. Virtue. SECOND PITELINE TO BE TESTED.—The second Bull Run pipeline is in the trench between the Mount Tabor reservoir and Sandy River and nearly ready. JOHN W. trench between the Mount Tabor reservoir and Sandy River and nearly ready to be tested. The pipe was laid along the Section Line road, with the result that the road has been badly obstructed during the past year. The dirt from the trench occupies half the roadway. Every connection of the pipes is exposed for inspection. The road will remain obstructed until the pipeline has been tested and covered. It will probably be a year before the Section Line read can be repaired and put in good condition. Willie Zimmerman presented not only composers of other days, but modern writers, among whom was Oscar Hammerstein, whose repartes with the or-chestra brought rounds of laughter. The different ways of singing "Little Annie Rooney Is My Sweetheart," as Mr. Zim-merman imagined Lisat, Wagner and other composers would do, surprised those not initiated into the rules of har-mony and rhythm. Repeated recalls coaxed Mr. Zimmerman into giving his original idea of a battle in which the audience is used to supply the noise and boom of gun and cannon by hand-

Sweeney and Rooney presented novel-ty clog dancing. The indifferent way they danced up and down stairs brought them generous applause.

The Rappo Sisters, from the Imperial Opera-house at St. Petersburg, gave folk dances, their costumes portraying the characteristic Siberian, Russian, Cir-cassian and Cossack vividly. The grace and agility of these petite foreigners captivated the audience.

Another treat from Russia was Ros-

Belmont School (FOR BOYS)

OPEN EVENINGS

BELMONT, CAL. (Twenty-five Miles South of San Francisco):

The school is trying to do for the moral and physical, but less than for the intellectual, welfare, of each boy what a thoughtful parent must wishes to have done. Contributa thoughful parent most wishes to have done. Contributing to this end are the location of the school removed from the temparious and distractions of town or city; the fineness of the climate, the excellence of its buildings and other equipment and the heavit and except of its grounds, with the wide range of foothills surrounding them. We are glad to have our parsons and graduates consulted. For examingua, bookiet and further specific information address the head outsire. W. T. REID, A. M. (Harrand). Fall term begins Aug. 14th.
