BEAVERS SNATCH GAME IN NINTH

Lerchen's Error and Arrellanes' Balk Contribute to Victory.

PLAYS THRILLING

Heister Twice Robs Portland of Scores by Grandstand Catches. Senators Get Short End of Series Here.

HY W. J. PHTRAIN. After robbing the Beavers of vicearlier in the game, the Senators exploded in the ninth inning and Portland put the winning run of a 3 to score through an error by Lerchen and a balk by Frank Arellanes, who lost his first game this season. The victory gives Portland the series, four practice to three.

Elmer Koustner occupied the bill for Elmer Koestner occupied the Idil for the Beavers, and he pitched good snough ball to win any day. The silent one was on the job at all times. The two scores registered against him were the result of a base on balls and the only long hit be allowed. However, had "Patsy" O'Rourke not kicked him-self out of the game, Nebinger would not have had the opportunity of lacing-out the two-bagger he annoxed in the hot have had the opportunity of incing out the two-bagger he annexed in the sixth inning. Keestner had O'Rourks on his staff. Had O'Rourke remained in the game it might have meant a shutout victory, but he crossed Mc-Greevy in the third and was ejected from the scenary.

Rapps Scores First.

Bill Rapps' base-running was respine happy base-running was re-spinesible for the first two runs tallied by the Beavers, and both times Bill spored from second on dinky infield hits. With one out in the fourth, Bill hits. With one out in the fourts, has hit for two sacks to deep left, and tal-lied all the way from second when Peckinpaugh hit a slow grounder over the mid-station and beat it to first. Rapps did not stop at third, but scoot-ed home and tallied easily. The Sen-ators were caught napping at his dar-

In the Senators' half of the sixth, they did things. Shinn, first man up, walked. Nebinger, the little redhead who became eligible when O'Hourke got "canned," drove a two-bagger against the left-field fence, scoring Shine. Van Buren sacrificed, advanc-ing Nebinger to third, and Denzig's long sacrifice fly to Ryan tallied the scond run. Mahoney fanned and the inning was over.

Beavers The Score.

One run behind, the Beavers came to bat in their half of the sixth, and once more Bill Rapps was the hero. Ryan popped to Nebinger, but Rapps singled to center. Krueger bounced one off Jimmy Shinn's shine for an infield hit, and Heister saved Arelianes' bacon temporarily by making a grand-stand catch of Peckinpaugh's long drive to left. Walter Kuhn shunted a slow grounder toward second, and easily beat it to first. Bill Rapps did not hesitate at third, but dashed across the register before the Senators were alive to the situation. This tied vers alive to the situation. This tied

With Ryan on second in the eighth, Krueger uncorked a scemingly sure $16 swat, but Heister made another grandstand catch, and the Beavers were de-prived of a score. In the ninth, the Senstors' efforts were fruitless, but Terry McKune, first man up for Portland, was safe on Lerchen's error. He ambled to see ond when Arellanes contributed a balk. Keestner sacrificed neatly, putting Terry on third. It was up to Chad-bourne, and he was figured to try for a long fig. but instead he gave Mo-"office" for a squeeze, and his perfect bunt was not handled McKune scoring the winning run. "Chad" gets credit for his second bit, as well as for breaking up the game.

Vernon Comes Temorrow.

The Senators left last night for Los Angeles. Vernon will open a series of six games here, commencing Tuesday. Henderson will pitch Tuesday's Artie Krueger made a bot before the game that he would get at least two hits, and a chap maned Heister rocked him of his second hit and Artie had to pay.

Patsy of Househ thought Umpire McGreevy was swaring blinders when he called Dannig out on a double pely, and Patsy forgot to keep his thoughts to himself, with the result that McGreevy banished him.

Haister worked his way around to third in the seventh with only one man out, but was tossed out at the plate on a fine play by Peckinpaugh, who threw accurately to Muhn when Larchen grounded to short.

Bamy Henderson has made his peace with McGredia, and the hig pitcher was given a rousing hand when he appeared in mifrom at practice before westerday's game. Henny is populate in Portand.

Jimmy Shinn made a wonderful eatch of in the fourth inning. Shinn took a chance of Rnocking bimself out in a collision with the stand, but he made the catch and held the ball. In the seventh, Elmer Rosstner slammed one back at Arrellanes at terrific speed. The Senatorial twirler could not get out of the way of it, and stopped the ball and successed in picking it up in time to get Eccepter at first.

Portland enlivened the game by pulling off two speedy double plays.

Ryan Cannot Be Had Now. According to the current issue of the Sporting News, of St. Louis, Clevethe Sporting News, of St. Louis, Cleve-land is figuring on trading Art Griggs to Portland for Buddy Ryan so that the local swat-merchant can go East-ward at once. Seattle fans have seldom seen a game where so many sub-climaxes were introduced. In more than half the first eight innings, Seattle had men on the sacks in such a way that a hit or a foozle would have tied the score or given them the lead, but so strong was the defense of the Portland crowd and so effective Bloomfield's pitching that local hopes were blasted every time. In three innings two men were left stranded and in the fifth three perished miserably. Seattle had ten men left on bases, three times Portland's number.

Both Sage and Bloomfield pitched great ball, but Sage had a little bet-ter of the argument in the number of ter of the argument in the number of hits and he gave only one pass, while Bloomfield walked three and hit two. Albany's Refusal to Play at Hubbard Is Scored.

SCHEDULE BADLY MUDDLED

President Hunt, of Valley League, Says Season May Be Brought to End Prematurely Because of Trouble,

SALEM, Or., July 9 .- (Special.) -- Instead of the hoped for reorganization and strengthening of the Willamette Valley League planned for at a meeting of the managers to be held here tonight, there is every indication that the league is on the verge of disrup-tion, and that league ball among the teams will be discontinued after next Sunday: President John Hunt, of Woodburn, and Secretary Jermain, of Sa-lem, were the only managers here. President Hunt declares that Albany broke faith with the league today by refusing to follow schedule and play Hubbard, at Hubbard. "Albany never placed any forfeit money and as a result that team can do about as it pleases, but the move today in refus-ing to follow the schedule and the falling to follow the schedule and the fall-ure of the managers to appear here looks as though the league may be disrupted and organized ball cut out in the valley for this season.

"We have a game scheduled next Sunday with Salem here and will play it. Albany at first refused to play at Hubbard today and then when we of-fered to compromise and send Hub-bard to Albany, the Albany manager and I am under the impression that is what was done. At any rate Hub-bard did not play. Corvallis is no officially in the league, and so our schedule was broken into and will probably be cut out altogether unless some understanding can be reached." Woodburn succeeded in defeating Salem today 5 to 4. Salem played ex-cellent ball and in the seventh kept Woodburn from scoring by a fast dou-ble from Porterfield to Cernik to Col-

Jerman and Kasper was a feature. Salem ... 4 7 4 Woodburn 5 6 1 Batteries — Allegart and Jones: Holmes and White. Umpire—Richard-son, of Portland.
