FARMERS' AID REQUIRED

Expert Cites Wisconsin's Betterment After Killing Infected Cattle to Crusade's Worth. Oregon Society Elects.

A general discussion of the economic secessity of destroying cattle which are found to be infected with tuberculosis marked the close yesterday afternoon of the ansual convention of the Oregon State Medical Association, which had been in progress since Monday. The closing discussions followed the election of officers for the ensuing year and the transaction of other business. Dr. M. P. Ravenel, a distinguished authority on tuberculosis led the dis-cussion with a talk on the destruction of the tuberculosis as the solution of the tuberculosis problem sinong

"It is a subject of education," de-clared Dr. Ravenel, "and as the farmer gets educated in the economic value of destroying his infected herds, just that soon will tuberculosis in the human family loss the upper hand.

Publicity Ise Needed.

We must have education and publi-city to arouse the public sentiment against the conditions which now exist and then we will look at the problem in a different light. It will be hard at first and it will be costly, but it will be an economical move in the long rin an economical move in the long rin.
In the first place we must place tuberculosis in cattle on the same plane as tuberculosis in man. It must be the duty of every person who knows of the existence of tuberculosis in any milch cow or any other animal to re-port to the State Board of Health the same as is now done in cases of other contagious diseases and it must be the duty of the State Board of Health to destroy the animal. I believe in the payment of an indemnity for all cattle

Wisconsin's Case Cited.

The farmer must take a hand in The farmer must take a hand in this proposition. He must protect his herds, not alone for the sake of preventing the sprend of tuberculosis among those who buy milk from him, but for economy on his own part. In Wisconsin, where tuberculosis in cattle has been well stamped out by the use of the tuberculin test and the destruction of all cattle found to be infected, the value of cattle has been increased $10 a head. This makes culture of cattle profitable. The person could not sell an infected cow for that many cents in Wisconsin and he should many cents in Wisconsin and he should not be able to in other states. The farmer can protect his herds easily. In the first place it is his duty to stamp out all the disease by removing the infected cattle. Then he must not purchase outer cattle unless they pass the tuberculin fest absolutely. He must then be careful in getting the tubercular form the creamery his skimmed milk from the creamery for the use of his hogs as he might get the milk from cows other than his own and in that way stand a chance of feeding his hogs infacted milk and aprend it from them over all his barn-yard. absolutely accurate."

The address was followed by a general discussion in which many of the physicians expressed a desire to get to work at once to fight the discass through the destruction of cattle found to be infected. It was shown that it is possible by a process, before the tuberculin test is started, to make the test turn tables and in an infected cow show no infection. This practice, however is said to be limited and undoubt-Is said to be limited and undoubtever is said to be limited and undoubt-nelly more injury will result to the per-son who tries that than would if the animal were tested while in a normal condition, as the animal may not sur-eive the drug process.

It is the plan of the Potlatch com-mittee of the Commercial Club to ar-range for a second special to be run, in case the number of applicants for places is greater than can be accomme-dated on one train. While under the management of the Commercial Club, the excursion is not to be limited to club members. All who intend to go, tomobile Club, will lead the motorists out of Portland on their way, which leads them via McMinnville.

Assurance of a successful run, inso-

Whitson, general manager of the Golden Potlatch, has written the Commercial Clubhere, expressing his gratification at Portland's interest in the Potlatch and her purpose to send so large a crowd of visitors to attend it. He assures them that every effort will be used to make the visit pleasant, and that large blocks will be reserved in the grandstands so that the party from Portland may witness the Potlatch.

King Issues Proclamation.

King Edward I, ruler of the Golden Potlatch, has sent a proclamation to W. J. Hoffmann, chairman of the Portand Potlatch committee, appointing him "Duke of the Willamette," and commanding him to be present at the coronation, the royal hall and the other festivities of the Potlatch week. The proclamation is headed "Mythland in the North," and is signed "Edward, King D'Oro."

The Portland Commercial Club will have special badges prepared tourist excursionists from this city, which will be distributed freely to all, at the Union Depot on the morning of the departure.

National Farmers' Head to Exploit West in Middle West.

After a year and a half passed in touring the Pacific Coast, H. H. Carr, of Chicago, president of the National Farmers' Association, will return to preach the gospel of Western opportunity to the farming men of the Middie West. Mr. Carr made his second visit to Portland yesterday before leaving for the East. He has studied the various advantages of the Pacific Coast and of the Northwest in particular, and will use the information thus acquired to direct emigrants from the Middle West to the most advantageous places for settlement on the Coast. Mr. Carr says he believes the Middle West is too crowded and this is that the Pacific Coast offers the best places in the world for farmers.

"The entire Coast, from Vancouver, R. C., to San Diego," he said, "offers countless places where the rich re-tiring farmer of the Middle West might find a home better suited to his fancy than the cities in the inland, where he freezes in Winter and roasts in Sum-

A large amount of hard-surface payconsideration in this respect."

A large amount of hard-surface paying has been laid by resolution of the Council, without any petitions from the city Attorney to make the necesproperty owners. This has called forth a great deal of criticism. The new Mayor is opposed to this plan and made structed without permit from the city.

Potlatch Invitation Filed. An invitation from the Portland Commercial Club to the Council to attend the Golden Potlatch in Seattle in a body was given little consideration by Mayor Rushlight and the members of the Council,

"I move that any Councilman wishing to go, be allowed to go," said Councilman Baker. "The invitation will be placed on file and any of the members who wish to and can conveniently, may go," said Mayor Rushlight.

An invitation to attend the Elka' joilification meeting last night was se-cepted and, at the motion of Council-man Baker, a committee of three will cepted and, at the motion of Council-man Baker, a committee of three will be appointed by the Mayor to arrange for a fitting celebration in honor of the Elks who went to Atlantic City and won the convention for Portland. He said that this is one of the greatest whitements of Portland and that it schievements of Portland and that it should be recognized properly.

Chief's Memory Honored. Resolutions in honor of the late Fire Chief David Campbell were adopted by a rising vote. They were prepared by a special committee and extolled his many good qualities, his bravery and efficiency as a fire fighter and pro-claimed him to have been one of the city's noblest sons.

A resolution was adopted, calling for a report from the Municipal Dock Commission relative to 16 street ends now used by private individuals or corporations on the riverfront. As many continuous revoking the permits grantrdinances, revoking the permits grant ed in years gone by, were introduced many months ago by J. T. Ellis, who at the time was Councilman from the Tenth Ward. They were referred to the Dock Commission recently for recommendations, but none has been forthmendations, but hole has some coming as yet.

An ordinance, prohibiting miners under 19 years of age from entering pool or billiard rooms; charging $10 a year for every table and forcing proprietors to remove all screens or obstructions and to have windows that can be seen through clearly from the street was through clearly from the street was passed by ununimous vote. Councilman Burgard was its author.

Rail Ordinance Deferred.

Proposed ordinances granting to the Portland Railway, Light & Power Company, the Oregon Electric and United Railways Companies the rights to use the rails of each company on Second, Stark and other streets were re-referred to the street committee.

Ordinances authorizing the sale of $250,000 park and boulevard bonds and $600,000 of Broadway bridge bonds were nassed.

CURES . BEOOD POISON

Contagious Blood Poison manifests itself in the most loathsome symptoms, such as ulcerated mouth and throat, copper-colored spots, and even sores and ulcers on different portions of the body. The poison causes the hair to fall out, and sometimes the glandular system is attacked. No medicine can cure Contagious Blood Poison which does not rid the circulation of every particle of the insidious virus. S. S. S. is the real and certain cure for Contagious Blood Poison; it goes into the circulation, and by removing every particle of the poison, and adding rich, healthy qualities to the blood, forever cures this powerful disorder. All who suffer with this disease may cure them-selves by using S. S. S. and following instructions contained in our Home Treatment Book, which we will send, together with any medical advice desired, free of charge. S.S. S. is for sale at drug stores. Remedies are Needed

Were we perfect, which we are not, medicines would not often be needed. But since our systems have become weakened, impaired and broken down through indiscretions which have gone on from the early ages, through countless generations, remedies are needed to aid Nature in correcting our inherited and otherwise sequired weaknesses. To reach the seat of stomach weakness and consequent digestive troubles, there is nothing so good as Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discov-
