Cases of Coler and Rahles Continued After Bench Warrant Is Issued for Man Who Led Movement-Trip South Halts.

H. J. Parkison, who supervised the circulation of the petitions to refer to the voters the law appropriating funds to the Oregon University and Monmouth College, was summoned before Justice of the Peace Olson yesterday afternoon as a witness against Harry Coler and E. J. Rables, alias H Wallace, circu-lators accused of obtaining bogus signatures. The preliminary hearing of Coler and Rahles had been set for 1:20 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The Rahles case was continued until July 20 and the Coler case until July 21, as Rahles said his brother would be here soon, and would do what he could to assist him.

Bench Warrant Issued.

Bench Warrant Issued.

Mr. Parkison was in court yesterday afternoon just before the time set for the hearing, but left before either of the cases was called, and before the magistrate took the bench. A bench warrant was issued, and at $ o'clock he was in court. He said he had made arrangements to leave for California last night on account of ill health. When brought before the judge he was instructed to confer with District Attorney Cameron and to report in court again at 4:20 o'clock, which he did.

Mr. Parkison is suffering from tuberculosis, and has been taking Christian Science treatment. He desires to go to San Jose, where he believes the climate will be more conducive to his recovery.

Bonds Not Demanded.

Deputy District Attorney Dennison asked that the court release him without bonds, as he is held only as a witness at the preliminary hearing. The ness at the preliminary hearing. The request was granted.

Dr. J. Allen Gilbert told the court Mr. Parkison's condition is serious, but thought he could obtain the same remedies in Portland that he could in California, and that there was no urgent necessity of departure from Portland.

Mr. Parkison said he discovered that some of the signatures were invalid, and that he failed to file them. He said there are enough genuine signatures on the petition to make it valid. He declared that he paid 326 to solicitors who turned in "phony" names, and found afterward that he was "stung."
