

SCIENTIST CHIEFS BITTERLY SCORED

Lawyers for Glover Seeking to Break Eddy Will Have Scathing Bill.

WOMAN HELD HOODWINKED

Plaintiff Charges Boston Church Directors Exercised Undue Influence Over Late Leader of Christian Sect.

CONCORD, N. H., July 20.—"Persecution," "hostile to organized society" and "forbidden and made void by public policy and the laws of the land" are some of the terms applied to the practices of the leaders of the Christian Science Church, in a lengthy set of amendments filed with the clerk of the Merrimack County Superior Court today by counsel for George W. Glover, S. D., to Glover's bill seeking to have the residuary clause of the will of his mother, Mrs. Mary Baker Eddy, declared void.

This residuary clause bequeaths the residue of the estate, estimated at about $2,000,000 to the First Church of Christ, Scientist, of Boston. Glover seeks to obtain this residue for himself and E. J. Foster-Eddy, of Waterbury, Vt., Mrs. Eddy's adopted son. The bill is directed against Henry M. Baker, executor of the estate.

The Christian Science religion and its practices and the administration of its church affairs are discussed at length in the amendments, which conclude:

"The plaintiff now, therefore, avers that the residuary bequest of substantially all Mrs. Eddy's property to the First Church of Christ, Scientist, Boston, Mass., was procured by the five directors of said church by concealment from her of the unlawfulness of the bequest and by undue influence over a feeble and deluded testatrix, and that said bequest is void."

OPEN COLUMBIA INDORSED

United States Willing to Aid Canada in Navigation Project.

SPOKANE, Wash., July 20.—(Special.)—A. B. MacKenzie, secretary of the Associated Boards of Trade of Eastern British Columbia, recently sent out a communication to Boards of Trade and authorities with regard to the opening for navigation of the Columbia River, pointing out that it may be possible to navigate the stream as far as Revelstoke, B. C., and continue to Lake Windermere, not far from its source. Reports from many men say it will be possible to do so by the co-operation of the United States and Canada with the assistance of the states through which it passes.

Letters from many industrial authorities, including Dr. N. G. Blalock, director of the National Rivers and Harbors Congress for Washington; United States Senator Chamberlain, E. C. Ghiner, secretary of the Portland Chamber of Commerce, endorse and promise to aid the plan.

AUTO HITS MAN, SPEEDS ON

John McLeod, of Medford, Injured; Car Thought From Portland.

MEDFORD, Or., July 20.—(Special.)—Struck by a speeding automobile, the foot of a man on the street, in Roosevelt avenue, John H. McLeod, foreman for a construction company, was knocked senseless yesterday and left lying at the side of the road where he had fallen, while the auto continued its journey.

It was ascertained that the number of the automobile was 1967, according to the 1910 automobile directory this number was held by Mrs. W. H. Evans, 1194 East Stark street, Portland, last year. Whether the listing has been changed in the new directory is not known by officials here.

'SLAVER' SUSPECT CAUGHT

Tacoma Girl Identifies Man as One Who Attacked Her.

TACOMA, Wash., July 20.—(Special.)—In the person of A. T. Simmons, a young salesman, the police believe they have in jail a dangerous "white slaver." By means of a decoy letter purporting to come from relatives in Butte, Simmons met Flannora Sullivan, aged 18, and last Friday started to walk home with her when she finished her evening's work of taking tickets at a moving-picture theater.

JOHNSON DELAYS DECISION

sessions before Governor Johnson, but is presumably in San Diego. "There has been some talk," said Cameron, "that we were trying to get Wilde back to Oregon for service in a civil suit. I do not recall in my experience such a proceeding as that now being held before Governor Johnson."

FRIENDS PLEAD FOR WILDE

J. G. Mack and W. J. Clemens Say Defendant Is Persecuted.

SAN DIEGO, Cal., July 20.—(Special.)—Louis J. Wilde's friends here are showing letters he has received from friends in Portland expressing sympathy.

thy. Among those who have come to his defense is J. G. Mack, furniture dealer, who brands the action of the officials as "persecution aimed for political purposes by cheap politicians." His letter says:

"I feel constrained in the interest of fair play and common decency to register my disapproval against the proceedings instituted against you by the State of Oregon.

"This persecution against you is framed up for political purposes by cheap politicians, believing their course to be a popular one and backed by personal enemies of yours whose desire is to humiliate you and if possible bring about your financial ruin. I sincerely trust that the Governor of California can be convinced of the injustice that these people are attempting to heap upon you."

MANY EXPECT WILDE TO WIN

Governor's Delay Interpreted as Favorable to Banker.

The action of Governor Johnson, of California, in deferring until tomorrow his decision on Wilde's extradition is taken by many lawyers in Portland to indicate that the California executive does not intend to surrender the erstwhile motorist to the Oregon authorities. A. E. Clark, attorney for Thomas C. Devlin, receiver of the Oregon Trust & Savings Bank, is strongly of this opinion.

SPEED KING DIES IN CREEPING AUTO

Lewis Strang, Reckless Driver, Killed When Car, Going at Snail's Pace, Tumbles.

ROAD EMBANKMENT CAVES

Motorist Drives to Side of Highway to Let Farmer's Cart Pass and Goes Under Machine to Death as It Turns Turtle.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., July 20.—Lewis Strang was killed today when his motor-car went into a ditch near Blue River, Wis.

By a strange trick of fate, Strang, famous as a most daring driver of racing automobiles, who hundreds of times had risked his life in mad dashes around motor courses, threading his way through the thundering, careening press of other speed-mad cars, lost his life while driving along a country road at no more than four miles an hour—pushed over an embankment by fear of collision with a farmer's cart.

Strang was piloting the machine of the technical committee of the Wisconsin Automobile Association on its annual reliability run from LaCrosse to Lancaster, a distance of 123 miles.

When the farmer was met Strang turned aside, but the bank suddenly gave way and his car slid down the embankment, turtle, and Strang, reluctant to jump, went under it in his death.

In the car with Strang were: J. W. Traft, Milwaukee; Joe Jaegerberger and A. L. Clark, Lancaster, Wis. They jumped and were unhurt.

The embankment was scarcely more than five feet high. The body of Strang will be taken to Blue River. Strang broke an arm about the middle of June during a race in Kenosha, and is said not to have been strong enough to attempt the wearisome grind of the state run this week. It is believed this weak arm may have contributed to a lack of control of the car. Strang was 25 years old. He had driven in practically every automobile race of importance since 1907 and was the winner of many speed events.

INFORMER IS ALONE

Relations All Stop Visiting Ortie McManigal.

WIFE WILL REMAIN AWAY

Uncle Says Prisoner Repeats All Conversations to Prosecution.

Idea of Patriotism Declared Fanatical.

LOS ANGELES, July 20.—Ortie McManigal, alleged confessed dynamiter, and informer against the McNamara brothers, has been abandoned by his relatives here because he repeats all their conversations with him to the prosecution, according to a statement made today by his uncle, George Behm.

Behm, who cared for McManigal from the time he was an infant until he was 18 years old, has visited his nephew only once since he arrived in Los Angeles. Behm said today he believed that McManigal was "either deranged or crazy," and declared his intention of not visiting him again in his cell in the county jail because "he tells all that's said to him to the detectives for the prosecution."

Wife and Children Aloof.

Behm's stand on the question of visiting his nephew has been taken also by Mrs. McManigal, who has not called upon her husband for weeks. It is said she and her children will remain away from him.

Behm told of McManigal's having seen service in Cuba in the Spanish-American war. He declared that his nephew was a patriot to an extent approaching fanaticism. He said the alleged informer violently reproached any other who did not stand when a National air was played in any theater or other public place.

Thief of Derrick Charged.

Behm said also that he had learned since coming here that his nephew was once sentenced to 60 days in the Cook County Jail, Chicago, for stealing a derrick. After he had served 10 days, the judge, learning of McManigal's wife and children, freed him.

The cases of F. Ira Bender, B. H. Conners and A. P. Maple, union men charged with having conspired to ally the County Hall of Records, were resubmitted to the grand jury here today.

The men, against whom indictments were on the same accusation, issued some weeks ago, were quashed by Judge Willis, still are in the county jail, in default of $25,000 bail each.

TRIAL WILL NOT BE DELAYED

McNamaras' Counsel See No Reason for Continuance.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 20.—That the trial of John J. McNamara and his brother, James B. McNamara, for murder alleged to have been committed in connection with the explosion which wrecked the Los Angeles Times newspaper plant, will be begun on October 11, the date fixed by Judge Bordwell, and that there will be no further attempts at delay, was asserted today by Clarence S. Darow and Isaac Davis, counsel for the defense, who have arrived here for a short stay.

Darow refused to discuss the question whether the McNamaras would be tried separately or together, but declared positively that he saw no cause for asking for continuance, as he believed the defense would be ready by the time fixed by the court.
