CONVICTS TO TRAIL PRISON FUGITIVES

Governor Says He Will Send Trusties After Men Making Escape.

CRIMINALS TO BE ARMED

Executive Declares He Belleves in Practicability of Allowing Penitentlary Inmates to Seek

Those Escaping.

SALEM. Or., July 21 .- (Special.)-Governor West intends to change the old adage that "It takes a third to catch a thief and will act on the belief that it "takes a convict to catch a convict."

Today he said that the next time ene of his "honor men" makes a break from the work that has been as-aigned to him outside of the penitentiary he will select two or three good convicts on whom he helieves he can implicitly rely and will send them Implicitly rely and will send them forth to capture the fugitive.

He will go even farther than that and supply the convicts with guns. "There is not much of a chance to capture an escaped convict unless the man hunting him is armed." said the Governor when asked if his convict-catching convicts would be supplied with weapons.

Suggestion Takes Hold.

"A few days ago The Oregonian made the suggestion that probably I would be sending convicts out to capture con-victs as the next move and I believe the suggestion is a good one and I intend to follow out the plan which was mentioned in The Oregonian.

"I have every reason to believe that this will be a satisfactory method of capturing escaped convicts. Of course the men I send out after the escaped prisoner will be men in whom I have every reason to rely. "It seems reasonable to suppose that auch criminal hunters would be the hest criminal hunters in the world and I certainly intend to try the experi-

That the convicts so delegated would make their attempt to catch the fugi-tive only as a matter of duty is an-other part of the Governor's theory.

Payment Not Decided:

Whether they shall receive a reward or not when they bring in their man is a question that will be settled at that time," continued the Executive. "Of course there is a standing reward offered for the capture of prisoners, but if I send out convicts as I intend to do and they make the capture, it will be only as a portion of their work and I will ascertain when the capture better consideration than mere money reward. That feature is something which must be determined at the

When questioned relative to whether these men would fall under the ultimatum that a reward of $200 dead or $30 allve would be offered for these "honor men" who escape, the Governor assumed the same attitude.

Under the executive's theory there are certain men in the Penitentiary who could be trusted with the most delicate of duties and he says he would exercise the greatest care in making a selection of these convicts who would be sent to capture the other escaping

Scheme to Be Used Next Time.

No such move will be made to cap-ture Leon White or Griffith, who have escaped from the State School for the Febble-Minded and have been gone for some time. But when another escape is made, especially if the convict leaving is to be classed at all with Jesse ifall, who made desperate gun plays on his route and was finally captured by the Governor himself. West will use this new plan.

As far as is known here the idea is one new to prison history and when used will probably be the first instance of the kind in the annals of convict bunting. "Since the time I saw the auggestion in The Oregonian I have given the matter considerable thought and have reached a conclusion that it will be a successful plan if I am ever called upon to use it," continued the Governor. "I am satisfied that the guns in the hands of the sleuthing convicts will be used in no other than a legitimate manner and I am as well satismate manner and I am as well satis-fied that if I place this responsibility on certain convicts that my trust will

COAL FOUND AT MEDFORD

Government Geologist Makes Discovery in Rogue River Valley.

MEDFORIE Or., July 21 .- (Special.)-That there is coal in this district worth working, is the opinion of Professor J. Diller, chief geologist of the United States Geological Survey, who spent several days this week inspecting mines in this vicinity.

"Coal is seen at many localities in a Rogue River Valley," said Professor the Rogue River Valley," said Professor Diller. "A long, narrow coal belt atretches to the south and southeast," east of Medford and Ashland, and continuing from Evans' Creek through the Sisklyous to Ager, Cal., a total of 100 miles in length. Prospects have been opened at six localities between Evans' Creek and Ashland, a distance of 40 miles. The evidence does not indicate the continuity of the same coal beds throughout the distance, but rather the development of small beds a few miles in extent, parallel to the old shore line along which the vegetation accumulated along which the vegetation accumulated in swamps to form cost. Tests show that the coal makes a hot fire. It is a lignite, though the veln may develop into a semi-bituminous coal, as in the case of Coos Bay. The amount of coal available or the extent of the deposit available or the extent of the deposit

MIKE MORGAN TELLS WHY HE SLEW JOHN E. YORK.

Club Blow Over Left Temple Fells Victim and Body Is Thrown Into River Following Quarrel.

GRANTS PASS, Or., July 21 .- (Spe cial.)-Eight days after he committed the orime, three days in jall was enough to cause Mike Morgan to confess to the killing of John E. York, on July 13, striking him over the left eye with a club and then throwing the body into the Rogue River.

Tired of being hounded by Deputy Tired of being hounded by Deputy Sheriff Eugene Coburn, who has con-stantly kept his prisoner under his thumb. Morgan showed signs of weak-ening last night, and being brought his breakfast today announced to the jailer that perhaps he was ready to make a statement that would set his mind at rest and perhaps save his life later "by telling what he knew." Morgan attributes his predicament to Morgan attributes his predicament to liquor, of which he had plenty on the evening he went back to York's camp. He says a quarrel resulted, causing him to strike his companion a terrific blow with a club over the left eye that knocked his victim senseless. Morgan declares he quickly gathered up York's lifeless body and started toward the river, half-carrying and half-dragging him. At the river's bank the rope was him. At the river's bank the rope was put around York's neck to prevent outcry and to add to the grewsome scene two log chains were hauled from the outfit and wrapped around the dead man's hody for sinkers. The crime was committed between 9 and 10 o'clock at night. Morgan says that it was the only trouble he and York ever had, and that after the deed was committed he could not sleep in the camp and next morning arose early and departed with a wagon and team, only to be later arrested at Glendale in Douglas County. His confession indicates that York was insanely mad and being the larger man, he, Morgan, did not want to take a thrashing from him, which seemed sure to follow from words that passed between them.

The theory of robbery is strongly denied. No doubt from this meager confession Morgan will put up a pleaof self-defense at his trial.

SINGLE TAX BILI

U'Ren Backs Movement for Passage of Measure in November, 1912.

LICENSE TAXES AFFECTED

II Bill Advocated Becomes Law All Revenue Must Be Derived From Value of Land and State Corporation License Tax.

OREGON CITY, Or., July 21 .- (Special.)-An initiative petition for the passage nof a single tax bill in Clackamas County was today sent out for circulation by the Home and Farm Tax Exemption League, through W. S. U'Ren. . The measure is recommended by the Oregon Single Tax League, of which E. S. McAllister is president, George M. Orton, vice-president; H. W. Stone, treasurer, and W. S. U'Ren, sec-

Mr. U'Ren said the petition would be circulated in all the counties, if the league won its fight to have the measure passed on by the countles instead of the state at large. There is opposition to the home rule plan of having the bill voted upon, and it is probable that the circulation of the petition will result in a test suit here to determine its legality "Some lawyers are of the opinion that the law does not provide for the circulation of county initiative peti-tions," said Mr. U'Ren, "and that is what we desire to determine before we begin the work of obtaining names throughout the state. There is no doubt about the constitution providing for the county petitions, but some say there is a question as to whether the stat-utes on the subject are broad enough The amendment to the constitution adopted last year gives the counties the right through their voters to tax or exempt from taxation any property subject to general laws of the state. If the bill we are advocating becomes a law it will wipe out all license taxes in cities, and the taxes must be de-rived from the value of the land and the state corporation license tax."

The petition is addressed to Secretary of State Olcott, and is as follows: Initiative Petition.

Initiative Petition.

To the Honorable Ben W. Olcott, Secretary of State for the State of Oregon:

We, the undersigned, citizens and legal voters of the State of Oregon and of the County of Clackamas, respectfully demand that the following proposed bill for a local law for the County of Clackamas shall be submitted to the legal voters of said/County of Clackamas, in the State of Oregon, for their approval or rejection at the regular general election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in Nevember, A. D., 1912, and each for himself says: I have personally signed this petition; I am a legal voter of the State of Oregon and of the County of Clackamas; my residence and postofiles are correctly written after my name.

A BILL A BILL for a local law for the County of Clackamas to exempt from taxation all trades, labor, professions, business, occupations, personal property and imprevements on, in and under land, and to require that all taxes levied and collected within said Clackamas County shall be levied on and collected from the assessed values of land and other natural resources, separate from the improvements thereon, and on and from the assessed value of public service corporation franchisos and rights of way.

Revenue Raising Explained.

ef Oregon in and of the County of Clackamas.

Section I. That all business, labor, trades, occupations, professions, and the right to conduct, work at or practice the same; and all forms of personal property; and all improvements on, in and under all lands shall be and hereby are exempted from taxation for any purpose within Clackamas County, and no tax shall be imposed upon any trade, labor, business, occupation or profession under the pretext of a Beense or the exercise of the police power within said county; but in its application to licenses and permits this is intended only to prevent the raising of revenus from such licenses and permits and to prevent exacting of fees therefor greater than the cost of issuing the permit or license, and is not intended to impair the pelice power of the county, city or state. Section 2. All taxes within Clackamas County shall be levied on and collocated from the assessed values of all lands, water powers, deposits, natural growths and other natural resources, and on and from the assessed values of public service corporation franchises and rights of way. This act does not affect corporation lience fees and inheritance taxes callected directly by the state, nor such lands as are used only for municipal, educational, literary, scientific, religious or charitable purposes, already exempt from taxation by law.

Acceptance of Bonds From Mc-Donald Leads to Wordy War Between Attorney and Councilmen.

KLAMATH FALLS, Or., July 21.— (Special.)—What is to be the result of the present fight for more saloon li-censes in Klamath Falls is only a matter of conjecture, but the general opin-ion is that the present city charter will be amended so that every man who can show up good credentials and bonds who desires to pay the price can get a

At the last meeting of the City Councfi the acceptance of bonds from Joseph McDonald, who has already ten-dered his application for a license, was a matter of more or less discussion.
In fact, it developed almost into a case of bitter words between the City Attorney and some of the Councilmen, as the former, E. L. Elliott, was told by Councilman Crisier that he had heard that the city's level adviser had dethat the city's legal adviser had de-clared he would knock out the license sought by McDonald at any hazard, and that he had been paid $250 to do so. To that he had been paid $250 to do so. To this accusation Mr. Elliott made a flat denial and declared that he was opposed to granting more saloon licenses for the reason that the city charter provided only for one saloon to every 1900 inhabitants or major fraction thereof, and that the granting of a sixth license would be illegal, because there was nothing to show that the town had over 5500 people. The City Attorney said that although the City Council had practically agreed to grant McDonald a saloon license at a former meeting when he was not present, he buting the discussion of the grant-ing of another license, Mr. McDonald told the Council that if they had any doubt about the pepulation of the city being above 5500 he could bear all ex-penses of taking a special municipal census if the Council would say the word. To this proposition some of the Councilmen ware willing to accede but word. To this proposition some of the Councilmen were willing to accede, but the City Attorney was firm in his demands that no more licenses be given until the city had a record of the populace that was authentic. Some of the Councilmen were then inclined to Invorcalling a special election to vote on the matter of amending the charter to give the Council the right to grant all the licenses that were applied for all the licenses that were applied for as long as the applicants were reliable

Hair Health

Scalp and Hair Troubles Generally Caused by Carelessness

Dandruff is a contagious disease by a microbe which also produces bald-ness. Never use a comb or brush be-longing to someone eise. No matter bow cleanly the owner may be, these articles may be infected with microbes, which will infect your scalp. It is far ensier to catch hair microbes than it is to get rid of them, and a single stroke of an infected comb or brush may well lead to baidness. Never try on anybody else's hat. Many a hat-band is a resting place for microbes. If you happen to be troubled with dandruff, itching scalp, falling hair or baldness, we have a remedy which we believe will completely relieve these troubles. We are so sure of this that we offer it to you with the understand-ing that it will cost you nothing for the trial if it does not produce the results we claim. This remedy is called Rexall "93" Hair Tonic. We honestly believe it to be the most scientific remedy for scalp and hair troubles, and we know of nothing else that equals it for effectiveness, because of the results it has produced in thousands of cases. Rexall "23" Hair Tonic is devised to bantsh dandruff, restore natural color when its loss has been brought about by disease, and make the hair naturally silky, soft and glossy. It does this be-cause it stimulates the hair follicles, destroys the germ matter, and brings about a free, healthy circulation of blood, which nourishes the hair roots, caucing them to tighten and grow new hair. We want everybody who has any trouble with hair or scalp to know that Rexall "93" Hair Tonic is the best hair tonic and restorative in existence. and no one should scoff at or doubt this and no one should scoff at or doubt this statement until they have put our claims to a fair test, with the under-standing that they pay us nothing for the remedy if it does not give full and complete satisfaction in every particu-lar. Two sizes, 50 cents and $1.00. Remember you can obtain Rexall Remedies only at The Owl Drug Co., Inc., Cor. 7th and Washington Sts.
