

arrested by Patrolman Blackman speeding, obtained a continuance.

WOOD BLOCKS IN FAVOR

City Officials May Give Douglas Fir

Trial as Pavement.

The merits of wood blocks as pave-ment were discussed at a special meet-ing of the street committee of the City council held in the Council chamber of the City Hall yesterday. J. N. Teal and others spoke. It was said the Douglas fr. grown in this state, when properly blocks, makes a serviceable pavement. It was pointed out that its use here would be an inducement to other cities to adopt this kind of pavement, and that it is difficult to introduce this form of pavement in other cities until it has been tried in Oregon where the it has been tried in Oregon where the timber is grown, and found sutisfac-LOUTY

Mayor Rushlight and members of the committee have expressed themselves as heartily in favor of the wood blocks is paving material, and it is said to be prohable that bids will be so advertised for hereafter -that bitulithic, wood links and Hassen will be in commoblocks and Hassam will be in competition.

ARMY OFFICERS ARE DUPED RESCUE ATTEMPT FUTILE

Alleged Texas Ranger Gets Away

With Cash at Barracks.

VANCOUVER, Wash., July 28-(Spe-OLYMPIA, Wash, July 25.-In an at-tempt to reach the position on a boom stick held by her little 5.year-old un-cle, Edna Minner, one of the twin daughters of L. C. Minner, a well-to-do cini.)-Asserting that he was a First Lieutenant of the famous Texas Rangers, a man giving the name of J. 8. Murphy setured entrance to the best circles of the Army here four days ago and tonight there are regrets about the daughters of it. And and a weiter and veterinary surgeon of this city, slipped into the bay from the rowboat in which she had been slir-ting and was drowned today. Mrs. J. F. Cline dived in after the little girl, but unable to swim, would berself have drowned had it not been barracks, for Murphy left town unand, with considerable cash on his

Though the officers, with whom Mur-Though the officers, will not talk, it is be-lieved that several of them were "bouched" by Murphy. Today a check, forged by Murphy. drawn on the United States National Bank of Port-land, was returned marked "no funds,"

BIG LOTTERY IS CHARGED Money-Lenders Are Accused of Using Mails to Promote Scheme.

ATLANTA. Ga.. July 2.-After sev-sral months' investigation by the De-partment of Justice and the Postoffice Department, Richard Purvis, Ernest O. Heim, Guy King and W. N. Smith, of-ficers and ex-officers of the Southern Loan & Trust Company, were arrested yesterday on charges of fraudulent use of the mails, and using the mails to promote a lottery. ATLANTA, Ga., July 28-After sevpromote a lottery. The company has been doing a mon-

The company areas been all Southern ery-leading business in all Southern states, and, according to Federal offi-cers, its actions have involved between $500,000 and $3,000,000. The men ar-rested gave bond.

Recipient of Honor to Succeed Dilin attendance at St. Vincent's Hospital. The little girl was coasting with sev-eral small companions when the wagon on which she was riding got beyond her control and, swerving to one side. her control and, swerving to one all little linew her out on the rocky road. Little Miss Diggs is an "earthquake baby," having been born during the San Frán-cisco earthquake, and her nerve was ascribed by several superstitious per-sons to that fact. SEATTLE, Wash., July 28. - (Speclal.)-Robert T. Hodge, Sheriff of King County for two terms and leader of the

912 NEGROES IN WRECK

Eight Killed, 88 Hurt in Collision

Involving Excursion Train.

CHARLOTTE, N. C. July 18.-Bear-ing $12 negroes from Durham to Chariotte for a day's outing, an ex-cursion train on the Seaboard Afrilne plunged headlong into a freight train at Hamilet, 50 miles east of here, today, stiling eight of the excursionists and injuring 58, 66 seriously.

Four white trainmen were seriously

The engines telescoped and six of the 11 coaches of the excursion train crum-pled like pasteboard. One negro was asleep with his head in the window. The telescoping walls clipped off his head.

After Little Girl Who Sinks, for her 12-year-old daughter, Gladys, who threw out a plank which

Mrs. I. A. Beal Is Dead.

Fire Alarm Boxes Wanted.

mother grasped.

of Hodge was made at a meeting of the various committees of the association at 219 Arcade building. "We had no intention of selecting him in preference to any one else," said Mrs. Catherine Stirtan, of the com-

Mrs. Catherine Stirtan, of the com-mittee. "Several names had been sug-gested to us. There seemed to be such a strong sentiment, however, that he would be the right man that we were forced to pick him." Following the meeting a committee of the association attended the meeting of the Central Labor Council at the Temple last night and announced that Hodge had been selected. The 200 delegates present applauded the an-nouncement vociferously and several ouncement vociferously and several plunteered to obtain at once inderse-ent of the Sheriff from the various ling Will Give His Answer Today-Labor Men Happy.

ticket at the last election, was an-nounced today as the choice of the Citizens' Recall Association for recall candidate against Mayor George W.

Dilling. The offer was made to the Sheriff at organizations, providing he accepts. "I will not be a candidate for Mayor," said Sheriff Hodge tonight. "I'm going to be Governor. Those women caught me a little short today. I was very busy and I had to tell them something. I won't run and pohody can run me." Woman, Unable to Swim, Dives won't run and nobody can run me.

> NEW PROBLEMS WAITING Cements Desired That So Far Are

> > Only Dreamed Of.

Harper's Magazine. Problems of manufacture in the tra-ditional industries swarm in upon us-problems that a few years ago were not only not worried over, but were

Is it possible to recolor and refinish leather? Certainly it is. In the pro-cess of chrome tanning, the flanks and cess of chrome taming, the handles and shoulders of bldes are flat, very, very flat, in the mineral tannage employed. The best answer I can give to such a question is that were I a young chem-ist seeking an arbeit, I should plunge into leather for a life's work. What clause does not know should leather

Mrs. I. A. Beal Is Dead. Mrs. I. A. Beal, a ploneer woman who crossed the plains in 1882, died wednesday evening at her home. 124 East Twenty-fourth street, after an illness of about a year. She was 75 years of age and was born in Fare-field County, Ohio, where she was mar-ried in 1855 to Cornelius Beal. Two children were born to them, both be-ing dead. Mrs. Beal is survived, how-ever, by two grandchildren, Mrs. J. E. Jones and C. B. Van Houten, both of this city. Having lived in Portland almost continuously since 1862. Mrs. Beal was a member of Lincoln Gar-field Woman's Beilef Corps, No. 19. The funeral will take place this morn-ing at 9:30 o'clock from Lerch's Cha-pel, at East Sixth and East Morrison streets. into leather for a life's work. What science does not know about leather would fill volumes. Dentists are desperately in need of a cement that is "absolutely" insoluble in the mouth. The glassmakers are eagerly desirous of a method of manu-facturing a ruby glass in the pots, for, as it is and always has been, the ruby color of the glass flashes out only on one or more reheatings—an expensive omeration. A certain enormous manucolor of the glass limits out only the one or more reheatings an expensive operation. A certain enormous manu-factory of artificial cereals in packages is seriously concerned with the dam-age to these same packages by rats, and it desires, if possible, some method of making these packages distasteful to rats without conflicting with the pure-food laws. Another, equally huge in the extent of its minufacture and its operations, is embarrassed through the curious fact that while grasshop-pers will have nothing to do with bind-er-twine made of imported flax, they wildly devour the domestic product, and with consequent loss of a million a year to the company concerned, to say nothing of its loss of reputation among the farmers. The fire committee of the Executive ter attempted to put on his shoulders all the faults the Postmaster-General had committed in connection with the Lewis case.

Table Talk With Theophile Gautier at Napoleon III's Court.

at Napoleon III's Court. Mme. de Hegermann-Lindencrone in Harper's Magazine. One night, during my visit to the Court of Napoleon III, at Complegne, I was a little dismayed when I was told that the famous poet Theophile Gautier was to be my dinner compan-ion. I was awed at the idea of such a neighbor, and feared I should not be able to cope with the occasion. Would he talk poetry to me and should I have to talk poetry to him? I tried to remember, during our promenade down the hall, Longfellow's "Psalm of Life" in case he should ex-pect anything in this line, and tried to recall something he tilmself had writ-ten. the Courthouse and the recipient re-quested that he be given until tomor-row to consider the matter. The choice

I might have spared myself worry, for from the time he sat down at the table he talked of little else than cats and dogs. He loves all animals (I liked him for that), and one could see that he preferred them to any other topic. In appearance I think he must resem-ble Charles Dickens. I have only seen the latter's photographs, but had he not rather skimpy hair brushed any which way and a stringy beard? I fan-cied him so to myself. At any rate, Gautier looks like the Dickens of the photographs. might have spared myself worry photographs.

Gautier looks like the Dickens of the photographs. I can't remember all the nonsense he talked. He said he had eight or ten cats, who ate with him at the table. Each had its own place and plate, and never by any chance made a mistake and sat in another cat's place or ate off another cat's plate. He was sure that they had a heaven and a hell of their own, where they went after their death, according to their deserts, and that hey had souls and consciences. All his cats had classical names, and he talked to them as if they were hu-man beings. He said they understood every word he said they understood some of his conversation with them, which must have sounded very funny: "Cleopatra, have you been in the kitchen drinking mils on the sly?" Cleopatra puts her tall between her legs and her ears back and looks most guilty, and I know then what the cook told me was true. Then again: 'Julius Caesar, you were out extremely late last night. What were you doing?" He said that when he made these re-proaches Julius Caesar would get down from his chair, and with his tail high in the air would rub himself against his legs as much as to say he would never do it again. "Depend upon it,' he added, 'they never do it again. "Depend upon it,' he added, 'they know everything we do and more."

Mark's Fall From Grace.

Boston Traveler. Mark Twain was quite at his best as an after dinner speaker at the dinner given in his honor a few years ago by given in his honor a few years ago by the members of the Authors' Club. In-cidentally, he told the story of his first lapse from the paths of honesty. He was very young at the time, he explained, and the day was an exceed-ingly hot one. As he walked down the street of the village in which he was living he saw a cart loaded with melons of most attractive appearance. "It is with regret I mention." Mark Twain went on. "that I was tempted and I fell. I grabbed the most likely looking melon of the lot and hurriedly dig during the daylight hours-an they declared that the night bath was far more glorious. There was no dan-ger of sunburn, the water was even re delightful because of the absence of the sun and there were no thousands of other bathers to interfere with the of other bathers to interfere with the thorough enjoyment of the pastime. The night bathing parties included both sexes, and it is probable that the re-vival of the sport, which was so widely practiced a decade ago, will become a popular fad this season.

A Morning Smile.

Boston Transcript. Boston Transcript. When President Eliot, of Harvard, was in active service as head of the university he was noted among the students for his abrupt and brusque manner. Reports had come to him that one of his young charges was in the habit of absorbing more liquor than was good for him, and President Eliot determined to do his duty and look was good for him, and Frestant Ellor determined to do his duty and look into the matter. Meeting the young man under sus-picion in the yard shortly after break-fast one day, the president marched up to him and demanded, "Young man, do you dink?" you drink?"

"Why, why, why," stammered the young man, "why. President Ellot, not so early in the morning, thank you."

His One Consolation.

Harper's Bazaar, Nebuchadnezzar was dining on all

"Anyway." he observed, "I'm more omfortable than that picnic party." Thus we see there's nothing so bad that it might not be worse.

first newspaper to be published west of the Alleghanies, was issued.

Here's the wonder smoke ! Nifty, fragrant. Just what the doctor ordered-

5 Cents Straight

Bulliest smoke you ever did put between your lips. Go to it! Don't be odd !

Sold by All Live Dealers.

The Hart Cigar Co.

Distributers Portland, Ore.

COOL DAYS BY THE SEA AT CLATSOP BEACH

-

Seaside

RIVER SCENIC

Columbia Beach Gearhart

First-class Hotels at Gearhart and Seaside. Camps and Cottages.

Surf and plunge bathing, fishing, motoring, tennis, golf and other sports.

Business men spend week-ends at the Beach without loss of office time.

"Seashore Limited" Leaves Portland 9:20 A. M. Daily. "Week-End Special" Leaves Portland 2:30 P. M. Saturday. Other Trains Leave 8:00 A. M. and 6:30 P. M. Daily. ROUND TRIPS, $4.00 DAILY, $3.00 SATURDAY AND SUNDAY.

The North Bank Station, Eleventh and Hoyt Sts. City Ticket Office, Fifth and Stark Sts.