Los Angeles First Baseman Grabs Rapps' Scorcher With One Hand and Doubles Ryan Unassisted. Peckinpaugh Is Star.

LOS ANGELES, July 21 -- (Special) -Two bases on balls, a single and a triple in the seventh cost the Beavers the game this afternoon by the score of 6 to 3. After that disastrons round, Seaton was retired and Harkness finishing the forlorn hope. With all that, the game was even technically, for each side is credited with ten hits and debited with two errors.

A remarkable unassisted double play by Dillon in the fourth spoiled the Heaver's chances after Ryan had made geed with such a hot one that Dillon couldn't handle it. An instant later Rapps drove another red hot one at Dillon and he speared it with one

The Angels evened the score in the fifth when Moore singled infield and traveled to second on Seaton's overthrow to first base. Moore stole third and scored on Metager's single to center. Shechan opened the fateful seventh with a Texas leaguer back of third and stole second on Abbott and Pelmas. Byan was hit by a pitched ball. Rapps forced Shechan at third. Barry singled to left, filling the bases. Peckinpaugh doubled along the third base line, scoring Ryan and Rapps.

GRESHAM PLAYS FAST GAME

Mysterious "Mitchell" Allows but Two Hits at Sheridan. SHERIDAN, Or., July IL-(Special.)

Sheridan lost Sunday's gams 3 to 0 the Gresham Giants in a fast game as before a large chowd. "Mitchell" al-lowed but two hits and fielded his posltion in big league style. Sheridan bubbled seven times, and while none of these errors was costly, two passed balls and five stolen bases enabled balls and five stolen bases enabled Gresham to score thair trio. Three times with men on second and third and one or nobody gone, Sheridan lost chances to score.

Anson and Robertson saved the day for Greeham by stellar infielding, while Townsend pitched a heady game. The Greehams had the big end of the baseball luck, coupled with the fact that the Portland lads played a dever brand of ball. It is very probable that a two-out-of-three game series will be played, the next game being played in Portland.

BY ROSCOR FAWCETT. Further details of Judge Graham's proposed minor league championship series are contained in a dispatch from Los Angeles hearing the intelligence that 'the only possible schedule would be an opening series between the East-ern and Southern League pennant win-ners, the strongest team then going coastwards for a similar series with the Western and American Association, thus landing the survivor in California about the time of the closing of the Coast League schedule on October 22." If this is the scheme contemplated by President Graham, he might as well drop the subject at once, for it is a 15-to-1-shot that no five mentally sound managers will agree to an elimination contest conducted along such ridtculous lines. From a Coast League standpoint, of course, Graham's scheme standpoint, of course, Graham's scheme looks superb. It's as much as telling the other four Class A leagues to go out in the woodshed and settle their differences and the Coast League will then condescend to meet the winner.

Under proper conditions Graham's scheme might be made to pan out, but the elimination should call for an equal number of games between each of the clubs. The playing off of minor-league championships is no new suggestion

President Barrow, of the Eastern League, believes the scheme practical. So does Tip O'Neill, of the Western, and Judge W. M. Kavanaugh, of the Southern, but Chivington, of the American Association, will probably have to be convinced because of the directous experiment four years ago.

Hit Drives in Speas With Telling Run but Garrett Deserved to Beat Victoria.

TOURISTS' WORK SUPERIOR

Fans Expect Roadsters to Take Five Games Out of Series With Canadians, Who Are Playing First Engagement on Local Lot.

Howard Mundorff, Portland's third sacker, knocked the ball over the right field fence in the 'thi inning against Victoria yesterday and drove Bill Speas in with the winning run in a game that really belonged to Jess Garrett all the way. Score: 2 to 2. The fact that Speas was on second robbed Mundorff of a home run for the scoring rules allow credit for only that portion of the homer necessary to bring the winning tally across the disk, in this case a two-base ply.

In fact everybody conceded the popular righthander the game in the minth inthe seventh. Cobb again played a star game in the field. Both teams put up a splendid fielding exhibition. To emphasize the enexpectedness of basebail, Garrett, on the very threshold of victory, developed a streak of wildness and passed Goodman and "Ten" and a hit through third by Keller tailied one and tied the game although McCarthy's decision at the plate looked dublous to many. Both teams battled vainly for that clusive run from that on until the latter part of the 12th, spectacular plays on both sides staying the hand of fate on several occasions. Ward boosted Victoria stock in the first part of the 12th by singling to center with one out. Brennan's grounder to Ceitrin sent him to second from whence he attempted to score on a hard drive into right by Clementon. "Warhorse" Stovail's peg to the plate went true as a die, however, and Ward was caught by a foot. Portland's first two scores were handed over on a silver platter in innings one and two, by the boys from the town which was put in the Northwestern League last Winter simply to fill out a six club schedule.

This does not purport to be an argument detrimental to the Class B ball, but it might be well for the scribes up north to remember that soouting parties pick up promising recruits for what they might do at some future date, not for their remarkable performances on the diamond during the year of our Lord, 1911, such argumentation comes home to roost with besoiled feet.

Jack Williams, the young twirler with Viotoria, asserts that he is the only native of the Hawaiian Islands playing professional baseball in this country. Williams, a youth of 21, is the first discovery from Honolulu since the ill-fated American trip of Barney Joy, an elongated pitcher who came to San Francisco in '36. Joy was far from being a success.

Bundy Falls Down Hard in Play for Championship on Illinois Courts.

PLAY IS NOT BRILLIANT

Superior Standing of Younger Man Puts Los Angeles Star Out of Running, Though Neither Shows Usual Ability After First Set.

LAKE FOREST, Ill., July 31 .- Maurice McLoughlin, of San Francisco, won the Western tennis championship in men's singles today at the Onwentsia Club by defeating Thomas C. Bundy, of Los Angeles, holder of the title, in three out of four sets, 4-6, 6-1, 6-3, 6-3. The lack of tournament practice on the part of the Los Angeles player was painfully apparent, for, although the match was not hard, he tired quickly after the first set, and, after half of the second was over, was hopelessly out of the running.

He made a desperate effort to get the advantage in the third set of the afternoon, but it was merely a spurt and the superior stamina of the younger man told.

Play Not Brilliant.

Neither man played good tennis after the first set. Bundy seemed unable to cope with McLoughlin and the latter, cope with McLoughlin and the latter, after seeing that he had his opponent beaten, played safe. The opening sets showed some remarkably clever placing by both men, but there were none of the long sessions of volleying. McLoughlin's speed was apparent in the second set, when he repeatedly passed Bundy at the net, but later in the play both men let up in their work.

In the first set Bundy seemed the superior and played the headler game. McLoughlin played a harder game, but Bundy took quick advantage of his mistakes.
