SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 1 .- (Special.) headed centerfielder plump two home runs over the fence, get one rattling good double and a measily single to wind up his session with, the Cleveland sightseer remarked that he guessed Buddy was "some ball player."

San Francisco fans had to foin in with the verdict for it was Ryan's hitting that gave the Oregonian's four of their runs and had a healthy hand in another of the tailles, which won for Beavers against the seals today.

Yes, Buddy Ryan can swat that hall some, a particularly disconcerting discovery in view of the fact that Danny Long had trotted out the crack of the headed centerfielder plump two

If hits were rolled up against the San Francisco elabster.

Another feature of the game was an unassisted double by Peckinpaugh.

All of which is merely introductory to the story of the "coming back" of the Beavers. There was a faint hope among Seal fans that the same providence that permitted Los Angeles to gather five out of seven games, might operate in behalf of the Seals. But it was another story altogether and the was snother story altogether and the Seals went backward with a thump, the Beavers in the meantime just hold-ing their own with the other leaders in what appears just now to be a three-

Bundy played poorly in the early part of the match and his mechanical work was less excellent than McLoughlin's but his steadiness in the rises was what saved the Californians in several instances.

The team work of the Easterners was far better than that of the Californians and their victory was deserved.

VICTORIANS HIT HARD, TOQ

Roadsters Tally in Every Inning After Second, but Do Not Nose Out Victory Until Finale of Contest Comes.

Once the Roadsters got the habit of scoring against Victoria yesterday, they nourished it, and by registering tallies in every fining after the second, won from Bees by 3 to 8. The game was osely played.

Billy Bloomfield was delegated to tart the hostilities for Williams' bunch, and the Victoria crowd treated him uproariously in the opening stanza. They stammed out a single and a cou-ple of long two-base swats which netted them two runs in the opener. Goodman opened the session with a smash to right and Million sacrificed. Keller and Ward scaled out two two Keller and Ward soaked out two two-base hits in succession, and the gong clanged two Victoria tallies. The Canadians introduced a lengthy chap named McCreery as the gunner for their crew, and barring a little wildness in the opening inning, he got away nicely for a couple of frames. But in the third, the Roadsters started after him and commonced a succession of scores, which eventually landed the game, though Victoria got busy with Bloomfield in the eighth and chalked up six tallies which gave them a lead for the time.

Roadsters Score in Third.

Stovall's double and a sacrifice by Stovall's double and a sacrifice by Speas, followed by Mundorff's long sacrifice fly, tailied Portland's first run in the third inning. Hits by Casey and Moore, and Brennan's error, gave the tying run to the Roadsters in the fourth, and in the fifth, singles by Stovall. Speas and Williams added two more to the Portland total. McCreery's wildness and his own error gave another in the sixth and timely hits yielded two more in the seventh. yielded two more in the seventh. Coltrin's first of three errors in this inning, allowed De-Vogt life, but he was forced at second by McCreery, who was likewise forced at midstation by Goodman, after which the fireworks commenced. B. C., earned the title of the Canadian champion here yesterday. Splendid play was witnessed when he and Baird stepped on to the court for the final and the first count was in Schwengers favor, the score being 13 to 11. Million singled and Coltrin made a bad heave trying to get Goodman at third on Keller's grounder. This filled the bases and Ward cleaned them with a long two-bagger to center. Colt Clementson uncorked the longest drive of the day, a triple, scoring two more runs. A single by McMurdo registered Clementson with the sixth and last

With the score 3 to 7 in Victoria' favor, the Roadsters tied it in their half of the eighth. Mundorff singled, was advanced to second by Williams' sacrifice, and stole third. Pettigrew's fly was too close in, but Casey's sin-gle tailled "Mundy." In the ninth Wil-liams substituted Jensen for Bloomfield, and he shutout the Bees.

Coltrin's errors were, for the most part, excusable, though his playing of the ball to third instead of to first on Keller's grounder looked like bad judgment except that the throw was shorter.

Pearl Cases tore down that first-base line like a 2-year-old when he hit to Keller with Mundorff on third. Keller thought he had his man easy, and Casey beat his tess to McMurdo.

Otto Moore showed himself to be a dandy Jack Hickson has been selected as manager of the team. Owing to the lateness of the decision to hold the meet, which was called off a month ago, no trainer will be secured. All the men who will represent the local athletic organization have been doing light training all Summer and will be the good physical condition, when Otto Moore showed himself to be a dandy little catcher, for his work behind the bat as well as awinging the willow was all that could be asked of a veteran of many
