Jackson Commissioners Call Election for Bond Issue of $1,500,000.

ACTION BELIEVED LEGAL

Constitutional Amendment Thought by Good Highways Workers to Authorize People to Act Independently of Legislature.

MEDFORD, Or. Aug. 2—(Special)—
The Jackson County Commissioners at a public meeting in Jacksonville today that was attended by scores of seed roads enthusiasts from all parts of the county, decided to call an election to vote for a bond issue of $1,500,—

Issue Expected to Carry.

October 2 was set by the Commissioners as the date for the election, and if the issue is passed, as soon as it is legalized, all the county warrants new out will be taken up.

Consensus of opinion in Jackson County at present seems to be on-thusiastically in favor of the bond issue. So sure are the Commissioners that it will carry, that work on the county reads will be continued pending the election.

renty-six automobiles filled with Medford good roads workers went to Jacksonville to attend the meeting, and many others went by train and in vahicles. Dr. J. F. Heddy, J. M. Root, John D. Otwell, C. C. Beekman, L. E. Wakeman and County Clerk Coleman addressed the meeting, and all agreed that immediate action must be taken by the county to provide funds for road building.

Better Roads Declared Imperative. The only point on which any opposition developed was as to whether bonds or warrants should be voted, and in the path where the ferry boat has plied for many years makes it almost a necessity. This is the only regular crossing between Corvailis and Sugeno, a distance of about 40 miles, and the most convenient for north and south traffic through the state.

While the need of a bridge has been placed before the County Court but without apparent results, it is thought that the forming of the gravel bar will be the means of bringing immediate action. The site for a proposed bridge has been viewed by competent bridge men and declared to be ideal.

While stopping at the Guille Hotel in this city, he gave out that he had been private secretary to United States Senator Bailey, of Texas, and also that he had been a captain in the Texas Hangers. He said he represented the Oregon Nursery Company, and is alleged to have sold Mr. Goets like worth of fruit trees, taking Hill in cash and a note for the remainder. The check, it is alleged, was taken to the saloos of L. C. Schultz, of this city, and cashed. The next morning Cochrane left the city, but was intercepted at Albany. Cochrane is believed by officers ages to be the L. S. Murphy who left several bad checks behind him at the Army post in Vancouver a few days ago, and who was received by the Army officers there as a Captain of the Texas Hangers.

This action was taken in the belief that a bond issue authorized by the people of any Oregon county is legal without action by the legislature, by writtee of an amendment to the state constitution passed at the last election which gives the people this authority. As the legislature failed to pass an enabling act, opinion has been divided as to whether the amendment has gone into effect. Prominent attorneys of Jackson County declare, however, that the action of the Commissioners in calling for the bond issue is entirely within their legal rights.

eventually going to abandon its Army supply agencies on Puget Sound, and centralize the work of the quartermaster's department in San Francisco and Portland. Considerable indignation is felt at the move, and the local commercial organizations are planning an appeal through the Congressional delegation from this state.

The transfers come in line with the new policy of the Army, which is to centralize all military affairs in three divisions, with headquarters at New York, Chicago and San Francisco, Quartermaster's supplies for all posts can be handled through these points, it is said, with greater dispatch than through the former multiplicity of offices. Branches at or near the chief military posts will still be maintained, it is said, and owing to Vancouver Barracks being attuated near Portland, that office is said to be in no danger of abolishment.

Chief Clerk Russell, of the local office, who is among those ordered to San Francisco, has resigned rather than leave his home here. Other members of the force here and in Seattle are contemplating similar action. They say that the contralization of work in the quartermaster's department will mean the discharge of about 2006 clerks in the service throughout the country. Promotions will be harder to gain in the few offices that will be continued, and as the service will thus he made far less attractive, many resigbonds or warrants should be voted, and the more conservative policy of deciding to raise the desired $1,500,000 by means of a bond issue carried.

"I am for good roads," said John D. Olwell, one of the most ardent supporters of a bond issue, in his talk to the Commissioners and those who attended the meeting. "In time we shall have $0,000 car loads of fruit in this valley to hand, and without better highways such a crop could not be moved. During the rainy season, the reads would be impassable.

"A county with an assessed valuation of $36,000,000 and an indebtedness of only $350,000 can raise a million or two for good roads and never know it. If an individual owned Jackson County, he would raise $1,000,000 for this purpose tomorrow for the simple reason that such work would greatly increase the value of his holdings."

My husband had drank stendlly for ten years, and aithough at times he really seemed to make a determined effort to stop, the craving was stronger than his will-power. I had tried three advertised so-called cures, without the slightest effect; in fact, they only seemed to aggravate his appoint. A friend of mine whose son was cured by your blessed medicine, told me about it, but it was with very little confidence that I started giving him White Ribbon Remedy. He did not realize the damage drink was doing him and his business. He was not sober long enough. Whenever I tried to talk to him about taking a remedy to relieve enough. Whenever I tried to talk to him about taking a remedy to relieve his appetite for liquor, he would fly into a rage and eay. Haven't you any sense at all? Why, woman, all such things are frauds.
