Ex-Mayor Change Visits Portland.

Ex-Mayor W. B. Crano, an early resident of Portland and ex-Mayor of East Portland, now of Oroville, Cal., is visiting Portland on business and pleasure Mr. Crane moved to Oroville 15 years ago and invested in orange land there.
His tract proved rich in gold and he says "was mined from under him." He has since acquired a 20-acre orange orchard and about 20 acres in olives. erchard and about 20 acres in olives, which yield abundantly and are said by him to be better than gold. Mr. Crane says his land is also rich in gold, but that he prefers cultivating cranges and clives to mining. He is greatly pleased over the progress of Forland. "I find myself alone here," he said, "and rarely meet an old resident, so great has the population changed since I

Several thousand signatures have been obtained, it is said, and those back of the campaign hope to get from 10,000 to 20,000 names before they submit them to the members of the charter committees for consideration. It was not known until yesterday that such a movement was on foot. Many think that, should the plan get the results desired by the women, it will be a long sired by the women, it will be a long step in the direction of statewide suf-

DIAMONDS TO ADVANCE

Advice regarding the present condition of the diamond market has just reached us from our broker, Mr. Henry H. Jacobson, who writes from Amsterdam, as follows:

> "The market is absolutely unsatisfactory. There are quantities of poor quality and the prices are exorbitant. Fine stones, the quality you use, are very scarce and are quoted at exactly 20 per cent higher than this Spring, but I am glad to get them."

To those who contemplate the purchase of a diamond later on, the reasonableness of buying now before the new goods supplant our present stock is evident. It assures you of a saving of at least 20%. We invite your comparison of quality and prices.
