CLEAN CITY PLEA MADE

Los Angeles Clergyman at White Temple Urges Citizens to Be With Forces That Stand for Uplifting Community.

Dressed in a natty "ice cream" suit, an immaculate white bow trecktie and low white shoes, Dr. J. Whitcomb Brougher, pastor of the Temple Auditorium in Los Angeles, and once pastor of the Whi & Temple in this city, stood before his former congregation last night. The big sliding doors between the auditorium and the Sundayschool room were raised and both school room were raised and both rooms were packed to overflowing. Hundreds who came at the hour appointed for the service, and later, were

Israel's religion had become mixed with the superstitions and idolatry of the nations about her, he said, and had thus become a speckled bird. "Christianity," he continued, "is a life of selpfulness to others."

Administration Is Praised.

Last night, while speaking about "The Thief On the Cross," he took occasion to praise the present city administration, and to urge the members of his congregation to stand by the administration and the newspapers. He said:

"A friend said to me. 'We are in the midst of a great fight to clean up Portland.' You can win out only as all Christian people stand together as the newspapers stand together, and as your city officials stand for righteousness. I congratulate you and the Mayor of this city in appointing Captain Slover for Chief of Police. I don't know much about Mayor Rushlight's policy, but in the about Mayor Rushlight's policy, but in the alm to clean up the city give them your encouragement and your support. Stand by the newspaper that fights for it, and stand for the city that shall make it easy for men and women to live true, pure lives. The time is complete the clared. ing when we shall have a city in which there shall be no sin."

Money's Use Said to Count.

Dr. Brougher remarked, before enter-Dr. Brougher remarked, before entering upon his sermon, that some criticism had been made of large sums paid "Billy" Sunday. But no protest is ever made against paying large sums to star actors, he continued. "It is not a question of how much money 'Billy' Sunday receives, but a question of what he does with it, whether he is hoarding it, or whether he is using it to bless and help humanity."

In his sermon the speaker drew a graphic word-nicture of Christ in the

The Cost of Interments Have Beet Greatly Reduced by the Holman Undertaking Company.

Heretofore it has been the custom of funeral directors to make charges for all incidentals connected with a funeral. The Edward Holman Undertaking Company, the leading funeral directors of Portiand, have departed from that custom. When casket is furnished by us we make no extra charges for embalming, hearse to cemetery outside box or any services that may be required of us, except clothing, cemetery and carriages, thus effecting a saving of $25 to $75 on each funeral.
