SEATTLE STRIKE

Millions of Union Workmen Would Be Affected as Result of Trouble.

FIST FIGHT ORDER OF DAY

Declaration of War Out Between Brotherhood of Carpenters and American Federation of Labor. Firm Has Large Contract.

-Declaration of war between the Brotherhood of Carpenters and American Federation of Labor, which will reach every large city in the country, involving millions of union workmen, was made today, when the Building Trades Council, of this city, affiliated with the federation, gave notice to the National Federation officials at Washington of a strike on the Hoge build-

H. W. Pohiman, secretary of the Building Trades Council, and Joe Wright, foreman for the Steamfitters Union, had a go at fisticuffs in the basement of the skyscraper at Second avenue and Cherry streets. Pohlman's ire was aroused when he found that the union steamfitters, the union electricians and the union plumbers, members of the Building Trades Council, had refused to obey the strike order.

Pohlman ordered Wright to quit work and take his men with him. An interchange of compliments resulted in a brisk fight and both men bore marks of the conflict when they were parted. Pohiman declared that the building trades department of the American Federation of Labor has ruled posttively that metal trim on Class A. I. buildings of the Hoge kind shall be done by sheet metal workers. The work is demanded by the Brotherhood of Carpenters, one of the largest branches of organized labor in the country. When the union carpenters persisted in their demand for this work here and throughout the country, they were expelled from the Central Labor of Seattle. "The Brotherhood of Carpenters is now a "scab" organization," said Pohl-man, "and will be treated as such. The American Federation of Labor is with us in this fight and has ordered that the metal trim be given the sheet metal orkers." The Thompson-Starrett Company has contracts throughout the East for work amounting to $40,000,000 and the fight between the two big branches of or-ganized labor will, it is admitted, spread quickly to every large city in the coun-

The American Federation of Labor, say the building trades leaders, has upheld them in their contention that the metal trim should be placed by the metal workers. The Carpenters Union is one of the strongest in the country and owns valuable property in Seattle.

15,000-MILE TRIP NEAR END

Portland to Portland Jaunt by Auto May Close Here Friday.

MEDFORD, Or. Aug. 30,-(Special.) -Annexing its 48th state at 2 o'clock

Annexing its 48th state at I o'clock today, the country-touring automobile succeeded in covering 100 miles of rough Oreson mountain reads. It climbed Sisklyou Pass, which is in frightful condition, on second gear, with a lead of 4800 pounds.

With arrival at Portland, probably on Friday, the car will have traveled 15,000 miles since last November when f left Portland, Maine, bound for Portland, Oregon, by a circuitous route covering the borders of the United States and into every state. The roads from Redding here were found to be bad and severely rutted and full of chuck holes and no signboards left standing.

HOP-PICKERS ASK MORE

Sheridan Growers Oppose Cent and

One-Half Wage There.

SHERIDAN. Or., Aug. 26.—(Special.) -Hopmen in the Sheridan district are confronted by a wage problem in harvesting their 1911 hop crop. It recently appeared when they tried to engage pickers. The hop-pickers say owners of the hopyards can afford to pay the additional half cent which the pickers are asking for their 1911 the pickers are asking for their 1211 wage.

The hopmen regard the demands of the pickers as unreasonable saying they have always paid a top-notch price for picking even when there was a shortage in the crop and when the market price of the hops was as low as 10 conts, and that the pickers are taking advantage of the late date in announcing their intentions to hold out for 1½ cents for picking.

Hop picking will commence in this section in about a week and growers are getting ready. Official inspectors and buyers assert that the hops in this section are superior in yield and quality to those of any other section in Oregon. Contracts for 40 and 45 cents have been rotused by Sheridan hopmen and the D'Neffs of Portland and other prominent buyers have paid an while this year nothing short of first prize will meet with favor.

Prior to last year the citizens of Dougtas County evidenced a lack of interest in fairs—both county and state—and the awakening only came when a handful of so-called "boosters" rallied to the rescue and decided to end an exhibit to the state fair as an experiment.

Practically without funds, the little band of willing-work.

The commenced their campaign, while ers commenced their campaign, while the Reseburg press published appeals in which they urged the farmers to participate.
At first the majority of farmers were skeptical, and for a time the suc-cess of the proposition appeared discouraging. In some quarters the peo-ple branded the attempt as one of per-sonal gain, while others of a more conservative nature sat back awaiting servative nature sat back awaiting news from the front.

Practically without experience, a few men of artistic taste assumed charge of the undertaking, and within two days the display was complete. During the days of the fair thousands of people from various sections of the West viewed the exhibit, and favorable expressions were many. The able expressions were many. The judges, men of long experience, awarded Douglas County second prize, only bested by Benton County, which is famous for its enterprise and thrift. Indications tend to show that Douglas County will also exhibit at the state fair a class of livestock unsur-passed in the state. There will be passed in the state. There will be blooded horses from the Bottaday stock farm, herds of cattle from the ranges, and last, but not least, hogs and poultry in numbers. In all, Douglas County expects to far eclipse all previous efforts, and thus maintain the high standard credited her during the last exhibition.

Upon the return of the exhibit from Salem it will be arranged in the pavilion at the local fair grounds, where it can be placed by the the control of people who usually attend the local fairs. This, slone, is invaluable, and is the means through which Douglas County attracts hundreds of newcom-

PEAK NEVER BEEN SCALED

Miss Dora Keene, of Philadelphia, Who Disregards Father's Orders, Fails to Subdue Heights of Alaskan Range With Party.

CORDOVA. Alaska, Aug. 30 .- Miss Dora Keene, of Philadelphia, the mountain climber, arrived at Kennecott, 194 miles from Cordova, last night, having failed in her attempt to scale Mount Blackburn, 16,040 feet high.

This peak has never been conquered. It is situated on the north side of the Chitina Valley, in the Alaska range. To reach the mountain itself a succession of ridges must be crossed, and after these have been surmounted precipitous walls forbid the ascent to the

OLCOTT PLANS TO SEEK COURT

SALEM, Or., Aug. 30 .- (Special)-It is probable that an action of forcible entry and detainer will be filed in the Circuit Court here in the next few days or next week at the latest, directed at State Printer Duniway, demanding that he remove the state printing

Bristol, of Portland, and Charles L. McNary, of Salem, for Secretary Ol-cott. Attorney-General Crawford will probably appear only nominally, as counsel, as the breach between the Attorney-General and the Secretary of State is becoming more apparent daily.
Olcott has intimated on more occa-sions than one that it is his desire to have Duniway's plant removed and that he believes it will be essential to retain outside counsel to consummate this ond. As a consequence, in the Duniway case, like in the University of Oregon referendum case, he will go outside of the Attorney-General's ofdetermined to start the action as soon as possible. His attorneys have been called into consultation on two or three occasions recently and it is understood that the legal ammunition is nearly ready to be touched off.

GLOBE EAR-PHONE An invention that has proven itself

The Globe Ear-Phone is a revelation to those with imperfect hearing, many of whom have spent a great deal of money and tried all sorts of hearing devices, with little or no relief. You know that your hearing is apt to vary from day to day under different conditions, and at different places. For instance, the weather affects your hearing somewhat and so does the rat-tle of the train or electric car.

The Globe Ear-Phone is easily adjustable to suit your own particular condition at any time and under any conditions. Right here is the great difference between the Globe Ear-Phone and all other hearing instru-

In addition to the exclusive feature of Adjustability, the Globe Ear-Phone is the first electrical hearing instrument to be sold under a positive guarantee of "satisfaction or money refunded." The Globe Ear-Phone is small, light and inconspicuous; there is nothing to insert in the ear (a dangerous prac-tice) or to hold in the hand, in great contrast to the clumsy and conspicu-ous horns, trumpets and the like.
