CLUB WANTS SANDY BOULEVARD IM-PROVED.—At the last meeting of the PROVED.—At the last meeting of the Gregory Heights Improvement Association resolutions were adopted asking that Sandy boulevard be improved to East Eighty-second street. The resolutions also ask that the City Engineer hurry plans and specifications for the improvement. The club decided to insist that the Portland Railway, Light and Power Company be required to relay its tracks to the end of the line, and not to East Fifty-seventh street as pro-posed. The plan now is for the City Engineer to prepare plans and have the contract let for the improvement, that it may be undertaken early next Spring. Meanwhile cement sidewalks may be laid and bad places in the street can be repaired. Gregory Heights residents object to the improvement not being continued to the end of the street.

BURIAL REQUEST CARRIED OUT.—At his request to be buried near his farm on the edge of the Sandy River, W. H. Coons, a pioneer of Oregon, who came to the state in 1862, was laid to rest Tuesday, by the grave of his son, Henry, Mr. Coons, died August 27, at his ome near Troutdale. Mr. Coons was orn near Cranfordsville, Indiana, Noborn near Cranfordsville, Indiana, No-vember 19, 1841, and came to Oregon across the plains in 1862 with his step-father and mother, the late John M. and Sarah W. Scott. He leaves a widow and seven children, John, Jessie, Claud, Milo and Rosy Coons of Troutdale. Mrs. Neilie Pelton and Mrs. Lela Shields. Three grandchildren, Henry and Hazel Pelton and Mildred Shields, all of Port-land, also survive.

Cowsor Pictures to Be Shown.—A group of 10 large photographis pictures of Frontier Days Celebration, recently held at Cheyenne, Wyo., will today be placed on exhibit in the rooms of the Portland Commercial Club by the passenger department of the O.-W. R. & N. Company. The pictures include Verne Elliott on bucking broncho; bucking buffalo, Charles Erwin, field marshal; Verne Elliott, thrown by "Rocking Chair"; Hugh Clark on bucking buffalo; four ex-champion cowboys, cowboys throwing lassoes, ex-President, Governor Brooks and Senator Borah, Cowboy Jones on "Silver City," and Buffalo Vernon, annoying a steer. Several residents of Cheyenne have written that they expect to attend the Pendleton Roundup this month. The railroad company is exhibiting the Cheyenne pictures as a good means of advertising the Pendleton show.

BUTING OF COUNTY FARM FURNITURE
BEGUN.—Superintendent Jackson of the County Farm, and Mrs. Jackson are engaged in making the rounds of the Portland furniture houses obtaining bids for the beds, chairs, tables, mattresses and other furnishings for the new County Farm building now nearly completed near Troutdale. The County Commissioners and Mr. Jackson have settled upon the general style of the furniture required and the various stores are given opportunity to compete. From present indications all will get a slice of the business. The total cost to the county of furnishing the institution will be between $5000 and $8000.

Fraud in Store Trade Alleged.— Charged with obtaining $2000 by false Charged with obtaining $2000 by false pretenses in trading a grocery store at Gray's Crossing for land at La Center, Wash., D. C. Breneman was brought back to the city from La Center and was arraigned in the Municipal Court yesterday. The complainant is Mrs. E. P. Holt, who made the trade with Breneman. Soon after she took possession of the store wholesale dealers, one after another, took back the stock, asafter another, took back the stock, asserting that it had not been paid for. Breneman says he was deceived by an associate who assured him all the bills had been paid: COCAINE SELLER TO SERVE 90 DAYS.— Imprisonment for 90 days is the portion of J. Lindsey, a chiropodist, who sold to Patroimen Taft and Ackerman a package of cocaine in his office at 175 Madison street, while Mary Jenkins, an elderly woman, arrested with him, was discharged. The woman asserted that she was receiving medical treatment from Lindsey when the police arrested him. As Lindsey has a family, the court did not impose the highest sen-

CITY TAKES OVER ROCKPILE. CITT TAKES OVER ROCKPILE.—The Linnton rockpile was formally taken over by the City Executive Board yesterday afternoon. The city will employ the guards and other persons necessary to the operation of the plant, but the county will pay their salaries and furnish clothing for the prisoners. The city will get 10 per cent of the rock that is crushed, while the county will get the balance.

MAYOR NAMES PARK BOARD MEMBER.—

BLIND MAN IS CHALLENGER

Henry Goodell Would Debate Sabbath-Keeping With Anyone.

Henry Goodell, a Portland blind man, has issued a challenge to Luther War-ren or anyone else to meet him in a debate concerning keeping of the Sabbath. Mr. Goodell's challenge follows.

bath. Mr. Goodell's challenge follows.

I, the undersigned, Henry Goodell, do hereby publicly challenge anyone, especially Mr. Luther Warren, to meet me in debate on the following question:

Resolved, that the Bible (the word of God) teaches that the decalogue (the tencommandment law, that commanded the keeping the seventh day as Sabbath) did not begin at creation, and never was given to anyone but the children of Israel, and in the economy of God ended by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead. Therefore, it was not eternal, so that now in the economy of God no one is required to keep the seventh day Sabbath.

I affirm. The discussion to be 15-minute bouts, an hour and one half every night, not less than six successive nights, each to answer his opponent's questions that can be answered with "yes" or "no" in writing. Time and place of debate to be arranged upon acceptance of this challenge. Because of my blindness I reserve the right to use one shorthand stenographer and type-writer and one reading clerk.

JURY HAS JACKPOT CASE

Witnesses Heard by County Court Called by Investigators.

Repetition of the story which was told before the County Court regard-ing the alleged jackpot which Tony Arnaud said he collected from North End parasites to give to Frank L. Per-End parasites to give to Frank L. Perkins, a newspaperman, and P. J. Maher, county detective, was heard by the grand jury yesterday, almost the whole day being given to the case. As virtually the same witnesses who testified before the County Court were called into the jury room, it is believed that the story heard by the jury was a duplicate of that previously related. Judge Cleeton was a witness late yesterday afternoon. Fercott, one of the participants in the alleged contribation, was one of the last witnesses called.
