BANK UNDER SCRUTINY

GRAND JURY TO INVESTIGATE WALLACE INSTITUTION.

Relations With Lane Lumber Company Alleged Cause of Insolvency of Depository.

BOISE, Idaho, Sept. 4.—(Special).—A grand jury will probe into the affairs of the State Bank of Commerce of Wallace and the Lane Lumber Company, both of which failed, as well as investigate the actions of the officers. The jury will open its inquiry in Wallace, in the District Court, September 18. The call for the grand jury opened the third sensational chapter of the affairs of the two institutions, an inspection of the books of which have proved that both had common interests, the bank carrying the lumber company in its business dealings and the officers of the former being officers of the latter. The first chapter in the affairs of the defunct concern was opened when the bank was suddenly pressed to the wall immediately following the failure of the Carnegie Trust Company of New York, in which B. F. O'Neil, president of the bank, was a heavy stockholder as well as director. The second chapter quickly followed when the Lane Lumber Company closed its doors and upon the petition of creditors went into the hands of a receiver. It is alleged that the prospective grand jury investigation is due to the findings of a committee, which has placed information in the hands of the County Attorney. The charge made by the receiver of the Lane Lumber Company that the State Bank of Commerce was the dumping ground for the bad paper of the lumbering concern and the allegation that the officers of the bank were in some part responsible had a great deal to do with the matter entering the courts.

FORT PAYROLLS BIG JOB

Department Requirements Demand Making of 60 Lists a Month.

VANCOUVER, Wash., Sept. 4.—(Special).—So great is the red tape in the Government service that to pay 1100 men, practically all at this post, no less than 60 payrolls have to be made out each month by the officers in charge. There are 20 organizations in the post, and it is necessary for three payrolls for each organization to be made out, or 60 in all. One payroll is sent to the War Department, Western Division, at San Francisco, one is sent to the paymaster and the other is kept on file.

MANIAC'S BARN IS PYRE

FARMER TRIES TO KILL WIFE THEN SLAYS SELF.

When Spouse Flees, Carl Stoschel Burns House and Barn, Shooting and Cremating Self.

EVERETT, Wash., Sept. 4.—Carl F. Stoschel, 37 years old, a rancher living four miles east of Marysville, attempted to kill his wife, burned his house and his barn to the ground and then committed suicide today. Stoschel, who is believed to have become insane, because enraged at his wife and fired at her with a shotgun. He missed her and Mrs. Stoschel ran to the home of John Nelson, a neighbor, for assistance. Nelson armed himself and started back with Mrs. Stoschel. When they approached the Stoschel home they saw flames burst first from the house and then from the barn. In a short time both buildings were a mass of flames. When the fire was at its height two shots were heard from the barn and after the fire had burned itself out, the charred body of the man was found in the ruins of the building.

Weather Affects Mr. Rain.

OREGON CITY, Or., Sept. 4.—(Special).—Frank Rain, a farmer, came to town today to celebrate. The first thing he did was to become intoxicated. Then he stalked forth upon the main thoroughfare of the city. He had as many meanderings as the Clackamas River. His interference with pedestrians, streetcars and automobiles was enough to make a star football player turn green with envy. Finally Chief of Police Shaw decided to take Mr. Rain in out of the rain. Upon being deprived of his liberty the visitor from the country raved and tore his hair and proceeded to break the furniture in the jail. He pulled down a stove pipe, the soot covering him from head to foot, making him look like a chimney sweep when business is good. The man was then locked in a dark cell and soon went to sleep.
