PRESBYTERY TO CONSIDER PASTOR'S RESIGNATON.—A special meeting of the Portaind Presbytery has been called for next Saturday afternoon in the First Presbyterian Church to act on the resignation of Rev. David A. Thompson as pastor of the Spokane-Avenue Church. Rev. 221. Thompson has accepted a call to the First Presbyterian Church of Olympia, Wash. He will be transferred to the Olympia Presbytery, and his resignation as clerk of the Portland Presbytery and member of the Home Mission and Sunmember of the Home Mission and Sun-day school boards will require elec-tion of a new clerk and of board members to fill his place. Rev. Mr. Thompson will leave Portland for Olympia September 15 and will begin his work there September 17. At the Saturday meeting Rev. E. M. Sharp, former pastor of the Mount Tabor Church, will be transferred to the Willamette Presbytery, as he has become a member of the faculty of Albany College. Resignations of Rev. Mr. Thompson and Rev. Mr. Sharp leave two prominent Portland Presbyterian church pulpits vacant.

Milwaukie Bridge Resulting.— The bridge on the Milwaukie road at the north entrance to Milwaukie across Johnson Creek is under reconstruction by Clackamas County, and while the work is in progress the old road is closed to team traffic. Vehicles are closed to team traffic. Vehicles are compelled to take the road from the northeast side of Milwaukie through Willsburg to Sellwood. The concrete abutments to the bridge were built some time ago, and only the single span remains to be erected. That will probably be finished by September 15. The old span was weak and unsafe for heavy vehicles and automobiles. The new bridge will be strong enough to carry the heaviest loads. It is on the East Side state highway.

East Side Business Men to Meet.— The East Side Business Men's Club will hold its opening Fall meeting Thursday night in the club rooms of the West building, at Grand avenue and East Alder street. Reports are expected on the freight depot and facilities, the movement to obtain park tracts for movement to obtain park tracts for Central East Portland, the Mount Hood Railway franchise and on other sub-jects. The resignation of Secretary Waiter will be acted on and his successor will be elected. Arrangements will be made for the annual excursion to the Gresham fair, which will open September 21. The club suspended active meetings during the Summer and considerable business has accumulated. LOMBARD STREET ASSESSMENT MADE.— The assessment for paving of Lombard street from Westanna street to Peninsula Station amounts to $135,733. Hassam pavement through the Peninsula. A short section of Lombard street between Westanna street to the easter-ly line of the bridge over the railroad cut through the Peninsula has also been completed and the assessment is $758. It is expected to continue the improvement of Lombard street to Pat-Improvement of Lombard street to Pat-ton avenue, as it is part of the link in the paving of a through street on the Peninsula. a cost of $11,840. JOSEPH WIRTZ BURIED AT HILLSBORO The funeral of Joseph Wirtz, 15 years old, who died at the home of his parents, at 660 Kirby street, Sunday, will be held from his late home this morning. Interment wil be made in the cemetery at Hillsboro. He was a son of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Wirtz, and brother of Russell, Vernon and Sadie Wirtz. The body will be taken to Hillsboro on the Oregon Electric car this afternoon.

ADVENTISTS' SCHOOL NEARLY DONE.—
The schoolhouse being built for the Seventh-Day Adventists of Portland on a block east of Laurelhurst, is nearing completion. Rev. G. W. Pettit announces that the building will be dedicated September 18 tember 18 and school will open the same day. The building will contain four rooms. G. E. Johnson will be principal and Miss Dimond, assistant, Grades up to the ninth will be taught.

Young Woman's Funeral Held.—The funeral of Miss Margaret McMahan, who died September 2, at the home of her parents, at 186 East Seventh street, was held yesterday from the Holy Rosary Church, at East Third street and Union avenue. Miss McMahan was 21 years old and was a daughter of Mrs. Lizzie J. McMahan, and sister of Frank, Joe and Elizabeth McMahan. ATKINSON CHURCH TO BE BLESSED.— The Atkinson Memorial Congressional Church, at East Twenty-ninth and East

Couch streets, is near completion and will be dedicated next month, the date for the ceremony not yet being set. The interior is finished. The cost of the building, completed, will be $8000. Rev. Herbert G. Crocker is the pastor. THE sessions of the law department of the University of Oregon will now be held in new and commodious quarters on the second floor of the Central building, at Tenth and Alder streets. The Fall term opens September 18, 1911. For catalogue giving full information address Walter Gillard, secretary, 611 Corbett bldg., Portland, Or.

RELIEF SOCIETY TO MEET.—The regular monthly business meeting of the Ladies' Relief Society will be held at 2 o'clock today in the First Presbyterian Church.

HEAVY DEN DOORS NOW FORBIDDEN.—
A city ordinance forbidding the use of heavy dors or other barricades on houses used for gambling purposes, was transmitted to the police yesterday, having gone into effect with an emergency clause, and Chief Slover expects to see immediate improvement in the regulation of the gambling evil as a consequence. The first efforts of the new police administration to evil as a consequence. The first efforts of the new police administration to cope with Chinese and other gambling were met with reports from policemen that the places had ben put in condition to withstand any form of attack, electric signals, heavy iron doors and secret outlets presenting a combination that made the capture of gamblers impossible. At the instance of Chairman Coffey of the police committee of the Executive Board the ordinance was introduced to combat ordinance was introduced to combat

DRUNK IS CUT MYSTERIOUSLY.—
Mystery surrounds the injury of William Bradley, who was ficked up by Patrolmen Henson and Bewley, at Third and Burnside streets, yesterday Third and Burnside streets, yesterday afternoon, drunk and with a severe scalp wound. Bradley said an automobile had struck him, but when City Physician Ziegler dressed the wound at the police station, he found that it was a clean cut, as if made by a sharp weapon. Bradley adhered to his explanation, and as there were few persons on the street on account of the rain, no other story could be gathered. Bradley was ordered held until he is sober.

SANDY BOULEVARD TO HAVE SIDEWALKS. —A number of the property ewners on Sandy boulevard will take out permits to lay concrete sidewalks in front of their property. The street is not to be improved before next year on the advice of the City Engineer, and a movement is afoot to lay sidewalks in advance of improvement of the street. It is in-Improvement of the street. It is intended to have plans prepared and the contract let for the improvement next year. Gregory Heights residents, who live toward the end of the Sandy boulevard, will demand that the street be paved to the end when the improvement is made.

- Orpheum.

Some sixth sense must have given notice that this week's Orpheum

notice that this week's Orpheum bill was to be a hum-beedler, for everybody who could, went to find out if his individual prognostications would come true. Of course, it was a holiday, too—and the S. R. O. signs were hung out early in the game.

Two smashing big headliners crowded each other all along the track, coming in neck-and-neck at an exciting finish. One is Edwin F. Stevens, a comedian in whom Portlanders take an especial personal interest because of his association in local theatricals 20 years ago. The other is Lily Lena, that fascinating human dynamo, who, 20 years ago. The other is Lily Lenk, that fascinating human dynamo, who, whenever she visits us, is accorded an ovation. This time her songs and costumes are all brand new, but her delicious smile and alluring ways are of the non-changeable variety. For which we are theneful. we are thankful. Lily "comedes" with her eyes, and sings in a well-trained and not un-musical voice, remarkable for its enunciation. Her gowns make the feminine contingent of the audience sit up and take large interest—and also take notes. Of her songs, probably the best liked was "Smart, Smart, Smart," a travesty on society, and a pretty tuneful ballad, "Over the Garden Wall."
