

Attorney Kerr yesterday in Minneapolls, made a statement regarding his knowledge of Miss Dalton that is flatly contradictory of her story today. This telegram was shown Miss Dal-ion and she reiterated the denials she had made twice before. At first she assumed an attitude of greatly injured innocence and of one who was deeply She cited the splendid rep onged. utation she had in Seattle and asked, "You know that I am secretary of the Woman's Commercial Club, don't you?" Answered in the affirmative, she then warneo whose names you connect with a case like this."

porter today, however. Miss Dalton came to the conclusion that her decep-tion could not be maintained longer.

SOCKS USED TO WIN DEATH Man Walks Into Columbia With Rocks Fastened Around Waist.

ANCOUVER, Wash., Sept. 8 .-- (Spe-cial)-Taking off his long socks and filling them with rocks and gravel and binding these around his waist, an unbinding these around his waist, an un-known man, about 55 years old, walked into the Columbia River below the big steel drawbridge at 2 o'clock to-day and when he had reached suffi-cient depth, lay down and drowned in sight of Mrs. W. H. Gurlie, a woman in a houseboat, and Wesley Freeman, a child a child

Mr. Gurlle, who was on the other side of the houseboat, was summoned and he tried to find the drowning man, but was unsuccessful. He called John Secrist, Chief of Police, and the two recovered the body in half an hour. A bottle of medicine on which was written, "take two spoonsful night and morning. Robinson, 206 Couch street, morning. Robinson, 206 Couch street, Portland, Or," was found in the man's clothes. The man was dressed in a black soft hat, black cost and vest, corduroy trousers and high-topped shoes, laced. He weighed about 140 pounds, was five feet seven inches tall and had a sandy moustache and sandy her seriabled with grav. He had hair, sprinkled with gray. He had been seated on the edge of the river all day.

Fred Lund Placed in Jail.

BANDON, Or., Sept. 8 .-- (Special.) --- Considerable excitement was caused

Consideration extendent was called here yesterday over the report of an attempted attack on little 5-year-old Doris Carlisle by a man 35 or 40 years old, and giving his name as Fred Lund. The only eye-witnesses to the affair were some little children, playmates of Doris, and they, in their fright, began to scream. A chase resulted in Lund being captured and taken to jail.

No harm was done to the little girl. Lund was taken to Coquilie to await trial. Lund says he has been working at the Conlogue logging camp at Lam-pa, 15 miles from Condon.

at the resulted from an injury received on the train at Elgin five years ago. Evans Smith McComms was born in Adams County, Ohio, January 23, 1839. When 5 years old his parents took him

Died Recently.

Pioneer,

Who

tation she had in Seattle and asked, You know that I am secretary of the Yoman's Commercial Club, don't you?" Inswered in the affirmative, she then arned: "Well, you'd better be pretty careful rhose names you connect with a case ke this." After her last interview with a re-corter today, however. Miss Dalton ame to the conclusion that her decep-ion could not be maintained longer. SOCKS USED TO WIN DEATH

Always a natural orstor and writer, he soon drifted to literary pursuits and established the Mountain Sentinel at established the mountain Sentine: at Union, the first newspaper in Eastern Oregon. He printed his picture in the paper in all the glory of his heavy Burnside whiskers, and under it the caption "Big Injun Mc." He later as-sisted in the establishment of a paper at La Grande, the Grand Ronde Chron-tele which is now the Morning Star.

McComns.

at La Grande, the Grand Ronde Chron-icle, which is now the Morning Star. He wrote several poems, the best-known of which are "The Indian Scare of 1878" and "The Old Pioneer," of which Joaquin Miller said. "I never wrote anything nearly so good." He moved to La Grande in 1864, and was elected County Clerk in 1866 and re-elected in 1868. He established the Mountain Sentinel, and was later ap-pointed as the first register of the United States Land Office at La Grande. In 1890, associated W. A. Parker, he established the Grand Ronde Chronicle. Ever active in politics, he was an ar-dent Democrat and the older citizens of Union County still tell of his political Ever active in politics, he was an ar-dent Democrat and the older citizens of Union County still tell of his political ber 20.

speeches. In 1887 he married Miss Harriet M. Welsh, a native of Iowa. He is sur-vived by his widow, an only daughter, Mrs. Jeanette Moran, and by three sis-ters, Mrs. Alice M. Bell, of Imnaha, Mrs. Esther E. Pursel and Mrs. Mary R. Thompson, of Union, and an adopt-ed son. Earl, now residing near Railroads Are Pleased. .

Since the first of the month the Southern Pacific and the O.-W. R. & N. have abolished the public drinking cup at their stations and on the trains, and the innovation has been exciting con went to the scene of the murder Thurs-day and made a careful search of the premises, hoping to find blood smear left by the murderer in which finger prints were retained. Bloodstnins Not Usable.

The expert carried with him a small quantity of blood-finding fluid to re-veal hidden blood stains. Using this, Hunter was able to show that a towel had been used by the murderer to clean his hands, but the traces were not such as to betray identity.

Blood stains were found on a hatches in the house, and this for a time held forth an indication of similarity in that respect to the murder of the Hill family at Ardenwald last June. On more mature consideration Hunter reached the belief that the murderer simply touched the hatchet in moving it out of his way. Hunter took a pho tograph of the interior of the cabin which will be preserved as evidence in the case.

SALMON RUN IN COOS BAY

ber 20. The old cannery building used many years ago, on the water front, was secured by the new company and has been fitted up with new machinery and equipment. Captain Reynolds will exhibit at the state fair a sample case of the canned Coos Bay salmon. The Empire cannery is also in op-eration this year and as there are now two plants instead of one the compe-tition for fish is greater and the fish-ermen will do a bigger business than for several years. A Portland firm is also buying salmon to put in cold storage and to ship.

also buying salmon storage and to ship.

TROOPS REACH ASTORIA Coast Artillerymen on Dress Parade

at Centennial Today.

ASTORIA. Or., Sept. &--(Special)--The troops of the Thirty-Third, Thirty-Fourth. Ninety-Third and One Hundred and Sixtieth Companies of Coast Ar-tillery, under command of Lieutenant-Colonel Foots, marched here Thursday from Fort Stevens and will camp near the City Park for the rest of the week. Tomorrow afternoon the troops will hold dress parade and drills at the Auditorium.

RAILWAY WORKS AHEAD Oregon Electric Asks Grant Through Harrisburg to Albany.

HARRISBURG, Or., Sept. &---(Spe-cial)-Representatives of the Oregon

Thompson as long as there is the slightest chance of success. Failure to find identifying marks around the scene of the crime is re-ported by Detective Sergeant Hunter the Bertillon expert, who was lent the Columbia County authorities by Chief articles in the house of death. Hunter what to the scene of the murder Thuise articles in the house of death. Hunter smoking car on the southbound Over-land, which left Portland at 8:15 o'clock last night, and slarming many o'clock last night, and alarming many passengers, James Nichols and Frank McCorkie, painters of Eugene, were arrested by Conductor Shearer under the new law prohibiting the drinking of liquor in trains and were turned over to the police when the train reached Albany. They pleaded guilty before Justice Swan this afternoon, and being unable to pay the $25 fine im-posed on each, were placed in the Linn County jail to serve 12 days.

Goldendale Dairymen Give to Fund.

GOLDENDALE, Wash., Sept. 8. --(Special.) -- Dairymen of this valley have subscribed about $3000 to a fund being raised to purchase a number of registered Jersey cattle to be shipped to this section and distributed among the different herds of dairy cattle. The parties interested stated that the cat-tle would be purchased either in West-ern Washington or in the Willamette Valler. The dairy industry has been receiving special attention in this vicinity for the past two years, as it has been demonstrated that alfalfa hay can be profitably grown here on land that farmers, at one time, thought only wheat could be grown.

Eugene Banks Prosper.

JUNCTION CITY, Or., Sept. 8.—(Spe-Deposits in the four Eugene banks on September 1, according to reports pub-lished today, amounted to $2,592,725.08, and total resources to $3,547.461.82. This is an increase of nearly 15 per cent in resources, and of 11 per cent in deposits over the figures for November, 1910. Increase in resources is due to 1910. Increase in resources is due to new capital put into the Bank of Com-merce, opened September 15.

Includes Railroad and Sleeper Tickets, Meals, Admission to Grounds

Providing not less than seventy-five people join the party, this train of Observation Car, Sleepers, Dining Car and Baggage Car will be run by the Oregon Journal via

The North Bank Road

Leaving Portland 11 P. M. Thursday, September 14, returning to Portland Sunday morning September 17.

The train will be parked near the Round-Up Grounds and used for meals and sleeping while in Pendleton.

This excursion affords a splendid opportunity for the trip to the Round-Up and the best of accommodations en route and in Pendleton.

Application for tickets should be made immediately to

W. E. COMAN, G. P. A. North Bank R. R., Room 620 Railway Exchange Bldg., or Telephone Marshall 920.

This train will not be operated unless at least 75 tickets are sold.

The $10,000 2:12 Trot The $1000 2:08 Pace (Consolation) The $1500 Three-Year-Old Pace (Futurity)

The Best Running Race of the Week

Prasp's Band The Metropolitan Quartette

The Last Day, Last Chance, and the Greatest Day's Racing Card in the Turf History of the West. Races Rain or Shine, and What's the Difference in the Grandstand.

25,000 Portlanders Ought to Go--- The Show Is Worth the Price

RACES START SATURDAY AT 1:30, SHARP

Admission 50c, Grandstand 50c, Children Half-Price, Bleachers Free

THE PORTLAND FAIR AND LIVESTOCK EXPOSITION

siderable comment among passengers on trains, according to Dr. Calvin S. White, State Health Officer, who has just returned from a trip into Eastern Gregon. At present passengers must supply their own cups, but later winding machines to sell proper cups will be installed. Dr. White says that the general ex-pression is one of satisfaction, and of commendation of the action but that occasionally dissatisfaction is heard.

MAN WOULD ATTACK GIRL DRINKING CUP RULE LIKED

andon Aroused Over Attempt and State Health Officer Says Patrons of

UMPQUA VALLEY MAN DIES Ex-Judge Marshal D. Thompson, of Donglas County, Passes Away. ROSEBURG, Or., Sept & -(Special) -Marshal D. Thompson, ex-county