CHURCH, THRIVING, WANTS PASTOR KEPT.—The official board of Centenary Methodist Church, in session Thursday Methodist Church, in session Thursday night, voted unanimously to ask the bishop to return Rev. Delmar H. Trim-ble as pastor for another year. The board also requested the reappointment of District Superintendent McDougall. Reports from the different branches of the church organization showed the most prosperous condition in 15 years. All obligations have been met, includ-ing the increased budget on account of music, two deaconesses and the pastor's salary. Charles L. Weaver was elected delegate to the lay electral conference which is to meet in Salem September 22, and Dr. J. J. Hewitt was named which is to meet in Salem September 22, and Dr. J. J. Hewitt was named reserve delegate. The report on mem-bership showed a total gain of 357 members and a loss of 33 members, leaving a net gain of 324 members, the best record made in the history of Centenary Church. Repairs of the church in progress will cost $2590, and will soon be finished.

STREET ASSESSMENTS ANNOUNCED.-Assessment for widening Oregon street between Adams street and Grand ave-nue amounts to $5040. The street is widened from 50 feet to 70 feet. Orenue amounts to $6040. The street is widened from 50 feet to 70 feet. Ore-gon street extends to the new rallroad bridge. For widening Villa avenue from East Eighty-second to the city limits the assessments total $1645. For making East Twenty-sixth street uni-formly 60 feet wide between Division and Powell streets the assessment is $4391. A few property owners on Ore-gon street may resist the widening in the court, but for East Twenty-sixth and Villa avenue opposition is not ex-pected from any source. Tow Richampeon To Hers Brainson

PARK COMMITTEE TO WAGE CAMPAIGN. —The East Side park committee of 15, who presented the playground needs of Central East Portland and Rose City Park district before the Park Board several weeks ago, will wage a cam-paign for parks until final action is taken. Dan Kellaher, chairman of the committee, said yesterday that he is confident at least several of the tracts recommended will be obtained, as mem-bers of the Park Board seem to favor the selections made. The committee does not expect definite action until more park bonds are sold about the first of the year, when funds will be available. A meeting of the com-mittee will be called in a short time to consider the situation and adopt plans for future action. The committee was organized to conduct a campaign until Central East Portland is provided with playgrounds. PARK COMMITTEE TO WAGE CAMPAIGN. with playgrounds.
