CUPID HAS EYES ON MRS. GOURAND

Rich California Widow Is Reported to Be Engaged to French Actor.

SHE HAS DAZZLED PARIS

Bernhardt's Leading Man.

PARIS, Sept. 11,-(Special.)-Gossip on the boulevards has it that Mrs. Jackson Gouraud, who was Miss Amy Crocker, of San Francisco, before her first matrimonial venture, is to take her fourth husband in the person of M. Max, the well-known French actor who is known in the United States through his appearance there as lead-ing man for Sarah Bernhardt.

The engagement has not been an-ounced but the fascinating American ridow and the noted thespian are seen frequently in each other's company. It is said that they appear very devoted.

Mrs. Gouraud and her money have

MEETING STARTLES GIRLS

Adopted by Different Families, Two Suddenly Face Each

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Sept. 11 .- (Special.)—A pretty 16-year-old girl from Wichita, Kan., who is visiting in this city, went into a big department store office last Saturday, sustained a bad accident this morning, and only the mail bags which the flying postman was carrying from Hendon to Windsor Castle saved him from an almost certain death.

were taken from the Children's Home in this city. Margaret was adopted by Mr. and Mrs. George Veail, of Wich-ita, and Marie was adopted by Mr. and Mrs. Francis M. Freeman, of Indian-

The children grew to young woman-hood without knowing of the other's Marie Freeman learned existence. Marie Freeman learned only a few months ago that she was a foster child and had a twin sister. She came across some old letters. These missives did not reveal where her sister was, however.

While selling ribbons and notions in the department store, Marie Freeman wondered frequently where her sister was, and if she would ever set eyes upon her. It was indeed during one of these reveries that there appeared before her, on the opposite side of the counter, a smartly tailored, living breathing reproduction of her own self. "Have you any—" began the girl in front of the counter. She stopped to stare at the clerk. The salesgirl stared back.

"Can it be-"
It was. In a second both girls were chatting about their resemblance and they realized they were sisters. An in-vestigation of the records of the Children's Home Society proved it. The girls have been almost inseparable since they discovered one another.

E. J. MEYERS HANGS HIMSELF IN DENVER HOTEL.

Electrician Thought to Have Been of Unsound Mind, Following Accident Two Months Ago.

DENVER. Sept. 11.—E. J. Meyers, an electrical worker, en route from Portland, Or., to Cleveland, O., committed suicide early today by hanging himself to a bedpost in his room in a local hotel. The authorities believe Meyers was demented, as he had attempted to leap from a Union Pacific train near Cheyenne Sunday afternoon.

When the train reached Denver, shortly after midnight, Meyers was taken in charge by an officer, who escorted him to a hotel and left word that he be called in time for his east-bound train. The body was discovered by a beilboy sent to awaken him. DENVER. Sept. 11 .- E. J. Meyers, an

E. J. Meyers was a member of Port-land Electrical Workers Union No. 125 and came to this city about a year ago from Cleveland. He was employed by the Portland Rallway Light & Power the Portland Rallway Light & Power Company as a lineman and continued in that occupation until two months ago. At that time he met with an accident while repairing a broken trolley wire on the East Side. Meyers fell from the platform of the repair car and his head was injured. The accident affected his mind so that at times he acted strangely, although he was never known to exhibit any signs of suicidal mania. His brother, M. E. Meyers, is also an electrical worker and is employed on the new Multnomah Hotel.

RAIL OFFICIAL PROTESTS

Safety Bills in Congress Would Bankrupt Roads, He Says.

NEW YORK, Sept. 11.—F. O. Melcher, vice-president of the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific, in a letter published here, calls attention to the serious hards. and & Pacific, in a letter published here, calls attention to the serious hature of pending railway legislation intended to safeguard employes and passengers. He points out, for example, that one bill introduced into Congress requiring all roads to discard their wooden equipment after January I, 1912, would cost the railroads more than $630,000,000. Other bills now pending would require the roads to enlarge their clearances at a cost of $444,000,000 and to install the universal block signals at a cost of $287,000,000.

To comply with these three laws To comply with these three laws would call for an expenditure by the ratilways of $1,361,089,000. This is 10 per cent of the net capitalization of all the roads in the United States, which amounted to $14.838.575,000 at the end of 1910.

Sugar, Coffee and Potatoes Climb to High Figure.

Only Bright Spot in Situation Is Declaration of Experts That Persons Setting Simple Table Need Not Fear Winter.

NEW YORK, Sept. 11 .- The cost of living is soaring once more. Statisties just compiled show that sugar is selling higher than in 12 years, that potatoes are costing as much as $1.10 a bushel in the field, and that the price of coffee is jumping toward unknown heights. The outlook is not pleasant for the housewife in the coming Winter. Eco-nomic experts declare that food prices will be higher, in many instances, than they were last year, but give some hope by adding that the man who sets hope by adding that the man who sets his table with plain, everyday fare, avoiding fancy brands, need not have undue anxiety.

It is pointed out, generally speaking, with the exception of coffee, sugar, potatoes and a few canned vegetables, the present month of September was the present month of September was ushered in with conditions more favorable to the consumer than was the case a year ago. On September 1, mess pork was quoted at $19 a barrel, wholesale, as against $24 on the same to te in 1910; the wholesale price of ham is a little more than 15 cents a pound, as compared with 18 cents in the early Fall of last year; Western lard is selling at a fraction more than 9 cents, as against more than 12 cents in September, 1910; and butter and eggs are both comparatively reasonseggs are both comparatively reasona-ble and a few cents cheaper retail than

The cost of poultry will be largely determined by cold storage holdings. Indications art that the shortafe of potatoes is serious, not only in this country, but in Great Britain and Germany. In the Fall of last year one could buy good potatoes in the field at 55 cents

How to Banish Wrinkles Quickly

(From Guide to Beauty) (From Guide to Beauty)

If the average woman only knew it, it is not so difficult to preserve the youthful contour and velvety smoothness of complexion. Every woman hates to see her face wrinkled or baggy, and practically every one has experimented with some sort of patent remedy in the effort either to remove such condition or ward it off.

As a matter of fact, the most effective remedy in the world is one that any woman can easily make up herself at home, in a moment's time. Let her at home, in a moment's time. Let her take one ounce of pure powdered saxolite, which she can purchase at any saxolite, which she can purchase at any drug store, and dissolve it in a half pint of witch hazel. Apply this refreshing solution to the face every day. The results are surprising and instantaneous. Even after the very first application a marked improvement is apparent. The wrinkles are less in evidence and the face has a comfortable, smug feeling of firmness that is most delightful.—Adv.
