OUR PLATE WORK

Why shouldn't every other line of business, unless they have something to conceal? We advertise to let people know who we are, what we are and what we can do. If we did not do what we promise in our advertisements, the advertising would hurt. It hurts some high-priced dentists to know that we advertise low prices for high-class work, because we deliver the goods.

OUR BRIDGE WORK

has always been an important branch of our profession, and at this office is treated with the consideration it deserves, and our plates with flexible action are the most satisfying that have ever been devised.
 They do away with all of the well-known annoyances endured by a large percentage of people who wear plates and are superior in every way to any other plate.

SIX UNDESIRABLES TRIED, FOUR

Proprietress of Richelleu Taxed $250 for Broaking Lid—Two Demand Jury Trials.

Women of the underworld had their day in the Municipal Court yesterday.
 The biggest fine was that of Goldie Gray, proprietress of the Richelleu Hotel, who was charged with selling liquor without a license, and was fined $250. Her case was tried Tuesday, but sentence was suspended until today. The woman had been convicted of a similar offense before.
 Ruby Drival, arrested in a police raid on the house at 623 1/2 Fourth street Sunday night, was fined $20.
 Rosie Smith and Lulu Durand, who were taken in the same raid, were discharged, although they were complained against. They were arrested in accordance with instructions of Chief Slover for policemen to arrest all the women they find in houses kept by John Kinkes, upon whose complaint the women were arrested, and were fined $15 for visiting a disorderly house. Cora Barrett and Annie Freeman were also discharged. They were arrested on complaint of Miles P. Barrett, the husband of Cora Barrett, who alleged that Annie Freeman had estrangled his wife from him in his absence, by false tales, and had then persuaded her to take up a shameful life.
