MRS. GERAGHTY IS HAPPY

Bridge Cooks Own Meals in Newport Cottage and Receives Presents From Anonymous Givers—Diamonds Are Among Them.

NEWPORT, R. I., Sept. 15.—(Special.)—Friends of Mrs. "Jack" Geraghty, who was Miss Julia French, have approached her with advice to go to her mother and seek a reconciliation but she has replied that when she is bidden to her home the invitation must also include her husband. It is said that Amos Tuck French, Mrs. Geraghty's father, is now unfavorable to a reconciliation at this time.

PORTLAND GIRL WEARY

MRS. ROUSSELL THINKS LOS ANGELES NO SOCIAL CENTER.

Liking for Life of Social Butterfly Leads Former Resident of Oregon to Court Divorce.

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 15.—(Special.)—Preference for hotel life to the homely ties of their cozy apartments and burning social aspirations, which she declared were not to be realized in Los Angeles, according to John V. Roussett, a jeweler, caused his wife to leave him in April, in 1910, and invite him to divorce her. In consequence Judge Cole today granted him an interlocutory decree.

APPLES INTOXICATE COW

Victim Is Blue-Ribboner, Owned by Connecticut Farmer.

THOMASTON, Conn., Sept. 15.—The authorities at Campville, near here, report an unusual case of intoxication, the victim being a blue-ribbon cow owned by a farmer there. The cow's downfall is said to have been due to over-indulgence in sour apples.

COURT HEARS DUCK YARN

Man Fined, Not for Theft, but for Failure to Appear at Trial.

VANCOUVER, Wash., Sept. 15.—(Special.)—Although Jesse W. Hill, who was defeated for Sheriff at the election, says he did not purloin the trained wild ducks of Jesse Troeh, a policeman, he was fined $10 for contempt of court by G. Lloyd Davis, Justice of the Peace, because he failed to appear at an appearance at his trial. The case was set for trial September 19 and Hill was released on $200 bonds.

Hill was arrested last week for stealing two trained wild ducks which Troeh alleges are his birds. A few nights after the ducks disappeared Troeh chanced to pass Hill's chicken yard and saw "quack, quack."

Without asking Hill's permission Troeh went into the yard, and by the aid of a flashlight found the birds, which he took to the Sheriff's office, and said they were his. He caused Hill's arrest and the trial was set for today.

Suit for Wages Is Won.

A verdict in favor of the plaintiff for the full amount, together with interest, was returned yesterday by a jury which heard in Judge Morrow's court the case of J. N. Lane against the Suisun Lumber Company. Lane, who organized the company, claimed more than $10,000 for back salary, commissions and refund of money which he had expended on behalf of the company. The jury figured interest and concluded that he was entitled about $12,125. A. E. Clark and Fred Everson were attorneys for the plaintiff.
