HIS big store stands as a monument of proof of the 56 years of satisfaction, of service, of selection! Paper is patient—a little, meager selection of merchandise may be advertised in the most glowing terms. Please do not think it is in a spirit of boastfulness that we attribute The Meier & Frank Store's amazing growth to its backing up of every advertised statement with stocks that stand unchallenged as the largest and most complete in the West. With service that always satisfies, with value-giving that is always the wonder of patrons and merchants alike.

There can be no dissatisfaction at Meier & Frank's-that is ever our watchword!

on the billboards, in the newspapers, in the show windows, at the Underwear Counters—everywhere. And girls and boys for miles around have been stirred into action by the unique Munsingwear Guessing Contest for children, with $10, $5 and $3 cash prizes, besides a beautiful cut-out doll for every contestant. Answers will be received at a special booth on the first floor, beginning at 9:30 Saturday morning. They will be numbered consecutively, so that should there be a number of children equally accurate, cash prizes will be awarded to the three guessers

HROUGH the long Winter season, you'll realize no end of enjoyment from the modern Talking Ma-

Close your eyes—yes, here is Alice Lloyd, that dainty English comedienne, singing the songs just as she does in vaudeville. Montgomery and Stone tell their latest jokes, in that quaint eccentric way that's made them famous. Then all the song-birds of Grand Opera -Caruso. Tetrazzini, Neilson, Bonei, Schumann-Heink, McCormack, sing for you the operas just as they are heard in New York.
