President Cornwall Attacks Seekers of Free Advertising-Many Addresses Postponed Until Today - Programme Varied.

The proposed single tax law for Oregon formed the subject of a general debate yesterday afternoon at the pening session of the annual conven tion of the Oregon State Editorial Association at the Commercial Club. The affirmative of the debate was taken W. S. U'Ren, of Oregon City, who explained the tax system.

The single tax," said Mr. U'Ren. "has for its purpose the giving of the products of labor to the laborer and the elimination of vast land boldings on the part of corporations and indiriduals for speculative purposes. A great wrong exists in the present method of taxation by imposing of tures on improvements on property. It costs vastly more to own property It costs vastly more to own property on which are good improvements than to hold the bare land, despite the fact that the holding is merely for the purpose of speculation and the holder does no actual work to promote the increase in the value of the land. The placing of a single tax on land and eliminating taxes on improvements would tend to eliminate speculation and would cause people to build on their property or dispose of it to someone willing to build.

"There is a grave question as to whether the company is responsible," said attorney Schnabel. There were only two witnesses, the motorman and a woman who was waiting at the station to take the car. 2:30 o'clock. At that time prominent educators of the city will speak, and R. C. French, educational director of the Y. M. C. A. will outline the work for the year. This meeting will be followed by the formal opening on Monday night, when all of the students will gather in the Y. M. C. A. auditorium and be addressed by H. W. Stone, Mr. French and others. LIBRARY SITE BOUGHT

Portland Association Pays $9578 for Knott-Street Property.

The Portland Library Association, through Wakefield, Fries & Company, has bought a site in Upper Albina for the proposed new $25,000 library to be built for that district. The property occupies 150x150 feet on Knott street, between Union and Rodney avenues, the total price paid being $9578.

Three pieces of property were bought from three owners. One is described as lot 5, block 16, Albina, formerly owned by George W. Cummings; improved with a cottage, the price being $3525; one, lot 5, block 16, owned by R. M. Ryner, price $3125; and one, lot 7, owned by Eugene C. Davidson, price $3125.

The site is in the central portion of Albina, and covers nearly one ordinary block. Considering the price for which adjacent property is held, the price is considered remarkably low.

Plans are to be drawn for a $35,000 library at an early date. It will be the second library of the three to be built on the East Side. The third will probably be built in North Albina, near Killingsworth avenue, unless Montavilla obtains the building.

Sick headaches! Always trace them to lary liver, delayed, fermenting food in the bowels or a sick stomach. Poisonous matter, instead of being thrown out, is reabsorbed into the blood. When this poison reaches the delicate brain tissue it causes congestion and that dull, awful throbbing, sickening headache. Cascarets remove the cause by stimulating the liver, making the poison move on and out and purifying the blood. The effect is almost instantaneous. Ladies whose sensitive organisms are especially prone to sick headaches, need not suffer, for they can be quickly cured by Cascarets.
