Second Drive Over Fence in Week Gives Beavers Five Out of Six From Oaks.

RYAN EARNS COIN BY FEAT

Beavers Avenge Former Triumph of Busher by Pounding Martinoni Out of Box-10,000 Funs Jam Grounds to See Victory.

Portland made it five out of six from the Oaks yesterday when they trimmed the hard-hitting transbay aggregation by a 4 to 2 source before 10,000 which by a to 2 source before 10,000 wildly enthusiastic fans. It was a game exciting from the start, and Buddy Ryan harned himself another shower of sliver and increased the interest in the testimential benefit game scheduled for this afternoon by batting the ball out of the lot as first man up in the fourth inning. This homer really took all the ginger out of "Kid" Martinoni, who worked for the Oaka, and paved the way for a batting session by the home club which resulted in scoring enough runs to sinch the game. Heavy Henderson held the position of chief gunner for the Heavers, and Harry Wolverton, after having worked evertime his trio of stars. Pernoll, Ables and Gregory, ear for the hill.

Chadbourne Gets Long Rap.

Chadbourne Gets Long Rap. This young chap once gained the distinction of shutting the Beavers out with only two hits when Portland played the Oaks at San Francisco, but played the Oaks at San Francisco, but yesterday the Beavers had revenge.

The third, fourth and fifth innings proved the undoing of the Oakland youngster. Portland tailled runs in each of these frames and Wolverton then chased the kid and substituted Fyler Christian, who held Portland runless for the rest of the game.

Mickey La Longe opened the third with a tap to Wares, who juggled and the runner was safe. Henderson sacrificed, and Chadbourne drove a two bagger to right which counted the one-time Oak. Patterson made a couple of nice catches of files from Rodgers and Rappa, retiring the aids.

and Rappa retiring the side.

Then came the fourth inning and Buddy Ryan. The hero of today proved a hero yesterday, for he whanged one of Martinon's shoots out of the lot for a heme run. Once more Buddy had to have help to pick up the dollars, halves and quarters scattered broadcast by the appreciative fans.

Squeeze Fools Martinont. "Romeo" Krueger followed Buddy with a two-bagger to left and Sheehan sacrificed the Dutchman to third. Peckinpaugh gave Krueger the squeeze sign, and "Romeo" spuried for the plate the moment Martinoni wound up. Peck connected for a near bunt and Krueger counted enally, while Martinoi could do nothing else but toss Peck out at first.

In the fifth, Henderson opened with In the fifth, Henderson opened with a double over the right field crowd. Chadbourne bunted and beat it to first, Henderson taking third. Rodgers' hit to Cutabaw sent Chadbourne to second, but Benny was held at third. Bill Rapps drove a long fly to Hoffman and Henderson counted after the catch. Buddy Ryan was hit by a pitched ball, and Krueger's effort was a fly to Patterson.

Oakland put over a brace of runs in the seventh, which brought forth a storm of protest from the Portland players who tried to convince "Old Folk" Van Haltren that he was several Tredemann was first man up and doubled to the left fence. Cutshaw fouled to La Longe, and Tredemann was retired at third when Wares bunted to Henderson. Wares stole second and scored on Mitze's drive to center. Krueger raced in on the hit in the effort to trap the ball, but it get away from him and went into the growd, which entitled the batter to two sacks only unless it was touched by Krusser. Van Halfren held that the fielder touched the ball and allowed Mitse to score. The Oakland and Portland players promptly rushed at the umpires, who were as badly fuddled as unpires, who were as badly fiddled as a Brillsh member of Parliament arguing with a lot of suffragettes.

Suffragettes do not use violent language, as a rule, so it is possible that Van Haltren and Pinney were treated a little more unkindly than the anti-suffrage peer. At any rate the umpires hald their ground and the Oakland runs were allowed to stand as registered. were allowed to stand as registered.

The fielding features of the game were catches by Patterson of Oakland, and the fielding of Peckinpaugh, Rapps and La Longe for Portland. Peckin igh made three great stops and have, and got his man each time, while Lappe fielded first in great style and made a grandstand catch of a long foul against the bleacher screen.

La Longe Grabs Hard Fonts, Mickey La Longe had a busy day with pop fouls and captured them all nicely, while Tommy Sheehan made a great running catch of a foul into the left field crowd which carned the little third sacker a big hand.

The Oaks departed for home last night, and Tuesday afternoon the Beavers will entertain the Beals in the first game of the final series on the Portland lot this season. This after-

Notes of the Game.

Five out of six from the Cake is not a bad record for any club. Portland had the distinction of beating their best pitchers in most of the games. This was the most disasterous series with Portland the Cake have had since Harry Wolverton took charge of the team. The worst previous heating given that club was five of saven.

Wolverine took charge of the team. The worst previous heating given that club was five of seven.

Hoffman opened the game by getting a pass to first, but Hill Rodgers grabbed Coy's grounder, tagged Hoffman out, and then doubled Coy at first base.

Terry McKune went through the stands and sold Buddy Byan day ticksts. The place was so crowded in the fourth inning that the tickstsellers could not get around else many more would have been sold.

Umpure Finney was the victim of several foul tips again. This official is the most unfortunate umpire in the league for he stops more foul tips with his chins than all the others compiled.

In the minth inning, the Oaks had a man on third and another on second, with two out, but Bunny Pearce was nowhere to be found and Jack Flaier was sent in as plach hitter. He performed nobly for Portland, for he stood at the plate, stern and silent, while Henderson tossed three straight strikes right over the heart of the pan, and the game was over.

Tiedemann opened the ninth with a single to right, and Kruser made a great running catch of Cutshaw's fig. Tacher was sent in to hat for Wares, and populied to La Longe. Mitne then doubled to right, Tedemann being held at third or the ground rules. Fater fanned ignuminiously and the game was ever.

Chadbourns made up for his poor hitting carlier in the week when he had to face lefthanders day alier day, for he cracked out three bingles yesterday. Chadbourns beat out two of his three hits, while the other was a corking two-wack drive.

Opposed to Maxmeyer, the Grays will use either Van Hoomisen, their star twirler, or Winterbotham, a young southpaw of great promise. Both these lads have been touted to Walter Mo-Credie and the "handsome boss" of the Beavers will undoubtedly be on hand to watch the performance.

Buddy Ryan's home runs, coming so frequently and so opportunely, have frequently and so opportunely, have made the stocky outfielder's name a byword in all quarters of the city. He is the idol of the boys as well as the grownups, and the fans are showing such an interest in this game that a big

The game will be started at 3:30 o'clock and at 3 o'clock a series of field games will be held between the players. Base running, fungo hitting, long distance throwing, and accurate tossing will form a portion of the programme before the game. In addition there, may be a match foot race between Bill adsay and Chet Chadbourne or Tom Seaton The teams lineup follows:

It is seldom that the fans are treated to a show like that staged in the opening scene today. It started to be a dark and gloomy tragedy, with the hero as the recipient of all kinds of things, the dreadful uncertainty and the old, old specialty of hope, once crushed to earth, arising with each on-suing inning. It suffices to say that three pitchers, regular sure enough hurlers too, went upon the mound to do things, but we did unto. Merely pitchers like Eastley, sent in to fill holes in the Portland lineup, swatted the ball with the idle abandonment of T. Raymond Cobb or H. Wagner. RENO "HERO" VERY FAT

LONDON, Sept. 24.-Although the world's heavyweight championship, presumably, is at stake, the coming battle between Champion Jack Johnson and Bombadier Wells, the English titleholder, is not causing a great deal of excitement in sporting circles. Even the big purse of $40,000, the largest ever given for a prize fight outside the United States, has not stirred the pub-lie to enthusiasm. If opposition can be considered advertisement, the fight has received such from as widely divergent sources as the sporting writers and the pulpit. Most of the puglistic experts writing for the sporting papers continue to criticise Wells' backers for permitting him to battle against the champion. These writers agree in describ-ing Wells as a promising but inexperi-enced fighter, and they deplore the blight to his career which a defeat at this time would entail. Rev. F. B. Mier of Regents Park

Rev. F. B. Mier of Regents Park Chapel, has denounced the proposed match from his pulpit as a brutal prize fight which should be prevented by the law which permits only boxing contests. He spoke of it in one sermon as a prize fight and said there ought to be enough Christians in this country to make it impossible.

Apparently unmoved by the opposition to their meeting, the champion and Wells are hard at work at their respective training quarters. Johnson

SCORE BY INNINGS.

Whitney Defeats Campbell.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 24 .- Frank Whitney, of Chicago, won the decision over Ray Campbell, a local light-weight, in a ten-round contest here today. Whitney knocked Campbell down in the first, second and ninth rounds. Neither fighter has ever been knocked out. Jim Hooner, of San Francisco, won an unpopular decision over Pete McVeigh, the Seattle light-weight, at the end of ten rounds.

"Funny if Oakland would catch up and win this game," piped Fan No. 1 in the stand when Mitze was allowed a homer on the drive that went into the centerfield crowd in yesterday's game, "Nothing 'funny' about it," growled fan No. 2. "Finney; Not funny."
And another brickbat bouquet missed the umpire, for it was Van Haltren's decision.

San Francisco fans have been won-San Francisco fans have been wondering at Buck Weaver's slump. The young phenom doesn't drink or smoke, but has not been in the best of shape.
"I'm passionately fond of candy and that is what's alling me," Weaver explained when Long jumped him for an inexcusable boot last week, "Well, out the candy then," answered the peavish Sea! manager.

Rvan's circuit cleaner yesterday over

Art Krueger trundled a witness clear across the field to prove to Umpire Van Hailren that he did not touch Mitze's liner or that the ball went into the crowd, or that it didn't, or something on that order. Anyway "Rip" unceremoniously wig-wagged the lanky stool pigeon to the suburbs and the crowd had a good laugh at the budding hero's expense.
