

SINGLE TAX PERIL

F. W. Mulkey Shows How System Will Not Better Price of Living or Wages.

MULTNOMAH IN DANGER

Speakers Before Realty Board Say Voters Who Are Not Property Owners Not Knowing Vicious Features May Favor Act.

If the State Supreme Court finds that the "Fenton" single tax measure can be voted upon in the counties, it is the conviction of F. W. Mulkey that the bill will pass in Multnomah County unless a strong and systematic campaign is started at once against it. In his address before the Portland Realty Board yesterday Mr. Mulkey declared that there is a large percentage of voters in the county who are ignorant of the measure and that nearly all would vote for the measure unless its vicious features were explained.

STOCK PLAN WATCHED

STRANGER ASKS ABOUT SAFETY OF SCRIP SALE.

System Like Old Tontine Method to Be Eyed by District Attorney if Tried in Portland.

A modified form of the old "tontine" in which many persons invested their savings in past times, with results usually unfortunate, is seen by Deputy District Attorney Fitzgerald in a plan submitted to him for approval yesterday. The investment involves the sale of scrip in sums of small denominations, which in turn are redeemable in certificates of the issuing company, and these are convertible into bonds when a fixed sum has been invested.

Hardship Here Predicted.

"In Oregon, should the proposed measure pass, the system would work a hardship on the holders of small farms as well as the large landowner. The bulk of the burden would fall on the shoulders of the farmers."

MRS. WET IS NOT "DRY"

Officers Make Many Arrests for Disregard of Sunday Law.

For disregarding the requirements of a dry Sunday, Mrs. Margaret Wet was arrested by Patrolman Raney, and at a late hour last night had not been bailed out.

FILMS SHOW TRAFALGAR

Historic Naval Struggle Is Shown at Star Theater.

For dignity and high historic purpose, yet thrilling in an unusual degree few films have surpassed "The Battle of Trafalgar" Sunday's feature at the Star Theater. The tragic death of Admiral Nelson at the moment of England's victory is brilliantly depicted.

Lovely Autumn Fashions Beckon You

Our Formal Opening of Paris and New York Garments Is Continued

Sketch by our Artist

OUR great Garment Salons were the center of fashion interest yesterday. Thousands of delighted women came and admired and bought from this magnificent assemblage of Paris and New York styles for Fall and Winter 1911-1912. Superb creations in Gowns, Costumes, Wraps and Suits from those fashion kings and queens of the Rue de la Paix and the Rue de Royal are shown side by side with the models of Fifth Avenue and Broadway. See this wonderful display of Autumn Fashions today—the show windows also carry a style-message that you will not want to miss.

This Charming Afternoon Gown

by Dreccol, as shown on the left, is of fine broadcloth, in light brown or old French blue with contrasting revers and cuffs. Overskirt strongly emphasized. Price $48.

Wraps and Coats—

The new styles in evening Coats are altogether picturesque and charming. Of broadcloths, velours and velvets, with immense cape and hood collars; side fastenings, large buttons—$30 to $175.

Gowns and Dresses—

One exquisite Dinner or Theater Gown is of nasturtium yellow chiffon, with rich gilt-beaded and fringed tulle, Empire waist, fishtail train. Evening Gowns from $90 to $300.

Tailored Suits—

From the strictly tailored Suit to the semi-dress and novelty Suits, our showing of new Fall and Winter models is complete, and each style authoritative.

The New Waists—

Waists of rare beauty that have come direct from Paris. One exquisite model is of gold and silver lace in quaint peasant design—$85.

The Paris Millinery

A FASHION display of absorbing interest to every woman who looks to Paris for the artistic, the authentic, the inspired.

And we know of no other store in the Northwest which imports so many French Hats as Meier & Frank's. In this Formal Opening we are showing the signed creations of—

- Madame Georgette Carlier Lewis Louison
- Germaine Marie-Louise Suzanne Talbot
- Gamil Roger Marbot Caroline Reboux

One handsome Hood Hat by Georgette—see sketch above—is of brown Austrian velvet, trimmed in gorgeous brown and gold uncut ostrich plumes—$80. And there are superb Hats by Lichtenstein, Kurzman, Francois, of New York, besides the famous productions of Fisk, Gage, Kassel, Phipps, Burgesser, Highland. American Hats from $5 to $50; Paris and New York Hats, $35 to $200.
