Certain Majority in Primary Gives Office Without Another Election-Fight for District Attorney Still Undecided.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 27 .- At 1 o'clock this morning returns from all 14,547; McCarthy, 8841. For district attorney: Fickert, 2333; Hawthorn, 8284.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 16.-James Rolph, Jr., was elected Mayor of San Francisco today at the first direct primary election to determine the per-sonnel of municipal officers of the city and county of San Francisco.

The vote will closely approximate $0,000, the biggest ever cast in the city. While the vote is by no means com counted, the returns indicate the election of Rolph by a substantial majority and close supporters of Mayor McCarthy, the only real opponent of Rolph, concede the Mayor's defeat.

Plurality Believed 27,000.
At 5 o'clock tonight, Max J. Kuhl, Holph's campaign manager, issued the following statement: From indications now at hand Rolph's plurality will be in the neigh-barhood of 27,000. This, in our opinion, merely a vindication of the good name of San Francisco. A united people working for one object, the regen eration and good name of San Fran-cisco, have put themselves firmly on

The people can look forward to the Fair years with an absolute assurance that not only will the Fair itself, but the government of San Francisco, too, e a credit to our people."

At the McCarthy headquarters no one could be found who would volunteer a statement, but at 2 P. M., the News, the only paper which has sup-Mayor McCarthy, conceded Rolph's election, probably by 15,000.

porter departed. afternoon before the complete count of the vote is made, it has progressed so far as to make almost certain the election of others beside Rolph, who will have a majority estimated between 19,000 and 20,000. The others believed elected are: Police Judges, Daniel C. Deary and Charles Weller; City Attorney, Percy Long (incumbent); Assessor, Washingdge (incumbent); County Clerk, Harry I. Mulcrevy (incumbent); Treasurer, John E. McDougald (Incumbent); Tax Collector, David Bush (Incumbent); Recorder, Edmond Godchaux (Incumbenth: Public Administrator, M. J. Hypes (incumbent).

The following will be contestants at the general election to be held in No-

District Attorney, Charles M. Fickert, Ralph I. Hathern; Auditor, Thomas F. Boyle, John Lackmann; Sheriff, Thomas F. Finn, Prederick Eggers; Ceroner, Thomas B. W. Leland. Benjamin Apple.

Exposition Enters Fight. A hard fight was made to defeat certain members of the McCarthy Board of Supervisors, but the count Supervisors has not reached a stage whereby it can indicate anything. The Panama Exposition was the main feature at today's election. The city has voted $5,000,000 for the exposition, and its citizens have subscribed $7,500,000 more. The next Mayor will have much to say in the disposition of this tremendous sum. It is said that Rolph's election would mean the incoming of an entirely new regime, replacing the affiliations which ontrolled the city with a single interim, four years, election officially was nonpartisan, but McCarthy had the in-dorsement of the Union Labor party, as against the Democratic and Republican support for Rolph.

Many Labor Leaders for Rolph This year, while McCarthy had the formal indorsement of the Union Labor party, many of the leaders in the labor movement of the city took the stump against him, among them being Andrew Furuseth, international head of the Sallors' organization, and Walter MacArthur, president of the Const Sauman's Union. Rolph is a newcomer to political life. He is a merchant of large local interests and has never before sought public office, though long active in civic affairs. McCarthy has risen from the ranks of labor, working his way upward through union affiliations to the leadership of the Labor Council. At the neapolis. last municipal election he polled a just as the old story tells.

J. C. Mann, who lives at a station of the same name on the Woodstock line, charged trespass against C. Royal in that he had removed from the property of the complainant an apple tree and two cherry trees.

Mrs. Royal was offered as a witness for the complainant, with whom, she admitted, she was "keeping company." This was objected to by the defense or the ground that she could not testify against her husband, but it was shown that her testimony related to the prenuptial period and Justice Olson held that the confidential relation regarded by the law had not then been es tablished.

The woman took the stand with alacrity and related how Royal had pointed out the trees to her and sugcested transplanting them to the home

An Arab revolt is feared. Foreigners are fleeing hastily. Every available boat leaving here is crowded with Europeans.

The above is the first dispatch direct from Tripoli since the threatened conflict between Italy and Turkey directing attention to that Turkish province on the north coast of Africa. It bears out earlier advices from Malta and other points indicating an exodus of Europeans from the troubled zone.

Italian residents of Tripoli have left large numbers, fearing that they might be made the victims of Turkish engeance and the now reported possibility that the Arabs may take advantage of the situation and begin an uprising, adds another grave feature to the Turko-Italian quarrel.

ROME, Sept. 26.-Italy's next move will depend upon the answer the Porte makes to a note sent Turkey today. She has demanded guarantees against certain acts on the part of Turkey that have been subject to complaint by tallan residents of Tripo

These guarantees include the right of Italy to supervise all measures which she considers necessary for conducting affairs in Tripoli. The note is couched in the strongest terms and is in intent an ultimatum.

According to advices received here, the Porte is disposed to make import momie concessions to Italy, but the belief is held in Rome that there (Concluded on Page 2)

VANCOUVER, Wash, Sept. 26-(Special.)-When walking in the City Park at Tacoma Sunday, Issac S. Johnson, a conductor on the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railroad, chanced to meet Miss Mildred A. Nott, whom he had known when they were schoolmates in Farmington, Ill., 20 years ago, and not seen since. were sweethearts in school and promised, when they parted, to ever re-track of each other despite many efforts each made to locate the other. Looking at each other, surprise covered their faces, and both stopped and stared. They shook hands and in a short time the old love had rekindled and a proposal was made and accepted. In the parlors of Hotel St. Elmo, in Vancouver today, the wedding took place, Rev. J. M. Canse, of the First Methodist Church, officiating. Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Harris, of Portland, were witnesses.

But they drifted apart and lost all

In speaking of the romance begun in their school days and ending so happily in the wedding today, Mr. Johnson said that he had never married and had wondered countless times what had become of his old sweetheart Miss Nott came West on a visit with friends in Tacoma and little dreamed that she would see her old schoolmate in the park when she went walking Sunday.

Though the wedding was delayed nearly a fifth of a century, it was none the less happy and the couple returned to Tacoma, where they will live.

Prosecution Will Try to Use Statements Made by ex-Broker in Suit for Alienation Against Rich Clothier.

DENVER, Sept 26-An insult, the limax of a series of alleged brutalities extending throughout their married life, is given by Mrs. Gertrude Gibson Patterson as the reason for killing her husband, Charles A. Patterson, former ly a Chicago broker, in this city yes-

"He spat in my face and called me the vilest name a man can call a woman," said Mrs. Patterson today, as she displayed a bruise on the cheek which she said was the result of a blow struck by her husband. "Patterson was in constant fear of his wife, who had frequently threatened to kill him," was the statement of the deal man's attorney and friends. Insanity Probable Plea.

It developed today that attorneys for Mrs. Patterson will offer "temporary insanity, the result of long abuse and final insult," as a defense when the case comes to trial. That Emil Strouss, the Chicago millionaire clothing manufacturer, whom Patterson recently sued for alienation of his wife's affections, may come to assistance, was suggested today when it became known that instruc tions came from a Chicago legal firm to a prominent Denver attorney to tenhis services to the accused widow.

Life Story Will Be Told. Mrs. Patterson probably will the stand in her own defense at her trial. She told her attorney today a story of married life replete with incidents of alleged brutality. She reounted that three months after marriage, Patterson, always averse to work, sold her to Strouss, she said, for a trip to Europe. The consideration, she declared, was $1500 and was paid
