HENLEY TASTES DEFEAT

Harkness Is Invincible.

BY W. J. PETRAIN. In the opening game of the last week of baseball in Portland this season, the Beavers captured an extrainning battle from the San Francisco Seals by a score of 2 to 1 and kept themselves in first place.

The game went 11 innings, and the Beals held a little donation party in the final chapter when two weird miscues put Buddy Ryan across with the winning run after one man had been retired. "Cack" Henley was the twirler selected by "Kid" Mohler.

Henley is usually fortunate against the Beavers, but yesterday he went up against the top-notchers when they had all the horseshoes, rabbits' feet and like trophies of good omen cor-railed, and the home club beat him in Harkness in Great Form. Opposed to Henley was "Speck" Harkness, and "Speck" had something, for he made the Scale cat out of his hand except to the fifth inning, when they tailled the first run of the game on a lucky Texas leaguer by Johnson was hope to the same to be seen to b

Speck then settled down and in the remaining innings the Seals did not land the semblance of a base hit off the ex-Clevelander.

Clevelander.

Henley weakened also in this inning, for the Beavers tied up the score and should have won the game then and there. Overanxiety to kill the ball when the sacks were densely populated gave Henley a respite and sent the game in the extra-frame list.

Lindsay's Swing Falls.

Mickey La Longe, the first Beaver up, walked Harkness bunted to Henley, who made an inefectual attempt to get La Longe at second, and both Beavers were safe. Chet Chadbourns dumped a perfect bunt in front of the plate and beat it to first, which filled the bases with none out Bill Rodgers laced a fast one into center field, which counted La Longe, but Harkness was held at third.

Then Lindsay tried a swinging bunt, but the sphere took a perfect bop into

Then Lindsay tried a swinging bunt, but the sphere took a perfect hop into Tennant's hands and Harkness was forced at the plate. The sacks were still populated when Bill Rapps came up, but Henley proved too good for Bill, who sat down after three vain tries to annihilate the ball.

The game ended in a totally unex-pected manner. Rapps was the first Beaver up in the 11th, and Weaver winged him out at first. Ryan popped a fly to left field which Powell muffed ignominiously. Buddy then stole sec-ond and took third when Claude Herry's weird tons carried to center field.

Krueger hit a slow bounder to French, who was playing in for the bint. That worthy out loose with a decidedly worse tess than had been made by Berry, and Ryan scored, because the ball went to the grandstand instead of into Berry's init. This ended the final series, and the crowd which braved the threatening rain went home satisfied.

Tom Seaton will be on the bill for the Beavers this aftergrown, while San Francisco will depend on Frank Miller or Fanning. The latter is a new man and is highly appreciated by Danny Long, who picks him, next to Benny Henderson, as the best twirler in the

WITH the major league pennants cinched for Philadelphia and New York, the fanz can devote their entire attention to the Pacific Coast League race, which is far from being cinched for any club. The margin be-tween Vernen and Portland is so small that it keeps the fans on edge watch-ing the results of these games.

Happicus Hogan is said to have offered Charley Graham a handsome price for Patsy O'Rourke. After the way O'Rourke and his band behaved before Hap, that worthy and Eddie Maler ought to pension the Sacramento captain for life. Vernon took six out of seven games from Sacraments and will probably take a similar number from the tellenders this week.

Every time the Seals have visited Portland this season Pitcher Meikle, one of the best youngsters on the cinh has not been a member of the squad. He is always among the "stay at home" squad which reports to Danny Long each day the Seals are away. A visit from Meikle would not be any more startling to the Portland fans than would the coming of Long himself, for the Seal manager with his several additional jobs has not visited Purtland since he became secretary of the lessue. secretary of the league.

by Danny Long for indifferent playing, Shaw does not like the San-Francisco club and would be the happiest player on the Coast if he could get away from Long & Co. However, it is doubtful if Shaw played any more indifferently than the rest of the Seal aggregation, for that club shot the chutes in the most alarming fashion effect being beatan in five out of six after being beaten in five out of six games in Portland the last time it ap-peared here.

Charence Brooks, drafted from the Boise team of the Union Association, reported to Dillon at Los Angeles yesterday. Brooks is a Freeno lad and former teammate of Walter Kuhn. He is a fair catcher, and is krown in Port-land, for he played here in 1906 with Freeno, and in 1909 with Aberdeen and other Northwestern League teams.

Nearly all of last year's players are on hand and there is some good, new material to draw from, so a good account is expected when the aleven gets into action against other 145-pound teams. Practice has already commenced and the players are getting into their old-time shape again. A number of new plays are being experimented with and it is possible that a coach will be secured before the season is very far advanced. It is expected that the team will line up somewhat after the following manner: Montgomery, center; Smith and Barry, guards: C. Freeman and Harry Seller, tackles; Captain Roos and Moore, ends; White, quarier:

Carothers and F. Freeman, halves; ong, fullback.
Though it is somewhat early in the season. Manager White has already commenced the work of arranging a schedule of games and he promises to bring in some of the fastest independent teams in and around Portland. LEAGUE IS MONEY MAKER Union Association Pays, but Butte

Club Loses Heavily. BUTTE, Mont., Sept. 26 .- (Special.)-

BUTTE, Mont. Sept. 26.—(Special.)—According to figures given out here today, the Union Association took in more than $90.000 in the season just closed, a showing that it is asserted is hetter than that of the Northwestern League in 1910.

The league had a hard struggle, but went through its first year gamely and successfully. John J. McCloskey, manager of the Butte team, says he will stick with Butte next season and that he has confidence in the city for another year. McCloskey says that there will be sight teams in the league next season, with Ogden a certainty and another idaho town probable.
Sait Lake took in $25,000 during the season and Butte the lowest, about $3,600. Nearly every city in the league made money except Butte. Bad weather here right at the opening, continuing through most of the home games, together with a schedule that conflicted with the races, are given as reasons for the poor showing made by Butte financially.

Witting shows marked ability as a back, having former experience in this position with Chehalis High School of Washington. Boone also comes with training on the Kansas College team. The team will be at least ten pounds heavier this year, and under the coaching of Professor Harrington should develop into a winning team. The first game of the season will be played against Portland Academy here September 30.
