SEALS PUT UP HARD FIGHT

Seaton and Browning both Unfortunate in Errors, but Portland Flinger Comes Out on Top in Another 2-to-1 Battle.

BY W. J. PETRAIN. Both Frank Browning, who pitched for the Scala and Tom Scaton, who heaved for the Beavers, had bad luck In the seventh inning yesterday, but Browning's misfortune was more cost-ly than the mishaps to Scaton, so Port-land annexed the second game of the final home series. Again the score was

It was a great pitchers' battle be-tween these two twirlers, and errors were responsible for all the runs scored. Seaton, himself, fell down in fielding a couple of bunts. The Seals managed to get one run across on a squeeze play with the sacks loaded, as a result of miscuse by Lindsay and Scaton, while miscuss by Lindeay and Scaton, while Pertland collected two runs on a couple of lusty hits and a fantastic heave by French, the gingery little chap who is holding down third base for the visiting club. Incidentally, it might be mentioned that it was a wild heave by French which wound up the axira-inning game Tuesday.

First 14 Are Mowed Down.

Frank Browning pitched sensational hall for four innings, for he did not allow a hit and not a Beaver reached first. In fact, the first is Portland mon-to face the midget twirter eat down as

The Seals scored the first run in the opening half of the lucky seventh and fer a time it looked as if they were about to slaughter "Stlent Tom." In this inning the visitors filled up the sacks with no one out, which caused the indige to permeate the atmosphere in generous quantities.

Johnson was first up and he "hiked" on four bad ones. Naylor hit to Lindsay, who made a bad peg to second to get Johnson and both hands were safe. Tennsan dumped a bunt in front of the plate, and Seaton fumbled and then fell down, which populated the sacks.

Rapps then bunied down the third-base line, and French hurled yards high over Tennant's head, which let Lindsay score from first and sent Rapps to third. Buddy Ryan then came through with a pinch hit to right which tailled Happs with what proved to be the winning run. Buddy got around to third en the outs of Krueer and Peckinpaugh, but La Longe fanned and the side was retired.

Notes of the Game.

While the Senis registered more hits than the Heavers, two of the home grand's bingles counted in the run-getting.

Browning pitched great ball, but the luck of the game was dead against the little pitcher in the fatal serenth.

Artic Krueger was the first Beaver to dent the efferings of Browning. His hit came with two out in the fifth inning.

Caude Berry and Johnson pulled off the equeum play in neat manner in the seventh, when the latter accred the visitors' lone taily.

When that run was challed up, fleaton be-came savage and whiteled the ball over the pen so fast neither Browning nor Powell could see it. Both fanned upt. made a sent catch of the drive and Bill sat down.

The Scale threatened to do things in the third. Tennant singled and went to third on Berry's hit. Brewnings went out, advancing Berry, and when Foweil hit to Seanen, Tennant was hocked at the plate.

In this maing the Beavers caught Berry on delayed puss. Powell statical to steal with Berry on third, but Le Longe crossed the Beal catcher by tocaling to Beaton, who threw to Linday by tocaling to Beaton, who three to Linday brices berry could get hack to the bas.

Smilly Ryan and Artic Krueger had an easy time in the outfield, for neither of them had a chance. The only fly hall hatised beyond the infield fell into the walling heads of Chet Chadbeurne.

After French had singled in the first inning, the Redgers to Feckingaugh to kappe combination pulsed off a double hilling on Harry McArdie's grounder. The Powland infielders handled the ball speedily.

Schwenk was the victim of Portland's prowess in the third inning. Cooney started trouble for him by messing up Moore's grounder. Coltrin singled to left and Jensen hit to Cartwright, who threw wild to first, letting Moore home. Coltrin was forced at third on Mundorff's smash, but Mundorff perched on first, the bases being full as soon as Harris singled. Stovall beat out an infield roller, Jensen counting. Williams hot drive to left scored two more runs. Then Pettigrew walked, filling the bases again, and Mensor singled, scoring Stovall. High School Boys Short-Winded, Says Soccer Expert 660 UR boys in the local high schools are all short-winded." said C. are all short-winded," said Browne, who started soccer football in the schools of the city and who is now doing more than any other man to pro-doing more than any other man to promote interest in the game.

"It is no use to try to keep soccer out of the schools any more," said Mr. Browne. "We had a great deal of opposition last year when we proposed the game, but that was overcome and the sport now has a most generous and enthusiastic following in both the high schools and the grammar schools.

"The game offers much to the average student who is too light to compete against the heavy men on the regular football teams. The main qualities of the player are quickness of thought and action. Moreover the man must have wind. In England there are old men as well as boys who play soccer the full period of one and a half hours. In the first game played last year (Jefferson va. Portland Academy) we had to cut the time down from the regular hour and a half to one hour, because the men were out of wind. It puts the men in shape for track and other sports too. I hope to see the game in all the schools and universities of Oregon and will do all in my power to help start it."
