VILLA AVENUE SPUR COMPLETED.—The connecting line between the Portland Railway, Light & Power Company track on Villa avenue and the Mount Hood Railway & Power Company is completed between East Eightieth street and the depot of the Mount Hood Railway, and cars were operated over the branch yesterday. Cars on the Mountilla line will run alternately to the depot of the Mount Hood Railway Company and to the Base Line road. This connecting link will bring into Portland all the passenger travel on the Mount Hood Railway over the Mountwilla line until the company completes its line across Brandway bridge to the West Side, which will not be before a year at least. The new spur will furnish street-car facilities to a large district east of Montavilla.

New Paston Brons Hie Work.—

New Paston Brons His Work—Rev. J. H. Bennett, the new pastor of the First Methodist Church South, in Union avenue at Multnomah street, arrived Saturday night, and occupied the pulpit of that church yesterday morning and evening. In his opening measage at the morning sermon he said that he would preach the gospel plainly, without atempt to pleake by cratory or rhetorical phrases. Rev. Child Hears Burglars. — "Papa, there are burglars downstairs," called out the son of E. T. C. Stevens, 707 Hoyt street, just before daybreak yesterday. Heeding the boy's alarm, the father went down and made an inspection of the lower premises. He found everything apparently in order and returned to bed, cautioning the boy to be less imaginative in the future. Yesterday morning when the family arose, it was discovered the youngster's alarm had been well-founded. # A Public Question

There has been submitted by the Portland Railway, Light & Power Company to the City Council of Portland a franchise ordinance which, if passed, will grant to the Company a number of additional rights in the way of extensions, double-tracking, forming a loop on Stark Street, crossing the Broadway Bridge and the right to use the approaches to the new Steel bridge.

It also includes the surrender of the franchises held on parts of certain streets, amounting to 347 blocks in length, on which the Company has now the right to construct its tracks and where a duplication of service is involved.

Believing that the people should know the exact nature of every franchise granted by their representatives, the Company, has decided to enter into an explanation of this ordinance.

This will be done in a series of "Franchise Talks" in the advertising columns of the local daily newspapers. These talks will treat fully and frankly of the situation. There is nothing to conceal and no ulterior purpose to serve. It is an honest franchise and will be secured, if at all, in an honest manner.

That is one reason for these talks—they afford an opportunity, to present the facts to the people of Portland and are an open acknowledgment of the relationship that should exist between public utility companies and the communities they serve.

It is therefore urged that the public and the press consider the questions involved with open minds and treat the franchise proposition as dispassionately as if it affected only their personal in-

It is a business proposition, pure and simple, and should not be made a political one.

It is just as well that that fact be established at the outset, for it is not impossible that sooner or later some one will seek to drag the question into politics.
