

WEST'S POLITICAL ASPIRATION DIES

Governor Will Have Had Enough of Politics by Time Term Ends, He Says.

CRITICISM OF NO EFFECT

Only Hope of Oregon's Executive Is to Accomplish Certain Pet Ideas and Then He Will "Quit Politics for Good."

SALEM, Or., Oct. 4.—(Special.)—According to my present intention I am not a candidate for re-election and will not be one nor am I a candidate for any office. When I am through here I hope to be able to put on my hat and walk out and be through with politics forever.

So declared Governor West today during the course of a conversation in his office.

"I have certain plans brooked out which I hope to bring to a conclusion. There are a number of reforms which I have in view and these I believe essential to the best welfare of the state. My hope is to see these plans and reforms carried out and placed on a basis where they will be of value to the commonwealth. If I can bring these in their desired culmination I will have no further aspiration for this office or for any other political honor.

Only One Cause Would Alter Mind. "There is only one other reason why I might become a candidate for re-election and that will be long continued abuse. I might be compelled to take up the fight for that reason. I have every hope that I can accomplish what I have set out to accomplish during the present administration so that I can quit politics for good. I have a number of plans and reforms in view which are still in my head and which will not be made public until the time comes. These are all a part of a programme which I have mapped out for myself and which they are completed then I am through."

The Governor declares that he pays no attention to criticism that is directed at him and that he intends to continue along the lines which he has laid out for himself and that his personal policy will be carried through regardless of what is said concerning it or him.

The only care that I have for the criticism that is being directed at my personal policy is because it is hampering work which I know is right and which I know will win in the long run. I don't care what happens, or what is said concerning either my policy or myself. I am going to stick with it and I hope, by the end of this term, to be able to show that it is right so that no other policy will ever be pursued in this state. It is an improvement on mine from a humanitarian standpoint."

Toga Aspiration Denied. The Governor was emphatic in declaring that he has no desire for further political honors and that he is satisfied with the amount of work which has been saddled onto him and which he has saddled onto himself, in the start of his first four years.

He repudiated the assertions that he has any ambition to be United States Senator.

"I am not fitted for a position where I would be compelled to wear a plug hat and pass my time playing poker," he said.

HOBOS' JOY SHORTLIVED

Eugene Lockup Holds Quartet Who Get Away With Canned Meat.

EUGENE, Or., Oct. 4.—(Special.)—A 28-pound box of canned meat, but containing four pump and well-fed hobos that did not appear on the bill of lading, a carefully locked and sealed car of groceries was pushed into the Eugene yards to be unloaded yesterday. When asked to explain the shortage of the one item and the over-shipment of the other, the "hobos" merely smiled ruminatively and picked their teeth. They were lodged in jail pending explanation.

It developed later that the station agent at Junction City had seen them break into the car, and had locked them in from the outside. The car with its mixed shipment reached Eugene some time ahead of the explanation from Junction City.

The total cost of the improvements will be $75,000.

The company has been collecting material at Eugene, Cottage Grove, Albany and Roseburg for the past six weeks, and work will be rushed in the hope of completing the improvement work before the winter rains begin. Fifteen men are working out from Eugene, and a larger crew from Cottage Grove.

VALLEY EXHIBIT OFF SOON

Special Train Will Hurry Willamette Display to Omaha Show.

EUGENE, Or., Oct. 4.—(Special.)—More than one and a half tons of the finest exhibits that have ever been sent out of Eugene and Lane County for any display and advertising campaign was freighted through the local offices of the Southern Pacific yesterday, en route to Albany to be consigned to the Willamette Valley exhibit at the Omaha Land Show. This will be added to a carload of exhibits will go from Lane County.

The exhibit will be made up from Lane, Marion, Linn and Benton Counties. The material is being assembled at Albany, where it will be packed in a baggage car, under the supervision of W. E. Groves, of Corvallis. Fearing that on account of strike conditions there is a possibility of express and refrigerator car shipments being held up, the exhibit will be rushed through in advance by the Chicago-Portland special, leaving Portland Saturday. Mr. Groves will accompany the exhibit and will superintend its display at Omaha.

LETTERS HURT HILLMAN

MOST SERIOUS CHARGE OF CALUMNY TO BE MET NOW.

Charge of Contempt of Very Court Before Which Appeal Now Stands May Face Seattle Millionaire.

SEATTLE, Wash., Oct. 4.—(Special.)—With the return of United States District Attorney Elmer E. Todd tonight from San Francisco, Clarence D. Hillman, whose appeal from the decision of a federal jury in this city, finding him guilty of fraudulent use of the United States mails, is now under consideration by the Circuit Court of Appeal, will be confronted with the most serious charge of his career, that of calumny by the Government. It became evident that the Government will charge that Hillman was the instigator or in some way was connected with a flood of letters which poured in upon the Court of Appeals while the case was before that body in Portland.

At the conclusion of the hearing Judge William B. Gilchrist turned over to District Attorney Todd the letters and instructed him to investigate them and find who was responsible. The Judge declared that they had been sent by the court during the sitting in Portland. All of them are strongly favorable to Hillman.

"It's all an effort to prejudice the jury," said Hillman to-night, "got up by Todd, you understand. Why, the deputies came and seized my typewriter today. I never pounded out a letter on a typewriter in my life. I can't help what my friends might do."

TACOMA LEVY LOWER

TAX RATE THIS YEAR WILL BE $0.85 MILLS.

TACOMA, Wash., Oct. 4.—(Special.)—The rate of tax levy in Tacoma this year will be 85 cents as against 12 1/2 mills last year, the lowest rate of levy the people have had since 1899, when it was 27.19 mills. In 1905 the rate was 12 1/2 mills. It is also the first time in 15 years when the levy has been reduced in a year when there was no increased real estate valuation. Real estate valuation for tax assessment purposes are made biennially, the next to be in 1912.

The total levy of 85 cents provides for state, county, city, school and park board taxes. The county levy this year is 3.75 mills, under which rate residents of Tacoma will pay $98,427 for the county's expenses. The county levy last year was 5.30 mills. The state levy has been fixed this year at 4.52 mills as against 7.7 mills last year. Under the rate fixed for 1911 residents of Tacoma will contribute $214,757 toward paying the expenses of maintaining the state government.

For city school purposes the levy for 1911 has been made 4.15 mills, one mill less than for 1910, and under the rate for 1911 the people will pay for school purposes $22,592, added to which, of course, comes the state apportionment to aid in maintaining the public schools. The City Park Board levy for 1911 is 1.275 mills as against 1.5 mills last year, giving $38,494 for park maintenance.

FARRELL GOES; O'BRIEN TO STAY

New President of O.-W. R. & N. Prepares to Make Headquarters in Portland.

FURTHER CHANGES LIKELY

Report Current in Railroad Circles That Shakeup in Harriman System Not Entirely Passed. Plans Not Made Public.

SEATTLE, Wash., Oct. 4.—(Special.)—J. D. Farrell, president of the O.-W. R. & N., returned today from New York where he attended the conference of the heads of the Harriman system, which resulted in the shake-up of last week.

Mr. Farrell is preparing to remove his offices to Portland as soon as he can clear away the grist of business that accumulated while he was in the East. He said that no announcements would be made regarding the company's plans to appoint his successor in this city until he had held a conference with Vice-Presidents J. B. O'Brien, of Portland, and Robert Strahorn, of Spokane.

It is current report in railroad circles that the recent shake-up on the Harriman system is only tentative and that further changes, probably of a more radical nature, are contemplated.

Seattle Changes Wait. The Seattle offices may not be reorganized for several weeks and it will be some time before Oregon-Washington executive to continue as strong a representation of the Harriman lines in Seattle as possible under the new Harriman management.

Railroad gossip has predicted that O'Brien will be reappointed vice-president and general manager with headquarters in Portland with jurisdiction over operating and maintenance and that R. B. Miller will be traffic manager for the Harriman system in the Northwest with headquarters in Portland. If this is to be Mr. Farrell's policy he will not make the official announcement until he has conferred with the two officials.

Mr. Farrell today confirmed the prediction made by railroad men that while the operating, engineering and auditing departments would be centralized at Portland and probably the representations here would not be as strong as in the past the traffic department will be as well centralized in Seattle as any other railroad here.

At present the Southern Pacific lines in Oregon are managed by the Oregon-Washington through Vice-President J. C. O'Brien. Temporarily, at least, this arrangement will be continued, but the lines do not properly fall under President Farrell's jurisdiction, and when the complete reorganization of the lines is formed San Francisco offices will take over the Oregon property. This will include the branch line projected to Coos Bay and the road building toward from Klamath Falls to a juncture with the Oregon-Washington at Bend.

Mr. Farrell did not return to Seattle in time to attend the ceremonies at Bend tomorrow on the completion of Hill and Harriman systems to that Central Oregon point. As Vice-President Farrell could not leave Portland, Mr. Farrell directed R. B. Miller to represent the Harriman interests, and he took with him a big traffic delegation.

"The reorganization of the Harriman lines recognizes the Southern Pacific and Union Pacific groups," said Mr. Farrell. "We are a part of the Union Pacific group with an independent organization because of our extensive advantages, will have headquarters in Portland, just as did the old O. R. & N."

Lovett Keeps Heads With Him. "Under the new plan the headquarters of the Harriman system will be maintained in New York. Judge Lovett will have with him the heads of operation and maintenance and the traffic departments.

In the Chicago offices will be left an assistant director of maintenance and operation, an assistant traffic director, a traffic attorney, and the superintendent of mail service. Chicago is the natural railroad center, and the system will be strongly represented there, while Mr. Lovett, New York, is able to strengthen his Eastern executive offices by taking both Mr. Kruttschnitt and Mr. Spence to the East.

The remaining part of the plan, the organization is thus outlined in the press dispatches. It provides for the independent organization of each line with only the executive officers reporting to New York.

Paving Man and Friend Released Under Guard.

Cases of Alleged Bribery Attempt on Klamath Falls Mayor and Councilmen Grow With Filing of Informations.

BAIL FIXED AT $9000 EACH

KLAMATH FALLS, Or., Oct. 4.—(Special.)—Samuel A. McMahon, representing the Rudolph Biome Paving Company, Chicago, makers of granitoid pavement, and James Hughes, late of Portland, formerly of this city and Eugene, who were arrested last night, charged with attempted bribery of Mayor Fred T. Sanderson, passed the night in jail and today informations, made by the Mayor against each, were followed by similar informations made by Councilmen R. A. Alford and Marlon Hanks.

This makes each man facing three charges of alleged attempt to bribe a judicial officer. Justice of the Peace Charles Graves started a preliminary hearing Tuesday afternoon and put the case over until tomorrow before much of the evidence had been taken. Mayor Sanderson testified that McMahon offered, in the presence of Alford and Hanks, in the store of the last named, $1000, to be divided, half to the Mayor and a quarter each to the two Councilmen, suggesting that the Mayor might have to give $100 to one of the Councilmen whom it might be necessary to induce by paying to come over to granitoid, which the manufacturers were trying to get used on the streets here.

to the informations, Hughes made offers to bribe each of the two September 18, while McMahon's alleged offense was October 2. Both men pleaded not guilty and their bail was set at $3000 on each count, or $9000 each. They failed to furnish bonds, but through the influence of C. M. O'Neill, their attorney, and Julian Kendrick, said to be California agent of granitoid, Sheriff Barnes granted a request of the men to be out of jail under the special guard of J. D. Carroll and his son, whom defendants must pay at the rate of $2 per day each.

SHERIDAN MEN ARRESTED

Alleged "Bootleggers" to Be Tried at March Term of Court.

SHERIDAN, Or., Oct. 4.—(Special.)—Victor Gross and James Woods, of this city, have been arrested for alleged "bootlegging." It is alleged that they have carried on the illegal practice for more than a year. The arrests of the two men were caused by two Sheridan carpenters who assert they bought booze of Woods and Gross. The two men have found bondsmen and they will be bound over until the March term of the Circuit Court.

"Bootlegging" in Sheridan has ever been a much mooted topic since the town went "dry" three years ago. It is a current joke around town that every "bootlegger" may be "spotted" by the sag of his coat pockets. No arrests have been made for "bootlegging" in Sheridan for more than two years.
