BEAVERS ARE FAVORITES

Even Los Angeles Fans Are Inclined to Believe That McCredie's Men Will Beat Happy Hogans to Pennant.

BY JACK BARRY. Unitity Player of Purtland. LOS ANGELES, Oct. 5.—(Special.)-

LOS ANGELLES, Oct. 5.—(Special.)—
My message to the readers of The Oregonian tonight is a jayful one. The Beavers again trounced Happy Hogan's troups by the score of six is three in the second act of the greatest baseball drama ever produced by the Pacific Coast League.

The game itself was better played than on Wednesday and, while the crowd was a large one, it was not as great as on the previous day. But what the crowd lacked in numbers it made up in enthusiasm, which is saying much. This old town is certainly swake, and the noise that was made by the megaphones and horns could be heard for miles around.

Ben Henderson was removed from the pitching mound in the fourth inning because of his wildness, and Bill Steen substituted. Pans of Portland, I want to say here that Bill Steen witched one of the heat rames of his want to say here that Bill Steen pitched one of the best games of his career. He showed the gameness under first that marks the good pitcher. His control was perfect. His "spitter" worked well and his fast hall broke wo quickly that Hogan and his cohorts were lucky to get one hit from his delivery. To Bill Steen must be given much of the honor and glory of plac-ing the Beavers nearer to the flag.

Gipe Replaces Carson. "Soldier" Carson, for Vernon, pitched good article of ball, but when, with two anxious Beavers on the bases, Mickey LaLonge stung one to the center in the eighth inning, scoring two runs, the soldier boy was unnerved. He realized that he had lost another game. Vernon then substituted Gipe, but the damage had already been done but the damage had already seen able— -the game had been placed on the credit side of the Beaver ledger. Every member of the Portland club must be given credit for the victory, for they fought tooth and nail. It must for they fought tooth and nail. It must be admitted by even the most radical fans here in Los Angeles that they showed the gameness which every win-ning club must possess. No club ever reached the top of the ladder that was not game to the core. While the Ti-gers have been whipped and wounded, they have not given up and insist that their sharp clays will yet mangle the

their sharp coage Beavers.

Happy Hogan, who is a very popular man in these parts, played a good game himself and fought every inch of the way. His batting drove in a couple of runs, but his throwing to bases aided the Beavers in scoring on Around its hatel lobbies it is said that much betting prevails with odds of 19 to 8 on the Beavers winning the championship. But Hap, Hogan still insists that he will win, for he says that he has the best hitting club that ever represented the Coast League. He seems to be a bit dismayed over the loss of the first two games, but says that it was purely a matter of luck. Just a word about Buddy Ryan. Every time the popular Beaver came to bat he hit the hall squarely on the nose, but most of the time the ball. Portland Is Pavorite. nose, but most of the time the ball went straight at a fielder. On one trip to the plate he shook hands with went straight at a fielder. On one trip to the plate he shook hands with Hogan and said: "Happy, I congratu-late you; any time a manager with a bunch like you have can finish second he deserves to be congratulated." Hogan answered: "Yes, old boy, when the curtain falls on this race you will find 'Hap' and his boys on the top of the heap."

the heap."
"Quit your kiddin'; you haven't a chance," repiled Bud.
It was evident that the crowd numbered about 10,000.
Manager McCredie's selection for tomorrow will probably be Harkness, while "Hap" plans to use Stewart.

TIGERS FOOD FOR CHAMPS

(Continued Press First Page.) had fanned Patterson and then folowed this by passing Brashear and Stinson, McCredie wafted Benny to the bench and substituted Steen. "Big Six" got by this inning all right, but in the fourth he gave the Villagers a min without allowing a hit. Two men were out when Carlisle biked and atole second. Steen fielded a grounder by Ross, but made a wild heave to Rappe, and Carlisle scored.

In the sixth Burrell epened with a single and Hap Hogan popped an in-significant fly just back of Rodgers. Ryen and Krueger both ran to field it, but the ball fell safe. Carson fanned, but Carlisle tallied Burrell with a squeeze bunt along the first base line. That was all for Vernon, as Steen settled down and pitched great ball to the end. He fanned the basi-hitting Patterson twice pinch. This seemed to take all the life out of Hogan's team.

Chadbourne Draws Pass. The first Portland run came in the fourth, when Chadbourne opened by walking and was the first Beaver to reach first base in the game. Bill Bodgers, then slammed one to deep cenfer field for two sacks, and Chadbourne tallied easily before the ball could be relayed back

With one man out in the fifth, Peckinpaugh tallied unaided by his teammates. Peckinpaugh singled and stole second and third in succession and scored when Carson contributed a wild pitch against the grandstand.

pitch against the grandstand.

Byddy Ryan opened the sevebth with a cocking double to right field. Krueger falled to do better than to fly to Carlisle, but Peckinpaugh walked and Mickey La Longe proved the salvation of the team by lacing to center. Carlisle missed the bad hop the ball took, which allowed Mickey to take third and both Ryan and "Peck" to score.

Hisgles by Rodgers, Lindsay and Rapps brought another Portland run in the eighth, while in the ninth Peckinpaugh doubled off Gipe, who relieved Carson, and scored when Bill Steen ripped a single past Burrell. The victory was a decisive one, and all of the Beavers are now confident that they will take the series handly.

As a result of their success here, arrangements are being made for a postseason series between the Portland and Gakland teams, to be played in San Francisco the week following the closing of the season. Temmy Sheehan is handling the details for the Beavers, and Tyter Christian is looking after the Oakland end of the games.

McCredle today put a uniform on "Shoes" Pfirrmann, a ciever Los Angeles lad, who will act as relief catcher for the team until the Beaver leader can get a man here to help out La Longe. He said that it would require a week for that player to get here, but intimated that he would have Harris or Moore, of Nick Williams' Northwestern team, here before the end of the week.

Van Haltren and Hildsbrand are umpiring great ball this series. They have been absolutely fair in all their rulings in the two hard-fought games so far played. With the umpires giving them a square deal, the Beavers are full of confidence and enthuslasm.

"Speck" Harkness will probably pitch for Portland tomorrow, but Happy Hogan says he don't know which of his pitchers he will use, though it will likely be either Raleigh or Brackenridge.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 5.—With a badly disarranged line-up, the Scals went down to defeat before the Caks today, 5 to 2. Moskiman, who opened the game for San Francisco, was hit hard in the third inning and was supplanted by Meikle. Catcher Schmidt injured his leg and was forced to leave the game, Carman taking his place and Moskiman going to first base. Zacher and Weaver knocked out home runs. GUARANTEED TAILORING

One month ago we made our opening bow to the public. We told them in a straightforward way what our policy would be and what they might expect. To make every representation good we incorporated our firm under the State laws of Oregon so that the public would have the guarantee of a responsible corporation back of every statement made in our advertising and by our salesmen. .

The Result Was Astounding

We sold more suits and overcoats during our opening week than we expected to sell during the Fall season. It simply goes to show that the people of Portland know what high grade tailoring really is and appreciate the opportunity of being able to get it at prices anyone can afford to pay. We have been working our shop night and day since our opening, so as to turn out all work as promised and not disappoint a single customer. To do this it was necessary to enlarge our workshop and engage much more help than we originally intended to employ. Now to keep all of these tailors busy we will take 100 more orders at
