

In a time company a commany a not greatly exaggerated. In former strikes there were numer-ous instances of describins from the union ranks, but this time virtually the entire membership of the five organiza-

"Many of the mon want to come back, but they are afraid of the taunts of their comrades," said an official yesterday

"Why, my children would have to be ashamed to go to school." said an aged man on picket duty at the Albina shops yesterday, "were I to go back to work. While I have no intention of graze it would bring to my family. I have a wife and four children. We are only fairly well provided for, but none of them would want me to become a strikebreaker merely for the sake of providing better. Th take my chances with the others." Why, my children would have to providing better. Til take my chances with the others." Ficket duty is becoming somewhat monotonous to some of the men. Phote has been no excitement and no trouble of ans kind. Efforts have been made to dissuade mes from going into the shaps, and in several instances they have been successful. While police-mes are on duty, their services have not been required. The men on picket duty have laid one complaint before the advisory board. They don't get the baseball scores ueday some of the pickets did not hear the final results until long after the game at Los Angeles was over. They made vigorous protest. From now on game at Los Angeles was over. They made vigorous protest. From now on they'll get the score after every in-Hughes. Interment will be made in Friday is Portland Rotary Club day, and Vancouver Commercial Club day.

There will be a tug of war, four teams to enter. There will be a free-for-all mule race, a stock parade, and a wo-man's riding contest. Saturday will be Portland Commercial Club day, and a stock parade.

MRS. H. M. LILLIS DIES Mother of Four Is Called Ten Months After Husband's Death.

Mrs. Hanorah Mary Lillis, widow of Michael Lillis, died last night at the family residence at 611 Fifth street. Her husband died December 21. Mrs. Lillis' funeral will be held at 2:30 widock temorrow morning, and the Mount Calvary Cemetery.

"Every time you make a transfer while a place is in bad odor with the police department," said Mr. Daly, "you evade this provision of the ordi-

Acting Chief Slover was asked whether there have been any infrac-tions of the law at 246 Flanders street.

tions of the law at 246 Finnders street. He did not remember any convictions. "It is a good deal like a sore," he said. "You have to watch it all the time. There are women upstairs. The fact that the upstairs is connected by a burner with the saloon below is evi-dence there is something wrong. We may be morally certain of a thing and yet have a hard time getting a convic-tion."

Councilman Menefee was not present.

and the six committeemen tied on the question of granting the transfer and then deferred action. E. A. James, who obtained the license of Gallet & Deneaux to the saloon at the northeast corner of Second and Everett streets, said he conducted a sa-loon for nine years at Rainier and was ever in trouble. Five Transfers Granted.

It was decided to recommend indefinite postponement of the revocation of D. A. Barrett's license to the Richelle d indet

D. A. Barrett's license to the Richelleu maloon at 25 North Sixth street. He said he had no connection with the Richelleu rooming-house above the sa-loon. Chief Slover said this place had been a source of trouble ever since it has been in operation. Barrett formerly conducted the Old Mill saloon at Sev-enth and Flanders streets. Captain Balley said that when Barrett had the Old Mill, and while "Bob" Patterson hung around, there was always trouble, but that after Patterson left the trouble ceased.

SCOTT LEAVES FOR LYMAN PAVING REVIEW GRANTED Trial of Accused Physician Will Be East Twenty-first Street Owners

Held in San Francisco.

The left is san Prancised. Dr. John G. Lyman, of California, while is wanted for the alleged misuse of the Government mails, is to be brought to Portland from Klamath Falls, where he was arrested recently while proceeding toward the Canadian border line after escaping from a hos-pital in California. Unlied States Mar-sial Scott left yesterday for Klamath Falls to bring Lyman to Exritand as some as the necessary legal proceedings. an be tramaarte. Stats,000 IS THIRD WIFE'S Judge in Deciding for Widow Sympathizes With Heirs.

Winter Schedule Str. Harvest Queen.

In giving his decision in favor of Johanna Deckenbach against the heirs of the late Jacob Deckenbach at the close of a long suit by the heirs to recover properties on the East Side, valued at $125,00%, Circuit Jodge Mor-row declared that while the legal Discharged two weeks ago by the Mayor and the Executive Board on charges of conduct unbecoming an of-ficer, brought by Chief Slover, H. E. Parker has begun legal proceedings to have himself reinstated on the police force.

have himself reinstated on the pollce force. Attorneys Jeffrey and Lennon filed a mandamus suft in the Circuit Court of the discharged pollceman, on the ground that his dismissal from the service is illegal. The writ is return-able at 9:30 o'clock this morning. Parker bases his claims on a tech-city Charter providing that an accused policeman shall have a hearing within 50 days after his suspension on charges preferred by the Chief of Police. Parker asserts that the charge was made by Chief Slover, August 16, but that he received no hearing before the Executive Board until September 18, after more than 30 days had elapsed, and that the proceedings of the Board whard hat the having been offensive to two young girls on the street.

Dallas Tag Day Nets $600.

DALLAS, Or., Oct. 5 .- Tag day was eld here Saturday for the benefit of lins, Guitars, Music, Etc.

By order of court, the assignee must push the sale of the Perry C. Graves Company stock in order to liquidate at once. He is, therefore, making prices never before known on musical goods of all kinds.

Planos from $130 up. Schillers, Woosters, Kranich & Bach, Baus, H. P. Nelson, Weber and others

Record cubinets at half price. Talking Machines, regular $200 kinds, $150; $40, now $30, Investigate our talking machine record prices. Come early in order to get a choice selec-

Washburn Guitars, regular $25 instruments, now $16.50. Regular $15 instruments, now at $10. Cornets, regular $60, now $10. Violins from $2 up.

Sheet Music, 20 copies for $1. So per copy. All other goods in like proportion, except Edison

Remember the address.

Receiver of Perry C. Graves Company 413 Washington St.

"A GOOD PLACE TO EAT"

Webber's String Orchestra in Afternoon and Evening Concerts Daily Except Sunday, Beginning Saturday, October Seven

Afternoons 3:30 to 5:30 Evenings 9:15 to 11:15

Visit Our Candy Kitchen in Our New Extension Now Open

THE HAZELWOOD

388-90 Washington Street Phones Main 798, A 4553

Fight Hassam Assessment.

The annual meeting of the Audubon Society will be held in the chapel of the Unitarian Church, Seventh and Yamhili streets, at 8 o'clock tonight. The principal work of the meeting will be to elect officers and devise methods for the better projection of white herons, which are aimost extinct, and of the arehe which are discovering of the grebe, which are disappearing ceased. The following licenses were trans-ferred: Kesovich & Skondras, 25 North Second street, to James Sourapas, Descamp & Marc, 214 First street, to M. Goldberg: P. L. Koehler, 510 Wil-liams avenue, to Charles H. Donovani T. P. O'Connor, 34 North Third street, to J. A. Tilley, J. L. De Bervolse, of 33 North Park street, was granted a wholesale license. AUDUBON SOCIETY TO MEET Officers Will Be Elected and Bird Protection Devised.