

PURE FOOD BOARD'S POWERS ENLARGED

Dr. Wiley Personally Selects Veteran Chemist to Act in McCabe's Place.

BRAKE PUT ON SOLICITOR

Decision Whether There Shall Be Prosecution to Be Made by Chemists—Other Changes in Department Predicted.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 5.—Headed and controlled by Dr. Wiley, the Chemistry Bureau chief, the pure food and drug board of the Department of Agriculture hereafter will have augmented authority. A clever view of Dr. Wiley's enlarged powers has developed. Dr. H. E. Doolittle, of New York, a veteran chemist, named to succeed Solicitor McCabe on the board, was personally selected by Dr. Wiley. The two will act as a working majority, the only other member being Dr. F. L. Dunlap, who will be on a vacation until after the President's return. Dr. Doolittle has been head of the New York branch of the Chemistry Bureau. The official order of Secretary Wilson, issued today, transferred to the food and drug board many of the powers that have been exercised by Solicitor McCabe since July 1, 1910. It gives the board authority to determine what cases shall be prosecuted, but Secretary Wilson will exercise the right of approval or disapproval. More changes with a view to reorganizing the department in the light of the facts brought out in the investigation and the comment in the President's decision are predicted. The Secretary's order directly affects the power of Solicitor McCabe, who during the past year has determined whether citations should issue, after the Bureau of Chemistry had recommended a prosecution. The new order further provides that after a hearing has been held the board of food and drug inspection shall determine whether there shall be a prosecution. The power of the solicitor is apparently restricted to the preparation and transmittal to the Department of Justice of such cases for prosecution.

BIBLES SHOWER PRISONER

Ex-Crown Who Stole Holy Writ in Jail, Reaches Outside Hearts.

Since Charles Reiff, better known as "Dutch," ex-circus clown and now chief warden at the City Jail, stole a Bible from a fellow-prisoner Tuesday and was not detected until he was found reading it two hours after search was instituted, he is destined to be the recipient of a whole shower of Bibles. A heavily-veiled woman, visiting the City Jail yesterday and presented him with a Bible, besides giving him a talk and assuring him of a job away from Burasid-street, where she resides. A beautiful woman, who is secretary of the Young Men's Christian Association, became interested in the story of the Bible in the police station, and yesterday sent "Dutch" a handsome copy of the scriptures with a letter of commendation, not for the theft of a Bible, but for his intense desire to read it. Wonnacott will also look after "Dutch" when his sentence expires and not him a job away from the environments and temptations that have been responsible for the clown's downfall. "Dutch" has now spent six days in the City Jail and has been chief trusty most of the time. His sentence will expire November 7.

BANK EXAMINER INVOLVED

New Charge of Embezzlement Placed in Wallace, Idaho, Case.

WALLACE, Idaho, Oct. 5.—Late tonight information was given out that one of the indictments returned by the grand jury in connection with the State Bank of Commerce case was for W. O. Pierce, Assistant State Bank Examiner, who was made first receiver of the institution by an order of the district court a few days after the bank closed its doors on May 12. The charge against Pierce is embezzlement of $1200 of the bank's funds while he was acting as receiver. It is learned that the money was refunded, but that the checks on two different banks tendered by Pierce in payment, were protested and that he made the shortage good only when threatened with arrest by an agent of his bonding company. Patrick H. Wall, prominently connected with the Lane Lumber Company, to which it is said, $197,000 of the bank's funds were sent, was brought to the city tonight by a Deputy Sheriff, following his arrest on a bench warrant charging him with giving a check in the sum of $100 in payment on a debt upon a bank in which he did not have sufficient funds of credit for the payment of the same. His bond, which fixed at $2500, has not yet been given.

RICH LUMBERMAN IS HURT

S. D. Johnson, of San Francisco, Crushed in Smashup Near Bend.

BEND, Or., Oct. 5.—(Special).—S. O. Johnson, a wealthy lumberman of San Francisco, Mr. and Mrs. John E. Ryan, of Bend, Miss Fay Baldwin, of Prineville, and the driver, Jack Dona, narrowly escaped death in an automobile smash-up today at Cline Falls. The party was going 30 miles an hour when the steering-gear broke and the car ran into a juniper tree and was overturned. Johnson was crushed under the automobile and badly bruised and the machine was completely wrecked. Johnson is here to attend the railroad celebration and was out looking at timber holdings when the accident occurred.

BEND SEES FIRST TRAIN

Cheering Populace Greets Advent of Iron Horse.

BEND, Or., Oct. 5.—(Special).—The first train over the Oregon Trunk line arrived in Bend at 11:45 P. M. last night, and was welcomed by the cheering populace of this city. The train carried three coaches with several hundred passengers who came to attend the spike-driving ceremonies tomorrow, and to honor James J. Hill and to hear the addresses of the other Hill and Harriman officials who will be present to celebrate the completion of the joint line. The first train was personally conducted by Superintendent J. P. Rogers, who supervised the construction of the last 25 miles of the line. The Portland business men's party arrived this afternoon from Burns, and many prominent men from Central Oregon are here to attend the festivities of tomorrow and Friday.

At 12:30 this morning Bend, Or., had telegraph communication with Portland for the first time. At that hour the first message ever sent out of Bend was dispatched by A. J. Broderick, an "old-time" telegraph operator, and was received by Charles E. Stone, in charge of the Western Union operators in the Oregonian office. Broderick has been following up the telegraph construction lines into Central Oregon, and the dispatch from Bend, appearing above, is the first message he has sent outside of construction work for many years.

Despite this handicap, the "story" came in clear rippling Morse. Mr. Stone, the receiving telegrapher, is a veteran of the telegraph company's veteran employes.

PHONE SYSTEM SOLD

NORTHWESTERN TAKES OVER WOODBURN PROPERTY.

Second Deal, Including Seven Valley Towns, Is Important—Changes Made in Officials.

WOODBURN, Or., Oct. 5.—(Special).—The Northwestern Long-Distance Telephone Company closed a deal here today whereby it immediately takes over the local telephone system which has been owned and operated by Henry Chappelle, of this city. A second deal of importance was made with the United Telephone Company, which owns and operates an extensive system including Canby, Aurora, Hubbard, Macleburg, Newby, Gervais and St. Paul in addition to an up-to-date system in this city. William H. Waterbury, secretary of the United Telephone Company, handled in his resignation and transferred all his holdings which give control of the company to the purchasers, C. H. Judson, general manager, and A. E. Boyles, superintendent of the Northwestern company stated tonight that their company would not take over the direct management of the system at this time and that the company had simply advanced sufficient funds to relieve a cramped financial condition of the local company and to protect their interests at all of the points mentioned above. In view of the fact that the Northwestern company has recently purchased the Granger Telephone Company at Kelso, Wash., the deal closed today are thought to be significant of a general scheme of the company to acquire by absorbing smaller companies along its lines. James F. Hixson, special representative of the Northwestern company, has been placed in charge of the Chappelle system.

WALLA WALLA AROUSED

REPUBLICANS OBJECT TO DEMOCRAT GETTING HONOR.

In Oscar Drumheller's Auto President Taft Will Ride and Party Men Take Up Fight in Criticism.

WALLA WALLA, Wash., Oct. 5.—(Special).—Republicans of this city are asserting some one has been "inside" on the arrangement of the Taft program, for Oscar Drumheller, the man in whose auto the President is to ride, is a Democrat.

Official circles of the dominant party have made no claim and cannot gracefully for the Commercial Club, a non-partisan organization, had entire charge of the arrangements. But in unofficial quarters there is severe criticism because a Democrat is to be accorded this honor when there are any number of Republicans who are willing to receive the pleasure. In fact one man has withdrawn his car from the parade because he is not to be thus honored.

The troubles of the entertainers do not end here, however, for women are on the trail. The speaking is to be in City Park and the women's Club aided in securing the park. They have not been invited to join the parade. Eloise S. Isaacs has resigned from the Park Commission. The club will not go on record but members acknowledge the slight.

The G. A. R. and Indian War Veterans also had a chip on their shoulder but giving these seats in front of the grandstand near the President quieted this trouble. The President will be here Saturday morning for two hours.

MARC KLAW IS HERE

Theatrical Magnate Tells of Early Season's Successes.

GOOD PLAYS COMING WEST

Manager Says That It Is Intention to Try to Send Popular New York Shows Now Running Here in Spring.

Manager Says That It Is Intention to Try to Send Popular New York Shows Now Running Here in Spring. Marc Klaw, of Klaw & Erlanger, arrived in Portland Wednesday night and is today the guest of Calvin Hellig, of the Heilig Theater. He is on his way to Los Angeles, where recently he obtained a lease on the Mason Opera-house, and he is in Portland to return the visit of Mr. Hellig, who was his guest in Seattle, Wash., last week at the opening of the new Metropolitan Theater. Mr. Klaw is traveling with his son, Alonzo, a landscape artist. Mr. Klaw insisted that there was absolutely nothing in the way of a business move back of his present trip to Portland.

"While we were in earnest when I was here last year, in our intention to build, if necessary," he said, "of the arrangements we have in Portland at present are entirely satisfactory and the necessity does not arise. We shall continue to book our attractions through Mr. Hellig."

Mr. Klaw will return to the East direct from Los Angeles, but says that he hopes to return to Portland within a few months.

"Our interests are growing on the Pacific Coast," he said, "until I shall have many more opportunities for frequent visits to the cities of the Northwest than I have had heretofore."

While Mr. Klaw was not prepared to give exact information of the nature of the attractions that will be booked for the West in the near future, his remarks indicated an intention on the part of his company to improve greatly the service to the Pacific Coast States.

"Portland is pretty well booked for the winter season," he said, "but it is our intention to make an effort next Spring to send to this city some of the plays that are making the biggest successes on the New York stage now. This means, of course, that the chief cities of the Coast will be given the advantage of getting these attractions fresh from New York in the same season that they have been put on and have made their initial success."

"I am not in a position to speak for the managers who have not been associated with us, since they have not yet put forth the most important of their intended productions, but for ourselves, I can say that the successes in the East have been greater than in the first month of any season within my recollection. New York is the road factory for the country, and accordingly I look upon this season as an extraordinarily successful one, not for New York alone, but for the entire country. Outlook in London also are exceptionally bright."

Mr. Klaw, speaking of the situation against the starting system in the East, said that the drama as a whole would undoubtedly be the better off without any stars.

"But we Americans are the worst hero worshippers in the world," he said. "Along Broadway they don't say, 'What is playing at such-and-such a theater' but 'Who is playing there.'"

The Klaw & Erlanger Company has made no moves to raise its rates above the $2 scale, although it has been reported that rivals have gone up to $2.50 on Saturday night performances, and Mr. Klaw said that they would themselves rather than consistently lower instead of higher prices, and offer a play at $1.50 whenever possible.

A Tonic for the Blood and Nerves

When you build up the blood you strengthen the nerves because the nerves get their food through the blood. You cannot reach the nerves with medicine except through the blood. Nervous people are pale people. They are nervous because they are pale. The blood is so thin that it cannot nourish the nerves. Starved nerves mean neuralgia, sciatica, nervous prostration, paralysis.

Nervous exhaustion, or breakdown of the nerves, is more often a blessing than anything else. The nerves have rebelled and you should be thankful it is no worse than it is. Let it serve as a sharp warning to relieve the strain and to take a treatment that will build up your nerves.

"For years," says Mrs. E. J. Burdick, a farmer's wife, of Campbell, Cal., "I had nervous spells each Spring for about three months. My stomach troubled me and I got so I could not eat and got so weak that I had to give up work. I was very pale and couldn't get any strength. I was so nervous that I could not stand excitement. One doctor told me that I had nervous debility, and another said my blood was impoverished. I grew worse under their treatment. My daughter read about Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for several weeks, I was soon helped by the pills. My appetite picked up and the food was digested. I began to get stronger, and in a short time I was cured. I am glad to tell of my experience, which I hope will be of help to other sufferers."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are a real nerve tonic. They supply plenty of nourishing red blood to the exhausted nerves and do not excite and urge them on to do work which they have already shown they cannot do. Medicines which whip on the tired nerves do more harm than no medicine at all. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People not only start in immediately to give relief but continue to strengthen the nerves until they are able to do their work once more.

Send today for our free booklet, "Diseases of the Nervous System." It is invaluable to the nervous sufferer. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists, or will be sent, postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box; six boxes, $2.50, by the Dr. Williams Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y.
