Club Mar Error Burnors.—C. A. Bigelow, H. A. Calef. Dan Kellaher and Secretary Hall, of the East Side Business Men's Club, are investigating a proposal to purchase a lot in a central portion of East Portland and erect a portion of East Portland and erect a three-story building, using a portion as the home of the club. Several locations are in view and a decision will be made soon. The present quarters of the club are considered too small for the club, especially when public meetings are held. As far as the committee has investigated it has been found that a club building will prove a good investment. One floor would be reserved by the club for its quarters, and the other two floors for general business purposes. There is a general business purposes. FILMS TO BE SHOWN AGAIN

Coronation Scenes in Color Will Be Presented at Heilig.

The success of the Kinemacolor moving-picture films of the coronation of George V, in their recent run, has led to such a wide popular demand for a repetition of the performance that Manager McDonald, of the Independent Film Exchange, has decided to put them on again for a three days' run, beginning today, at the Heilig.

Ten films were shown in the previous run, but Mr. McDonald has been able to secure three additional films for this second exhibition, giving other phases of the lestivities that attended the coro-nation ceremonies. Thirteen films in all, giving in natural action and color the brilliant pageants of the great week in London, will make one of the most pretentious moving-picture displays that has ever been given in this County Board Will Listen to Complaints During Rest of Week, and on Tuesday Will Begin Making Adjustments.

Reed Institute was among the property owners who protested to the Board of Equalization yesterday that their assessments were too high. The institute owns lot 7, block 13, Couch Addition, at the southeast corner of Fifteenth and Thurman streets. The Fifteenth and Thurman streets. The building was assessed at $12,000, while it is said to have cost the institute $15,468.52 to erect. A reduction of the assessment to $3000 is asked.

As to the 59.25 acres at the old Lewis and Clark Fair grounds, the Reed Institute asks that the assessment of 1999 for the Improvements be canceled. The building is said to be a mere shell, roof, sidewalls and floors, with no windows or doors, and practically worthless. The profest is signed by A. H. Gowan, business man-ager of the institute. Thus far 214 protests have been field
