WHEAT SAMPLES READY

Grain Standard Committee Passes on Three Grades.

Samples of the three shipping varieties of wheat from the 1911 crop were turned in to the Chamber of Commerce yesterday by the grain standard committee and are now at the disposal of grain dealers of the city. Some of the samples have already been sealed and will be shipped to London and Liverpool for the guidance of the Corn Trade Association of England in dealing in Northwestern grains of the 1911 crop.

DAILY METEOROLOGICAL REPORT.

PORTLAND, Oct. 20.—Maximum temperature, 66 degrees; minimum, 45 degrees. River reading at 8 A. M., 2.6 feet; change in last 24 hours, 0.2 foot rise. Total rainfall (5 P. M. to 5 P. M.), none; total rainfall since September 1, 1911, 6.18 inches; normal rainfall since September 1, 1911, 4.04 inches; excess of rainfall since September 1, 1911, 2.14 inches. Total sunshine October 20, 10 hours, 42 minutes; possible sunshine, 10 hours, 42 minutes. Barometer (reduced to sea-level) at 5 P. M., 30.18 inches.

WEATHER CONDITIONS.

The Northwest high-pressure area has remained nearly stationary during the last 24 hours. The barometer is relatively low over California and the pressure is falling rapidly in the Canadian Northwest. Rain or snow has fallen at widely separated places in the Missouri Valley and rain has occurred in the Lakes region and Middle Atlantic States. It is much cooler along the California coast from Eureka to San Francisco and much warmer along the Oregon and Washington coast. In the interior the temperatures have remained nearly stationary.

The conditions are favorable for fair weather in this district Saturday with lower temperatures along the Oregon coast and in the interior of Southwest Oregon.

FORECASTS.

Portland and vicinity—Fair; northeasterly winds.

Oregon—Fair, cooler along the coast and in the interior southwest portion; variable winds.

Washington—Fair; easterly winds.

Idaho—Fair.

CLASSIFIED AD. RATES

Daily or Sunday.

	Per Line.
One time	12c
Same ad two consecutive times	22c
Same ad three consecutive times	30c
Same ad six or seven consecutive times	56c

Remittances must accompany out-of-town orders.

When one advertisement is not run in consecutive issues the one-time rate applies.

Six words count as one line on cash advertisements and no ad counted for less than two lines.

On charge or book advertisements the charge will be based on the actual number of lines appearing in the paper, regardless of the number of words in each line.

In New Today all advertisements are charged by measure only, 14 lines to the inch.

Situations Wanted, Male.
Situations Wanted, Female.

The above rates apply to advertisements under "New Today" and all other classifications excepting the following:

Oregonian will accept classified advertisements over the telephone, providing the advertiser is a subscriber to either phone. No prices will be quoted over the phone, but bill will be rendered the following day. Whether subsequent advertisements will be accepted over the phone depends upon the promptness of the payment of telephone advertisements. Situation Wanted and Personal advertisements will not be accepted over the telephone. Orders for one insertion only will be accepted for "Houses for Rent, Furniture for Sale," "Business Opportunities," "Rooming-houses" and "Wanted to Rent."
