Parties Search Hours for Injured Man Before Body Is Found by Uncle--Misunderstanding in Plans Leads to Tragedy.

In the belief that he was firing at a deer's tail, Herman Claussenius, Jr., shot and killed his friend, John Bonser, while the two were hunting on the Mullen ranch, eight miles west of Rocky Point, near Scappoose, yester-day. Claussenius says that Bonser had told him that he was going to circle the hill on which the tragedy octhe fill on which the tragedy oc-curred in a different direction from that in which he actually traveled. A deer had crashed through the brush a moment before the fatal shot was fired, Claussenius says, and it was while he was scanning the woods for a sight of the animal that he caught a signt of the animal that he caught a glimpse of Bonser's head and mistaking it for the fugitive game, he leveled his gun and his bullet went true. The two men had hunted together almost every season for ten

After he had fired, Claussenius ished down to the spot where he rushed down to the spot where he supposed the deer had been. In the meantime he says he heard it crashing away through the brush. Bonser had been following close on its trail. Claussenius found two buckshots had entered his friend's head, and setting him un against a tree he turned in antered his friend's head, and setting him up against a tree, he Jumped in an automobile and went to the Wilcox mill for help. He returned within 20 minutes, but the party could not find Bonser, who by this time probably was dead. The body was found yesterday affernoon, but Claussenius did not know of it until so informed by Deputy Sheriff Bulger.

Day Passed in Woods.

Sheriff Hancock, of Hillsboro, and the Coroner were notified by persons at Wilcox' mill soon after they re-ceived word of the shooting, just in-side the Washington County line. Clauseenius probably will be called upon to attend the inquest this morning "I went down alone in the automo-I went down alone in the automo-bile Friday, and Saturday morning Bonser and I left their home, a mile below Rocky Point, for the Mullen place, eight miles away," said Claus-senius yesterday. "We arrived there about 7 o'clock Saturday morning and hunted all day.

This morning we arose early and had breakfast at 4 o'clock. About 5:30 we started out and hunted on a big clearing. Then we returned and hunted on another section.

Direction Causes Tangle

"We came to a hill and Bonser said he was going around the foot of the ridge, and for me to go over the top. That was the way we heat out game I started over the top. He told me he was going over to the right, entirely opposite from where he actually went. "Pretty soon I heard a deer jump up hetween him and myself. The deer ran quartering to the left, down the hill. I ran to one side to lane through the rees, so I could see it.

"Bonser had been wearing a cap, but he had either lost it or thrown it aside. I saw something bob up, which I thought was the tail of the deer, so I fired. I found out afterward it was him head.

"When I got down there I found him lying on the ground. Two buckshot had entered his head. I sat him up against a stump and told him I would get help from Wilcox mill, a mile farther out.

OFFICE LURES IN VAIN

Mayoral Bee Does Not Buzz in Bonnets of Oregon City Men.

Just a little more than a month intervenes before election and the candidates will need fully that time to make canvasses. As a matter of fact, the office is not an alluring one and the men urged to make the race are loath. The fact that there is no salary connected with the office, despite the onerous duties of the Mayor, and the criticisms that are certain to be made, no matter how efficient the incumbent, cause many good men to forego the honor, which could probably be theirs for the asking.

It is needless to say that these youngsters in a few years will have a magnificent financial start in life.

Just so sure as Portland will grow, just so sure will values in Parkrose increase. It's in the direct path of the most rapidly growing section of the city, being just beyond Rose City Park.

Parkrose is the ONE location where you can't make a mistake. The very nature of things makes it absolutely necessary for the city to grow in this direction.

Stop for a moment and realize that now a Parkrose Acre—a piece of ground larger than a whole city block—can be secured for $1150—actually less than $200 per lot—on easy payments.

The location is ideal — improvements — water excellent streetcar facilities, etc., will all be provided —the soil will grow everything abundantly, enabling you to reduce your living expenses one-half-the prices are exceedingly low-in fact, every advantage and desirable feature is embodied in Parkrose.

Look East, West, North or South, you can't find the equal of Parkrose anywhere. It has the advantages of all with the drawbacks of none.

Again we state, and most emphatically, that Parkrose is the greatest—the best—the most promising realty offer ever made in the Northwest.
