IMPUNCTION IS WITHHELD - "When the actual merits of the case are shown an injunction may be granted, but on the present showing there are no grounds for a preliminary injunction in the case." This was Judge Bean's ruling yesterday in the Federal Court in the case of Shing Tal Company against Chief of Police Slover and other members of the force to enjoin them from trespassing on the plaintiff's place of business and for $20,000 dam-ages. Later, after the pleadings are complete the case will be heard and then the real question at issue, whether he police have the legal right under the city ordinance to break into Chinese houses to find gambling, will be determined by the court.

McGinson and Road Blamen.— homas McGibbon, who came to his death in a collision between an auto-mobile and a North Bank train Wed-nesday evening, and the management f the railway, are responsible for his death, according to a verdict returned by a Coroner's jury yesterday. After hearing the evidence, the jury brought in a finding that McGibbon had not used proper precaution in driving the car, and that the company was negligent in not maintaining a proper sign-board at the crossing. Funeral arrange-ments for McGlbbon have not been completed. The car which was wrecked Was the property of S. H. Rappalyea. FORMER PORTLAND RESIDENT DIES.

Otto Kleemann has received word of -Otto Kleemann has received word of the death of Henry Yellitz, in San Francisco. Mr. Yellitz was a former well-known resident of Portland. He left this city several years ago being transferred by the O. R. & N. Co. to the auditor's department in San Fran-cisco. He was a musician of great talent and was a charter member of the old Orchastral Lucion of Portland the old Orchestrial Union of Portland, when W. H. Prescott was president and Professor Kinross and Simon Harris were conductors. Mr. Yellits col-lapsed at his desk and died in the ambulance while on the way to a hos-

EAST SIDE LIBEARY NEARLY DONE. The East Side Branch Library, being completed at the southwest corner of East Eleventh and East Alder streets, will be ready for occupancy by November 15. Features of the branch li-brary include an auditorium and committee rooms, which may be used for mittee rooms, which may be used for meetings and lectures. A greater variety of books will be kept in this branch than in the former frame building. The building is an attractive structure, and almost covers the quarter block at the corner. The East Side Business Men's Club will hold a celebration in honor of its completion.

CONVICTED CLERK PAROLED.—In view of his previous good record Presiding Judge Gatens yesterday sentenced William A. Struss, indicted last week on a charge of larceny, to one year in the Penitentiary and immediately puroled him. Struss was accused of stealing 22 pairs of shoes and $53.95 in money from the Meier & Frank Company, where he was employed. He is a young man who recently came to Pertland from Minnesota. Bad company, engendering a desire to be "flashy," was responsible, Gus C. Moser, his attorney said, for the man's Wise's address at Beth Israel, at Twelfth and Main streets, tenight. Rose City Club Wants West Side Site.—The Rose City Park Improve-ment League favors Morrison and Nineteenth streets, on the West Side, Nineteenth streets, on the West Side, as a site for the proposed Auditorium. It was contended at the last meeting of the league that the West Side site was the best place for the Auditorium, being close to other public buildings and in accordance with the Civic Improvement Association's plans for beautifying the city. Bose City League is the first club on the East Side to take this stand. The league is the strongest and most aggressive club on the East Side. It is understood that several other East Side clubs will favor a West Side site.

LENTS TO HAVE FIVE ARC LEGHTS.

LENTS TO HAVE FIVE ARC LIGHTS .-The Lents Improvement Club has enered into an agreement with the Portland Rallway, Light & Power Company for the erection of five arc lights in Lents. The lights will be placed in the central portion of the suburb, and will be paid for by the club and by subscriptions from citizens, until the suburb has been annexed to Portland. It is expected that the club will discuss appearation soon. the club will discuss annexation soon. The population of Lents and sur-rounding is estimated at 7000. The hool district is completing a school house of 20 rooms and an assembly hall, which can accommodate between see and 1600 pupils.

EAST TWENTY-FIRST BRIDGE CASE RE-IVED .- Construction of the East Twenty-first-street bridge across Sullivan's Gulch will be taken up at the meeting of the North East Side Improvement Association tonight. Con-struction of this bridge was provided for nearly two years ago and the ap-proaches were bought at considerable expense, besides obtaining right-of-way over the O.-W. R. & N. Co.'s track, but the case has remained dormant ever since. At the meeting a full re-port on the bridge case will be pre-sented giving the cause for the delay. Grand avenue and East Twenty-eighth-street bridges are the nearest to East Twenty-first street.

ROADS TO MARKET FAVORED.—At the last meeting of Milwaukie Grange, road construction was the subject for discussion in the lecturer's hour, and the speakers favored construction of roads leading from the rural districts to the market places. The Grange favored issuing bonds for road-construction, but advised limiting of the issue to prevent overloading of the country with road bonds. The Grange favored building through highways only so far as they connect with a market road. If built for the use of "joy-riders" the Grange decided to op-pose their construction.
