7 GOVERNORS IN BALANCE

New York Republicans to Make Effort to Capture Lower Houses to Block Political Legislation by Rival Party.

CHICAGO, Oct. 22-Although the elections to be held November 7 will be quiet, compared with the Presidenbe quiet, compared with the Presiden-tial struggle a year bence, interest in them is keen. States that will elect Governors are Rhpde Island, Massa-chusetts, Maryland, Kentucky, Missis-stppi, Leulaiana and New Moxico. In ether states Justices of the Supreme Court, members of Legislatures and Mayors will be among the officials chosen.

While this is regarded as an off year, National interest centers in Mas-machusetts, where the Democratic and Republican parties have named full state tickets. Eugens N. Foss, who was elected as a Democratic Governor Was elected as a honorthy state last year, is a candidate for re-election. The Repub-Hean ticket is headed by Louis A. Frothingham, the present Republican Ligutenant-Governor. Members of the Legislature also will be chosen.

New York Election Important.

In New York a new Assembly will be elected, as well as several Justices of the Supreme Court and city and county officials. The Assembly elec-be elected, as well as several Justices of the Supreme Court and city and county officials. The Assembly elec-tion will be unusually important this year, as the Republicans will endeavor to regain control of the lower House, thus enabling them to block any pure-ly political legislation next year. New Mexico votes for the first time in its history as state for a full set of state officers, members of Congress and for a Supreme Court, eight District Judges and eight District Attorneys. It also will vote on a proposed amend-ment to the constitution, making the constitution more easily amendable. Arizona will hold its first state elec-tion for state officers on December 12, the latter date having been fixed by proclamation.

the latter date having been fixed by proclamation. Ohlo will vote for municipal officers and delegates to the constitutional con-vention. In the largest Ohlo cilies the contests for city officers are unusually spirited, because of changes in the lines of both old parties and determination of the leaders to strengthen their organi-nation, preparatory to the fight next year for delegates to the National con-ventions.

ROANOKE RAPIDS, N. C., Oct. 29 .-(Special.) -- The first number of John Armstrong Chaloner's (Chanler's) quarterly paper. The Confederacy and Solid South, has made its appearance. In his salutatory Chaloner says the purpose of his sheet is "to preserve and keep as fragrant memories, as in the case of the Confederacy, the magnificent, unbreakable, victorious polittcal machine as represented by the Solid South, before the eyes and in the hearts of old, middle-aged and young Southerners." Chaloner makes an attack on Joseph H. Choate, saying: "A grave charge hangs over his already large and now sufficiently swelled head, swelled from copious honors heaped upon it while United States Ambassador to the Court of St. James, a charge so grave that no New York newspaper, to our knowledge, had the moral courage to publish The Honorable Joseph Hodges Choate is now stewing in his own grease and sizzling in his own sweat until the day of retribution arrives.
