

SOCIALISM MADE LOS ANGELES ISSUE

Job Harriman Nominated to Make Race Against Alexander for Mayor.

BOND ISSUES IN DANGER

Socialists Show Surprising Strength in Election. Polling More Than 15,000 Ballots Out of Total of Fifty Thousand Cast.

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 1.—At 1:25 this morning, returns from 231 precincts, of which about three-fourths are complete, give Harriman, the Socialist candidate for Mayor, a lead over Alexander, Republican-Good Government, of 1808 votes.

The vote is as follows: Harriman, 15,637; Alexander, 13,751; Musket, 6776; Gregory, 241. For City Attorney, Shenk, Rep., 16,418; Tuttle, Soc., 14,617.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 31.—Socialism, the great question before the voters today in the municipal primary will again be the overshadowing issue in the final city election December 5. Job Harriman, on the basis of early returns, has won a place on the ballot with Mayor Alexander, the Republican and "good government" candidate, who had an overwhelming majority over all opponents in the primary two years ago, and was elected without recourse to a final ballot. Alexander was only a few hundred votes ahead of Harriman, the Socialist candidate, who is one of the counsels for the McNamara brothers. One-fourth of the vote had been counted tonight.

Total Vote 50,000. Nearly 50,000 of the city's 50,000 registered voters cast their ballots in the primary. Considerably less than half the votes were marked for George Alexander, present Mayor and candidate for re-election. About 6000 were divided among the other candidates. William C. Musket and Miles Gregory. The rest went to Job Harriman, McNamara attorney and Socialist, in spite of a vigorous campaign against him, the keynote of which was the warning that the establishment of a revolutionary politico-economic system would mean the destruction, perhaps the annihilation, of the city's public projects, dependent for financing wholly on bond issues.

Headless of the warning, enough voters cast their ballots for Harriman to force Socialism to another issue five weeks hence. Rising up from a voting strength of a paltry 2000 a few months ago to 15,000 or more today, the Socialist showing in the primary was all the more amazing because of the fact—indicated on the face of incomplete returns from many of the entire 232 precincts of the city—that Harriman polled as many votes as the mayor, who received an overwhelming majority in the election two years ago.

Socialist Strength Surprised. Another fact that was received by political observers as an astounding election phenomenon was that the Socialist count was uniformly the same returns uniformly led the candidates endorsed by the "good government" forces, which have power since the fall of the administration that went down with Mayor Harper in the graft investigation which culminated three years ago in the first inauguration of the present Mayor.

Little effort has been made to account for the result of the primary, beyond the statements of campaign managers and newspaper editors that the Socialist showing was a manifestation of general political unrest and impatience locally with the present administration, combined with the $2,000,000 aqueduct now nearing completion, and municipal harbor, light and power rail projects.

Both Sides Preparing. Heads to finance the light and power and the harbor projects were offered for sale recently without attracting bidders, and local predictions were plentiful that if Harriman were to be elected in December these never would find buyers. In reply the Socialists said that if necessary they would adopt new legislation, including the bonds to denationalize small enough to attract workmen and that the proletariat of the country would finance all the prospective improvements, "in spite of the capitalists."

PORTLAND NOT OPPOSED

Commercial Club Helps in Fight to Land W. C. T. U. Convention.

MILWAUKEE, Oct. 31.—(Special.)—No important opposition has as yet developed to the selection of Portland for the next convention of the National Women's Christian Temperance Union, and the Westerners have been busy since Sunday in working up Pacific Coast sentiment.

The Portland Commercial Club lecture on "The Great Northwest" will be given at the auditorium tomorrow for the edification of the delegates, who are to vote on the question of where the next convention will be held. Atlantic City is in the field, with but little prospect of success.

FALCONIO REGRETS GOING

Papal Delegate Sorry to Leave Duties in United States.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—An apostolic secretary was sent to all the archbishops and bishops of the Roman Catholic Church today by Monsignor Diamedo Falconio, papal delegate to the United States.

"By a letter of the 15th inst." announced the delegate, His Eminence, Cardinal Merry del Val, informs me that His Holiness, Pope Pius the Tenth, will be pleased to promote me to the high dignity of the cardinalate on the occasion of the next consistory, which will take place November 27. Monsignor Falconio, saying that "my elevation to the cardinalate will mark the end of my mission as apostolic delegate to the United States," expressed his highest appreciation of all the kindnesses shown him by the good people of the United States during his tenure of office as representative of the Pontiff.

AMERICAN RECEIVES HIGH HONORS FROM CHINESE GOVERNMENT.

PEKING, Oct. 31.—(Special.)—Dr. John C. Ferguson, an American who was recently appointed advisor to the Minister of Communications in China, may be appointed to bring the child Emperor to the United States in case it should be necessary.

For several years Dr. Ferguson has held the post of advisor to the Viceroy at Nanking and Wuchang, and has been closely associated in an advisory capacity with the Chinese cabinet. His appointment as official advisor was entirely unlooked for and is a high tribute to his valuable services to China.

Dr. John C. Ferguson. Joy and pride this flourishing portion, have so endeared to me, of Christ's vine church, and I shall constantly pray that God may shower in abundance upon you all his choicest gifts."

NEW OFFICE SUGGESTED

OFFICIAL CHARTER PROVIDES FOR CITY PROSECUTOR.

Length of Term of City Attorney Increased to Four Years—Mr. Labbe Sends Letter.

A feature introduced by the official Charter Commission at its meeting last night, is a provision creating the office of City Prosecutor to handle criminal suits for the city. This office is designed to relieve the City Attorney of a vast amount of work which devolves upon him under the present system. The new plan also provides that, where necessary, in appeals of cases originating in municipal courts, the City Prosecutor may appoint a Deputy Prosecutor or prosecutors to assist him.

The City Prosecutor is to be appointed by the Commissioner of Public Safety, his salary to be fixed by the Council. He will be required to file annual reports of all cases tried. The Commission did not depart widely from the present charter provisions regarding the City Attorney, excepting to increase the length of his term of office from two to four years.

A communication was received from C. Henri Labbe, requesting the Commission to make changes in the provisions for seizure of property for municipal improvements, and to change the methods of procedure in annexation of property to the municipality. Mr. Labbe denounced as crude and unsatisfactory the present system of viewings to determine assessments and damages in cases of street opening and improvement. Some systems should be arranged, he advised, to determine damages in a manner similar to that used in condemnation of land for railway purposes. Referring to the present system, he said that the compensation allowed for property seized for municipal purposes was frequently based upon assessments made as from 1890, and was prior to the time of seizure. Under the present system, if appeal is taken and the appellant is successful, Mr. Labbe declared that there is no way provided for meeting the verdict.

Professor Montgomery was opposed at the trial by Christopher Buckley, of San Francisco, who asserted that he had an agreement with the Professor to share the proceeds of the invention and also to have a share of the patent money.

Professor Montgomery was 59 years of age. He had been in charge of the physics department at Santa Clara College for the past seven years and was recognized as one of the leading authorities in electrical and chemical teaching.

Several months ago he was married at the mission town. Though frequently referred to as Father Montgomery, he was not a priest, but a lay brother.

PACIFIC ARMADA SAILS FOR REVIEW

Submarines Leave San Diego in Advance, Bound for Los Angeles.

EYES FOCUS ON OREGON

Fleet, Moving in Parallel Lines Up Coast, Plays Searchlights on Ranches and Villages—Preliminary Maneuvers Held.

BATTLESHIP OREGON ADDS TO LAURELS AS FLEET MOVES NORTH.

FLAGSHIP CALIFORNIA, by wireless, via Los Angeles, Oct. 31.—In long, swaying lines, 21 ships of the Pacific fleet turned their bows northward on the journey to Los Angeles Harbor at 4 o'clock this afternoon. The famous old hulk ship, Oregon, swept over the San Diego bar, Admiral Chaney Thomas, commanding the fleet, sent a wireless message to Captain Peck, who was in command of the fleet of having taken the first battleship in and out of San Diego Harbor.

"Another laurel for the grand old ship," read Admiral Thomas' message. It is expected that the fleet will arrive at Los Angeles Harbor after midnight.

SAN DIEGO, Oct. 31.—After a day in which complete assembly was spectacularly effected, the Pacific fleet, under command of Rear-Admiral Peck, Thomas, is steaming north tonight for Los Angeles, where the inspection and review will be held tomorrow. Going out of the harbor shortly after noon, the fleet took the same formation of Coronado Point that they will assume tomorrow off Los Angeles, the only difference being that today there was no firing of salutes.

All of the Pacific armada, with the exception of the submarines Grampus and Pike, formed off Coronado. The submarines left this port ahead of the others, bound on their longest voyage since they arrived here some time ago from Mare Island Navy Yard.

Thousands Like Shore. While the semi-official maneuvers were taking place today, the beach was lined by thousands of spectators. The vessels formed in four columns of six warships each.

Throughout the day the Oregon, the first battleship to enter the harbor, was the center of interest. Everybody wanted to see the fighting craft which won the world-famous race against time around the Horn. The Oregon, the oldest man-of-war presents a squat, bulging figure in the water, as compared to the more modern vessels. The fleet is going north tonight in two parallel lines, playing its searchlights upon the villages and ranches which lie between this port and Los Angeles.

Fingship Leads Column. Heading one of the two columns is the flagship, the Oregon. The other battleship is the cruiser West Virginia, under command of Captain A. S. Halsey.

Los Angeles the gunboat Wickburg will be used as the Admiral's reviewing vessel. He will transfer his flag from the California to the Wickburg and upon the latter the vessel will receive Western Senators and Representatives, Federal and city authorities and their wives, who will be his guests during the review. Admiral Thomas, while acting as inspecting and reviewing officer, will transfer the command of the fleet temporarily to Rear-Admiral W. H. H. Southard.

UNHAPPY GUARD SAVED

LIQUOR-LIT CORPORAL PUTS SHACKLES ON SOLDIER.

Federal Prisoners Herded at Union Depot While Petty Officer and Convict Take in Sights.

After making his three prisoners drunk, releasing one sentenced to two years in military prison for desertion, and taking him as a companion on a tour of the North End, after setting the gun from his guard and shacking him, Corporal Louis Kellenback, of Troop M, First Cavalry, stationed at Boise, Idaho, is said last night to have left the prisoners and the shackled guard at the Union Depot, where they finally appealed to the police for aid.

Kellenback, according to the story told by the soldiers, was taking the three prisoners, with the aid of two guards to the Alcatraz military prison in San Francisco Bay, under sentence to 15 months each for short absences without leave; the third was sentenced to two years for desertion and crossing the Mexican border in July.

When the party arrived in Portland on an afternoon train Kellenback is said to have released Private McGoldrick, the man sentenced for desertion, put the shackles on Private Carter, a guard, and fastened Carter to another of the prisoners. Then he and McGoldrick left the party in the Union Depot, with instructions to return to the Union Depot, with instructions to return to the Union Depot.

Private Joseph Dingler, who was permitted by the corporal to leave his guard and authority, when Private Carter was shackled, took charge of the party, which left on the last car for Vancouver, under the command of Adjutant Thomas of the military post.

Adjutant Thomas asked Captain Bailey to arrest Corporal Kellenback and Private McGoldrick when found. Kellenback was arrested shortly after midnight by Patrolman Adams.

Why I Lost My Job

Reasons Why Thousands Like Me Cannot Satisfy Their Employers.

I believe my fate is not unlike that of thousands of other workers who daily lose their places for reasons they do not know, and probably would not believe. When their last mail envelope comes along, it is usually, "Your services no longer required." If the truth were known, the reason for their unceremonious removal would probably be that their usefulness was destroyed because of some mental worry, bodily ailment or general indisposition. These things, as we all know, are the most fruitful causes of failure in all walks of life. The battle of Waterloo was lost because of a headache. In this quick age our minds must be clear, rapid, active and free from outside influence or worry, or else we go down to failure with the throng of "floaters" who go from one place of employment to another, giving no satisfaction to others or to themselves, constantly growing older and less useful, with no ambition, no will power, and every other man the best that is in him. But no man can use or get the best that is in himself until he is first free from all mental and physical troubles.

That was my trouble. I was full of troubles. That's why I lost my job. My stomach in the first place was all wrong out of order, and I was worrying about it and my mind grew cloudy, and slow. I made mistakes and grew grouchy. That was the end of my job. There are thousands like me, going about with "quick lunch" faces, dyspeptic manners, and repulsive atmospheres. No employer wants such men's services.

Take my advice. A healthy stomach is half the battle, for it keeps your mind clear, and your face rosy. I have a healthy stomach now and I am in good position, and my employer is satisfied and so am I.

I started to take Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets which I was told were good for the worst cases of indigestion and dyspepsia. The first two tablets made a wonderful difference in my condition. The ingredients of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets digest 3000 grains of food. The stomach doesn't have to work at all. The Tablets do all the work, no matter how heavy your meal.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets cure brain, struts, burning sensations, flat, irritations, loss of appetite, indigestion, heartburn, lack of energy, loss of memory and dyspepsia and indigestion in their very worst forms. No other little tablets in the world can do much. You should carry them around with you wherever you go and take them regularly after meals. Then you will realize what it is to be free from stomach trouble and have a clear mind, a quick memory, a happy disposition, comfort and rest. Get Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets at any drug store for 50c a box.

REBELS FIGHT RECKLESSLY

Courageous Advance Met by Steady Fire of Imperialists.

HANKOW, Oct. 28, via Wu-Hu, Oct. 31.—Hundreds were killed or wounded on both sides in the battle Saturday. Churches, offices and storerooms were used by the Red Cross for the wounded.

The rebels fought recklessly courage. They charged, charging in close formation and faced the deadly Maxims unflinchingly. They probably sacrificed 10 men to the Imperialists' one.

The one idea of the rebels seemed to be to go forward at any cost. The loyalists, on the contrary, with machine-like discipline, obeyed the orders given by bugles and whistles. They employed the deadly time-fuse straps against the rebels' percussion shells.

The few Chinese in the concessions were killed or wounded. The foreign women took refuge on steamers.

The reason many women find it difficult to arrange the coiffure pleasingly is because of the too-free use of wet shampoos, which make hair dull, brittle and "striny."

"One of the most pleasing things with which to cleanse the scalp of impurities and keep the hair clean, fluffy and silky, is 4 ounces of either orris root or corn meal and 4 ounces of theriac. Mix together and sprinkle a tablespoonful on the scalp. Then brush thoroughly through the hair. This ridges the hair and scalp of dust and dandruff, and a few times using tones the scalp and hair roots, causing the hair to grow soft, brilliant and easy to manage."—Adv.
