ARREST OF HONTERS SOUGHT.—An and of the state Fish and Game Commission to secure the arrest of George F. Barber and William C. Barber, residents of Los Angeles, for hunting deer near Klamath Falls with resident licenses. The two hunters with Norman Barber, aged 14, gave their addresses as Portland, paying the 31 license fee required by law. The fee for hunters outside of the state is $10. The facis came to light through the taxidermist with whom they left a deer head to be mounted. The Game Warden's office is making every effort to stop the practice of giving false addresses.

COUNTY ASKS CITY FOR WATER.—A letter received yesterday by Mayor Bushlight from the County Court asks that the city grant the county the use of shough water from the city mains to meet the needs of the building, except for drinking water, for $150 a year. The court explains that a $2000 well is under confemplation at the Courthuse. Water for purposes other than drinking will be taken from this well. The county offers the city interest on the $2000 at 5 per cent in payment for the water if it is furnished by the city and a well is not required.

HEALTH BOARD APPROVES ESTIMATES.—ESTIMATES of $12,550 for operation of the crematory and $21,720 for the health department during 1912 were approved yesterday at a meeting of the Health Board. Health Commissioner Wheeler reported that his estimate was the same as last year except that $1200 was added for the salary of an additional inspector. Four hundred dollars was cut off the estimate for maintaining the ambulance of the department because the new police ambulance will supplant the Health Board ambulance in a majority of accident cases.

LEASUR TO GIVE RANQUET.—A ban-quet and reception by the anti-Saloon League to J. F. Burke, of New Jersey, the new superintendent who succeeds Rev. J. R. Knodell, will be given at the T. W. C. A. Friday. The banquet will be at 6:30 P. M. and the reception at 8 P. M. Prominent workers from throughout the state are expected to attend, 200 invitations having been is-sued. Rev. E. Nelson Allen, of the Hawthorne Park Presbyterian Church, will preside at the banquet, and Rev. Benjamin Young, of Taylor-Street Methodist Church, will give the address of welcome to the new superintendent.

FALSE ARREST ALLEGED

GREAT NORTHERN ACCUSED OF SEIZING WRONG MAN.

Attorney Sinnott Declares Officials Sought Conviction to Avert Suit for Damages Over Theft Case.

Roger B. Sinnott yesterday morning in the Municipal Court, accused Great Northern officials of prosecuting his Northern officials of prosecuting his client, W. H. Jackson, for the purpose of avoiding a damage suit for false arrest. Jackson was accused of having robbed Albert W. Holgate, a fellow passenger on a Great Northern train from Scattle, of $20 early Sunday morning. Mr. Sinnott made a heated plea for the dismissal of the case, and provoked a reply from Deputy District Attorney Hennessy that was equally vehement.

"Officers of this road acted hastily

"Officers of this road acted hastly in this case and they know it," declared Mr. Sinnott. "They said they had the record of this man in the roques" gallery, and they have been challenged to produce it. Although they had several days in which to look up his record, they have not produced a bit of evidence against his previous record. "Yesterday the agent of the road came to me and offered to have the case against my client dismissed, if I would consent to have him plead guilty case against my client dismissed, if I would consent to have him plead guilty to a vagrancy charge, and have a small fine imposed. They knew they had nothing, and were only trying to stave off a damage suit for false arrest. I can assure them that they will have to face a big damage suit for their action."

"I have examined the evidence in

"I have examined the evidence in this case, and I believe from the bottom of my heart that this man Jackson is guilty," said Deputy District Attorney Hennessy. "If I did not, I would recommend his dismissal."

According to the testimony of Holgate, he met Jackson Sunday night when he was about to board the train for Portland, and asked him the way to the depot. Jackson replied that he was also going to Portland, and the two went to the train together. On the train Holgate drank from a bottle of whisky offered by Jackson, and shortly after went to sleep. Upon awakening he missed his watch, $30 in bills and some small silver. Losses were also reported by other passengers. Jackson was arrested on his arrival in Portland, and $57, including two bills which Holgate said were his, were found on Jackson. Holgate was unable to identify the bills, except to say that they were Canadian bills for $5 and $10, of the same denomination and issue as those he had lost.

Jackson was found guilty and was fined $50. He gave notice of appeal.

Her attempts at English are so funny at times that even she chricks in laughter. For instance, she dragged a huge alligator hag out of her trunk and explained at great length and nice hunting for words that she "caught it at the ostrich farm where they make hags out of ostrich hides."

But her sense of humor—or shall we say sense of comedy?—keeps her smiling at her own mistakes. And when one remembers that she never had a teacher of English and that she picked up for herself in 16 months all that she knows of that mosaic piece of lingual grehitecture—English-asshe-ought-to-be-spoken—well, thon, one takes off his bonnet to dever little Mica Hajos.

Several weeks ago a little bird whispered it about that Mizzi was going to become Mrs. Mark A. Lueschet, one of her managers, the wedding to take place either in Portland or Seattle, "sometime before Chilemas." I hedged around the delicate subject for several rounds while Mizzi nimbly side-tracked or partied with smiles and tracked or parried with smiles and spaculations of "Well did you ever hear the like," and on one occasion a prolonged peal of laughter.
