ANGRY SKIPPER SHOOTS

HALLOWEEN DISTURBER GETS BULLETS IN HAND AND LEG.

Retired Sea Captain Retaliates on Youths Who Upset Outbuildings. Bond Put at $1000.

SPOKANE Wash., Nov. 1.—(Special.)
—Enraged at the Halloween pranks of some boys who upset his outbuildings, "Cap" Freeman Southard, a retired sea captuin, borrowed a rifle from a neighor Tuesday night and shot 20-year-old Bert Gullixson.

Meeting the youths at Latah, Wash., while returning from a neighbor's house with the borrowed rifle, Southard threatened them and a scuffle ensued. The boys tried to take the rifle from the old man and in the melee Gullix-son was shot through the right hand and the right leg. The wounds are not Serious.

Southard was arraigned before the magistrate at Latah this morning. He was placed under $1800 bonds and his case set for trial November 10.

MAN IS SHOT WITH POPCORN

Boys' Halloween Prank May Cost Protester His Leg.

WALLA WALLA. Wash. Nov. 1—
(Special.)—William J. Martin, of Walla Walla, who has been working on a hall at Vincent, Or., was shot with a charge of popcorn last night by several boys of that vicinity who were out on a Halloween lark. The charge entered his leg right above the knee cap.
The boys who were responsible for the affair thought it would be a good joke to fill a shotgun with a load of popcorn and shoot somebody.
Finding Martin's light wagon, they decided to haul it away and hide it.
When Martin discovered them in the set, he tried to get the cart away from them. As he did not loose his hold on the cart when the boys ordered him to, ons of them took a shot at him with the popcorn. He may lose his leg.

Policeman's Eye Blacked.

VANCOUVER, Wash, Nov. 1.—(Special.)—Angered at a remark made by Arnold White. 17 years old, who was georing a girl home from a Haloween celebration. Jease Troch, police officer, is alleged to have struck the lad with his hand, breaking a tooth. White, who says he seted in self-defense, struck Troch, giving him a black eye. Then Troch arrested him and took him to the City Jall, where he was kept all night.

Police Judge Bigham acquitted White on a charge of disorderly con-

JOAQUIN MILLER AND BROTH-ERS TO BUILD PLANT.

Poet of Sierras Locates Land on Siuslaw River, Going to Place in Two-Wheeled Cart.

EUGENE, Or., Nov. 1.—(Special.)— Josquin Miller, the picturesque poet of the Sierras, or, rather, his daughter, Juanita, to whom he has given all his Oregon possessiona, is a third owner of a power site on the Siuslaw River where a power plant will be accorded of a power site on the Siusiaw River where a power plant will be erected the coming Spring to supply Florence and the towns of the Lower Siusiaw. Associated with him are his brothers, George Melvin and James, of Eugens. The former went to Portland today to strange for the machinery.

The site was located by the white-haired poet himself. Always fond of the utmost simplicity, he dreve to the location in a two-wheeled cart, drawn by one old horse and accompanied only by his brother, George, and posted his own location notice. He has always had the utmost faith in the Siusiaw by his brother, coorge, the has always had the utmost faith in the Slusiew country, and has visited it frequently. Three years ago he took the part of Neptune at the Florence Rhedodendron Carnival.

uin Miller attended the old Cum-Joaquin Siller at Eugene in 1853, and berland College in Eugene in 1853, and later published the Democratic Regis-ter here. The paper was suppressed on ount of seditious utterances,

Not an Accident

HERE'S a reason for our growing prescription business. Drugs of the finest quality only receive consideration in this store. It's because of our carefulness in compounding the prescription-of our co-operation in this respect with the physician whose medical knowledge and skill counts for naught without positive accuracy in prescription-filling and drugs of tested purity. It's important to the doctor-more important to you. Nearly 1,000,000 prescriptions have been filled at our counter since 1865, re-fills not included. With such a record and the effective system which we use to safeguard the prescriptions of our enstomers, mistakes or errors of any kind are practically impossible. There need be no doubt, no uncertainty in the mind of the doctor, the nurses or patient if we fill the pre-
