history of the order next July in a special train. The "Portland club" organized these several months ago holds meetings every week and new members are obtained at every meeting, according to a letter received by Harry C. McAllister, secretary of the convention commission, yesterday.

The finance committee, under the direction of Sol Blumauer, commissioner of finance and auditing, will start Monday morning on its whirlwind campaign to collect the $25,000 necessary to complete the $125,000 entertainment fund. It is aimed to finish this work in one day. That little or no trouble will be experienced in glancing the fund is evidenced by the large number of voluntary contributions received by the secretary every day.

There is a woman who speaks from personal knowledge and long experience, viz., Mrs. P. H. Brogan, of Wilson, Pa. She says "I know from experience that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is far superior to any other. For there is nothing that cures so quickly as this."
