

FOSS CONFIDENT OF VICTORY AT POLLS

Massachusetts Governor Says He Will Be Re-elected by 50,000 Majority.

OPPOSITION NOT DOWNCAST

Boston Voters to Decide Whether to Recall Mayor John F. Fitzgerald or Let Him Serve Out Four-Year Term.

BOSTON, Nov. 6.—Governor Eugene N. Foss predicted tonight his re-election tomorrow by 50,000 majority, while his Republican opponent, Lieutenant-Governor Louis A. Frothingham, claimed every county but Suffolk.

Massachusetts voters will elect other state officers and a new Legislature tomorrow. In Boston the voters also will decide whether there shall be an election for Mayor two months hence, which means virtually whether there shall be a chance to recall Mayor John F. Fitzgerald, who was elected in January, 1910, for four years.

NEW MEXICO ELECTS TODAY

Governor and Two Representatives Will Be Chosen.

SANTA FE, N. M., Nov. 6.—Today marked the close of the bitter political campaign ever fought out in New Mexico, and tomorrow the new state elects two Representatives in Congress, a Governor and full list of state and county officers, as well as a Legislature which is to elect two United States Senators.

Republican leaders are claiming tonight the election of their entire ticket, while on the Democratic side the claims of victory are equally strong and apparently just as well founded. W. C. McDonald, the Democratic candidate, and has the support of the progressive Republicans, while H. O. Bursum, having made his campaign on the issue of high protection to the wool industry.

Disinterested observers predict that the successful candidate for Governor will have a majority of less than 1000 out of a total of some 40,000 votes.

CONTEST HOT IN LOS ANGELES

"Good Government" Forces Charge Socialists With Illegal Registry.

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 6.—(Special)—With the total registration for the municipal election December 5 estimated at 150,000, the contest between voters, which means that the winning candidate in the Mayoralty race must poll at least three times the vote cast for Harrison, the Socialist, in the focus are lined up for the battle.

It is believed in the "good government" ranks that almost all the Socialist voters are in the ranks of the "good government" forces, and that the majority of voters to be registered, especially in the wards where the Socialist is strongest, will be for "good government." The present total registration is 135,542.

The members of the executive committee of the "good government" organization say it is apparent that 60,000 votes will be necessary to re-elect Mayor Alexander H. Harrison, and 60,000 of city bonds is involved in the outcome.

The "good government" organ and the police have knowledge that the Socialists are putting through thousands of illegal registrations, packing scores of rooming-houses whose proprietors are in sympathy with them and bringing in tramps and men of all sorts who can be picked up within a few hundred blocks of the city. The special officers are to be sworn in this week to check up the entire great register. Sensational disclosures and wholesale arrests are promised.

SOCIALISTS ARE CONFIDENT

Hard-Fought Campaign in Sacramento Is at End.

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Nov. 6.—(Special)—Tomorrow's election will close one of the hardest-fought campaigns ever waged in Sacramento under new conditions, due to recent annexation of suburbs and to the saloon issue, which made results doubtful at the polls.

Every indication points to an unusually large vote for Socialist candidate for Mayor. The Socialists are in close proximity to the opposing parties when the votes have been counted. The question of adoption or rejection of a new charter are in the hands of the establishment of a commission form of government will be decided at the same election, and the campaign for and against it has been bitter. The press has supported the new charter, but it has been opposed by several big corporations and concerns that have extensive interests in the city.

STUBS ACTIVE ON STUMP

Second Kansas District to Elect Representative in Congress.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 6.—With a closing speech by Governor W. H. Reuben in favor of the candidacy of Ulysses S. Guyer, the Republican nominee, the contest in the Second Kansas District for the seat in Congress, made vacant by the death of the late Representative Madison, closed tonight.

National interest has been injected into the campaign by the presence of William J. Bryan and Speaker Clark, both of whom spoke for the Democratic candidate, Joseph A. Taggart. Republican is favorite.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Nov. 6.—Odds tonight favored the re-election of Governor Abraham J. Fether, Republican, over Lewis A. Waterman, Democrat, tomorrow.

BOURNE PUT OUT OF WAGON

Continued from First Page. stood steadfastly with Aldrich during the tariff fight at the opening of the 61st Congress, and voted with Aldrich and against La Follette; that he remained with the Aldrich faction until Aldrich lost his grip and announced his intention to retire. Moreover, McCormick found that three years ago Senator Bourne was whooping it up for the renomination of President Roosevelt, and could find nothing too mean to say of William H. Taft, yet, after Taft's nomination, had trailed him about the country, carrying favor in many ways, and soon became as fulsome in his praise of Taft as he had been lavish with his denunciation prior to the last Republican National convention. He then found that Senator Bourne broke with the President, after having proclaimed him the best man for the Presidency.

Oregon Record Falls to Help. Not satisfied with this, McCormick delved into Senator Bourne's political record in Oregon. This investigation convinced McCormick that Bourne was a good man to be alienated from the La Follette movement, and straightway McCormick brought about the alienation. He did not want Bourne recognized as a trustee, and when there was danger that Bourne, at any time, might betray the leader and turn upon him, he did not care to have associated with the La Follette movement a man whose past career was so stamped with treachery.

Senator Bourne, of course, denies that there is friction or any estrangement, but declares La Follette is the proper man to be nominated by the Republicans next year, and in interviews he even goes so far as to declare that La Follette will be the Republican nominee. But it is noted that Senator Bourne did not attend the Republican progressive assembly at Chicago last month; he did not even send a letter to that assembly; he contributed nothing to the indorsement there given La Follette, and none of the literature being sent broadcast over the country by Senator Bourne makes reference to La Follette or urges his nomination.

Bourne's Professions Shallow. So long as Senator Bourne realizes that La Follette is the progressive idol, and so long as he feels no other progressive can corral a greater following, La Follette, the minute he will be come out for Bourne, McCormick will see just how shrewd enough to realize all this; hence the outcasting of the Senator from Oregon.

Senator Bourne is going ahead with his own publicity bureau; he is defraying the expenses out of his own pocket, and he is advertising only the name of Senator Bourne. Ostensibly this literature is all promotive of the principles of popular government, but scrutinizing it shows that the name of Senator Bourne always appears, and he is the man sought to be set up before the country as the tried and true advocate of reform in the West.

Of course, Senator Bourne has a selfish motive; some day it will become more plainly apparent, and that day will be the judgment of Medill McCormick confirmed.

ENGAGEMENT NO SECRET SCHOOLTEACHER SAYS RICHESON GAVE GIRL RING. Fellow-Student of Avis Linnell Declares Accused Preacher Was Recruited for Buying Jewel.

ALAMEDA, Cal., Nov. 6.—(Special)—Miss Mary Gregg, an Eastern instructor, now teaching in San Luis Obispo County, who is at present visiting her cousin, Mrs. D. H. Weeks, in this city, was a teacher in the Normal Training School, which Miss Avis Linnell attended when she first became engaged to Rev. C. V. T. Richeson, who was arrested in Boston on charge of murdering Miss Linnell so that he could marry Miss Violet Edmonds.

Miss Gregg declares that the minister was engaged to Avis Linnell and that Miss Linnell wore a costly diamond ring that Richeson had given her. She costily was the stone, declares Miss Gregg, that a deacon of Richeson's church remonstrated with him for buying so expensive a jewel for the girl, and she sharply told by Richeson to attend to his own business.

The engagement was recognized and discussed freely by the fellow-students of Miss Linnell and the faculty at the school. The girl gave up her final course of study in order to prepare for her marriage with Richeson. When the two first met the girl was 15 years old, and of an emotional temperament, Richeson was then about 37.

Militia Company Promoted. KLAMATH FALLS, Or., Nov. 6.—(Special)—More than 90 names have been secured to the petition asking Adjutant-General Plizer that a company of the National Guard be formed in Klamath Falls. A social union has been formed by the men interested with the object of securing and holding the interest of the promoters. Officers chosen are Dr. Warren C. Hunt, president; Philip J. Sinnott, vice-president; Phillip J. Sinnott, secretary; Arlie Worrell, treasurer. Committees are as follows: By-laws, Percy H. Bramman, H. C. Merrittman, E. L. Miller, Percival Sinnott; Finance, J. P. Sinnott; Entertainment, Orville French, E. L. Miller, Guy Leslie.

Ore Sampler May Be Built. GRANTS PASS, Or., Nov. 6.—(Special)—There is every prospect that Grants Pass will have a 200-ton ore sampler erected in this place. If the Commercial Club will furnish a building site to those interested in the concern, the machinery will come from San Francisco. A. J. McCordie, who is representing his associates, has been all over the county and has received the best of encouragement from the mining men in the district.

MIKE ISSIE TO BE OPENED ANEW

Darrow Tells Judge in Times Case He Has New Information on Talesman.

VETERAN AND HORTON TILT

Ventureman Resents Prosecutor's Thrust That Because He Is Socialist He Is Enemy to Present Government.

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 6.—The defense in the McNamara murder trial will seek tomorrow to open the case of Talesman George W. McKee, accepted as a cause, and the prosecution will conclude its case against Talesman George W. Morton, reinstated late today after a challenge for implied bias was refused. When court adjourned today the state had found no ground for a challenge for actual bias, and with these two incidental exceptions, the jury was complete as to cause and ready for peremptory challenges.

Those in the box were, besides McKee and Morton, Robert Bain, F. D. Green, A. S. Winter, Walter N. Frampson, George W. Johnson, Sam Mandenhall, Frank Frakes, Byron Lisk, M. T. McNeely and William E. Clark.

Little Certainty Felt. Little certainty was felt tonight that any of these men would surely be on the final jury to try James B. McNamara for the murder of Charles J. Haggerty, a victim of the Los Angeles Times' Explosives case.

Those in the box were, besides McKee and Morton, Robert Bain, F. D. Green, A. S. Winter, Walter N. Frampson, George W. Johnson, Sam Mandenhall, Frank Frakes, Byron Lisk, M. T. McNeely and William E. Clark.

Little Certainty Felt. Little certainty was felt tonight that any of these men would surely be on the final jury to try James B. McNamara for the murder of Charles J. Haggerty, a victim of the Los Angeles Times' Explosives case.

Those in the box were, besides McKee and Morton, Robert Bain, F. D. Green, A. S. Winter, Walter N. Frampson, George W. Johnson, Sam Mandenhall, Frank Frakes, Byron Lisk, M. T. McNeely and William E. Clark.

Little Certainty Felt. Little certainty was felt tonight that any of these men would surely be on the final jury to try James B. McNamara for the murder of Charles J. Haggerty, a victim of the Los Angeles Times' Explosives case.

Those in the box were, besides McKee and Morton, Robert Bain, F. D. Green, A. S. Winter, Walter N. Frampson, George W. Johnson, Sam Mandenhall, Frank Frakes, Byron Lisk, M. T. McNeely and William E. Clark.

Little Certainty Felt. Little certainty was felt tonight that any of these men would surely be on the final jury to try James B. McNamara for the murder of Charles J. Haggerty, a victim of the Los Angeles Times' Explosives case.

Those in the box were, besides McKee and Morton, Robert Bain, F. D. Green, A. S. Winter, Walter N. Frampson, George W. Johnson, Sam Mandenhall, Frank Frakes, Byron Lisk, M. T. McNeely and William E. Clark.

Little Certainty Felt. Little certainty was felt tonight that any of these men would surely be on the final jury to try James B. McNamara for the murder of Charles J. Haggerty, a victim of the Los Angeles Times' Explosives case.

Those in the box were, besides McKee and Morton, Robert Bain, F. D. Green, A. S. Winter, Walter N. Frampson, George W. Johnson, Sam Mandenhall, Frank Frakes, Byron Lisk, M. T. McNeely and William E. Clark.

Little Certainty Felt. Little certainty was felt tonight that any of these men would surely be on the final jury to try James B. McNamara for the murder of Charles J. Haggerty, a victim of the Los Angeles Times' Explosives case.

Those in the box were, besides McKee and Morton, Robert Bain, F. D. Green, A. S. Winter, Walter N. Frampson, George W. Johnson, Sam Mandenhall, Frank Frakes, Byron Lisk, M. T. McNeely and William E. Clark.

Little Certainty Felt. Little certainty was felt tonight that any of these men would surely be on the final jury to try James B. McNamara for the murder of Charles J. Haggerty, a victim of the Los Angeles Times' Explosives case.

Those in the box were, besides McKee and Morton, Robert Bain, F. D. Green, A. S. Winter, Walter N. Frampson, George W. Johnson, Sam Mandenhall, Frank Frakes, Byron Lisk, M. T. McNeely and William E. Clark.

Little Certainty Felt. Little certainty was felt tonight that any of these men would surely be on the final jury to try James B. McNamara for the murder of Charles J. Haggerty, a victim of the Los Angeles Times' Explosives case.

Those in the box were, besides McKee and Morton, Robert Bain, F. D. Green, A. S. Winter, Walter N. Frampson, George W. Johnson, Sam Mandenhall, Frank Frakes, Byron Lisk, M. T. McNeely and William E. Clark.

Little Certainty Felt. Little certainty was felt tonight that any of these men would surely be on the final jury to try James B. McNamara for the murder of Charles J. Haggerty, a victim of the Los Angeles Times' Explosives case.

Those in the box were, besides McKee and Morton, Robert Bain, F. D. Green, A. S. Winter, Walter N. Frampson, George W. Johnson, Sam Mandenhall, Frank Frakes, Byron Lisk, M. T. McNeely and William E. Clark.

Little Certainty Felt. Little certainty was felt tonight that any of these men would surely be on the final jury to try James B. McNamara for the murder of Charles J. Haggerty, a victim of the Los Angeles Times' Explosives case.

Those in the box were, besides McKee and Morton, Robert Bain, F. D. Green, A. S. Winter, Walter N. Frampson, George W. Johnson, Sam Mandenhall, Frank Frakes, Byron Lisk, M. T. McNeely and William E. Clark.

Little Certainty Felt. Little certainty was felt tonight that any of these men would surely be on the final jury to try James B. McNamara for the murder of Charles J. Haggerty, a victim of the Los Angeles Times' Explosives case.

Those in the box were, besides McKee and Morton, Robert Bain, F. D. Green, A. S. Winter, Walter N. Frampson, George W. Johnson, Sam Mandenhall, Frank Frakes, Byron Lisk, M. T. McNeely and William E. Clark.

Most of the Pianos Which We Took From the Receiver of the P. G. M. Co. Have Now Been Sold - If You Want One at the Advertised Price You'll Have to Act Quickly

There are only 5 left at even.....$100 There are only 7 left at even.....$150 There are only 3 left at even.....$200 There are only 4 Player Pianos left for $425

Upright Pianos Going for $100 $150 and $200. Think of That Fine Player Pianos for $425—Payments of $4, $5 or $6 Monthly May Be Arranged

The Sale of the Perry Graves Bankrupt Stock by Eilers Music House Proves, We Find, Most Opportune for Many Families Who Do Not Wish at the Present Time to Invest Much Money, People Who Need a Piano and Yet Do Not Wish to Rent One.

Yesterday, in spite of the unfavorable weather, we sold more pianos than during any previous week we moved into our fine new building. But no wonder! At the prices we are giving away pianos, people are justified in making a special 50-mile journey to participate in the present opportunity. There are only 19 of the P. G. M. Co. pianos left. All will be taken by Thursday, if not sooner. If you want one act quickly. Bring all the money or bring $5 for a first payment is all the same to us. We must have the pianos out of the way at once, hence the atrocious price cutting. And while we are closing out these bankrupt pianos we have decided to dispose of all the surplus stock in our Piano Exchange at the same time. Many people nowadays have obligations to meet in many directions. In many homes the insistent demands of the wife who once played, or the growing children who should be taking lessons are simply ignored from day to day because of the relatively high prices of good pianos and the difficulty of meeting the comparatively large payments. No home wants a cheap piano, but the additional premium and the Eilers little-profit-on-many-sales system, really fine pianos cannot be had without some effort, we say, in all earnestness to all that are so situated: Investigate at once the sale of this Perry Graves stock. You'll own a good piano if you do. We had to take the pianos, as we have stated, in order to get the stock of music and musical merchandise. We have plenty of pianos of our own to sell. These bankrupt-stock instruments are simply in the way. We want to get rid of them at once. We got them cheap, and according to our well-known policy, we pass our good fortune along to our friends. No one has ever seen pianos, new ones, or slightly showup ones, sold at the regular auction, knock-down prices heretofore. If you want one of these pianos for an even $100, come and get one right away, because the supply is rapidly diminishing. Many have come in, however, to purchase these $100 and $150 styles, and when they found what was to be had for $100, instead of paying cash, they paid the additional premium and bought one of the $200 styles on time payments. The result is that there are but very few of the $200 instruments left, but we have a very excellent selection of those to be closed out at $150. It is not necessary to bring all the cash, for, as stated heretofore, we now arrange to let any family in this city and state have any one of these pianos on payments of $4, $5 or $6 a month. Write or telephone us if you live out of town. People who call and investigate find the exchange privileges that we grant with the sale of one of these pianos very attractive. At any time within two years Eilers Music House obligates itself to accept any of these bankrupt-stock pianos at the full amount now paid for it toward payment of any of the fine high-grade pianos that a purchaser may wish to buy later on. This positively insures against dissatisfaction in every way. If the piano you now receive, after you have tried it for a month, or a year, or two years, does not prove exactly to your liking, we take it back and allow you all you have paid for it toward payment of one of the instruments in the regular Eilers Music House line. Nothing could be more generous nor more helpful, particularly to the many families situated as indicated at the outset of this article. There are left for sale today and tomorrow three very high grades—numerous medium grades and a number of cheap ones. There are brand new pianos and some slightly-used pianos, and quite a number that have been out on rent a very short time. Pick out your piano right away. We propose to make the quickest possible kind of work of this sale, hence this proposition is a sacrifice. They're upright pianos, all of them, understand; they're good ones and go for exactly the prices put upon them, namely: $100, $150, $200. We arrange payments at $4 and $5 or $6 a month if desired. There are also four elegant player pianos, all to go for $425; also three used baby grands. Payment may be made as best suits each buyer's convenience. Our guarantee goes with each instrument; sold, and we agree to accept it any time at these sale prices these instruments in part payment for any new Chickering or Kimball or other high-grade piano, or for a baby grand or a player piano that we regularly sell. Remember, this is the one great piano-buying opportunity of years; come right away; telephone or write Eilers Music House; now at the corner of Seventh and Alder streets, the Nation's largest dealers in Pianos and Talking Machines.

enched by views he obtained outside of the court. He will be excused." William E. Clark took Andrews' place on the witness stand. He was the ex-cousin of Talesman Seaborn Manning, a war veteran of 70, on account of ill health, counsel for both sides agreed to excuse him. Manning is suffering from lung trouble. Just before he left the box, he shook hands with his former associates in the jury box. Frank Hester was drawn in his stead. War Veteran Examined. Talesman Clark, examined by Le-compte and asked questions, said he was Canadian by birth, but was a Civil War veteran and had lived in various parts of the country and had been engaged in various occupations, principally farming, though he once had been an undertaker. Clark said he had formed no opinion concerning the Times' disaster, and had not been influenced in the least by what he had heard. "Have you lurking in your mind a suspicion or a belief that organized labor is destroying the Times?" "Well, if you judge from what I have heard and read, yes." "Did it have the effect of making you believe it?" "No." "But you say you have heard enough to generate the belief that the labor unions had anything to do with it?" "It looks that way to me." "Does it look strong enough to you to make the defendant prove that he did do it?" "If the prosecution didn't prove him guilty I wouldn't convict him." "In other words, from what you already know you would not convict him?" "No." Confession Brought Up. "Did you read the confession of Orville E. McManis when it was printed?" "I heard it read." "Did it make any impression on your mind?" "It left me uncertain." "Then you would require something more than the confession of Orville E. McManis in the way of direct evidence before you would convict?" "Yes." Clark was passed for cause by the defense. A brief perfunctory examination by G. Ray Horton, of the state, ensued and he also passed the talesman for cause. This made 11 talesmen passed for cause by both sides. Examination of Frank Hester followed. Attorney Darrow, of the defense, conducting it. Hester said the biscuit company, for which he worked as a purchasing agent and salesman, was a member of the Merchants and Manufacturers' Association and had had a controversy with unions, in which he took part. He was prejudiced against strikes, he said, for many years. Hester said he had come to a strong conclusion that the Times building was dynamited by the labor unions and that he had a fixed opinion that James B. McNamara was guilty. He was challenged for cause by the defense. New Attorney Figures. S. L. Vermilyea, assistant attorney of the prosecution, conducted the cross-examination of Hester. It was the first time he had taken an active part in the proceedings. He questioned Hester if his opinions were based on anything beside his newspaper reading and the talesman answered that they were not. Opposition to the challenge was withdrawn by the state and Hester was excused. Foreman Edward J. Sheehan was excused on account of his opposition to the death penalty and Otto S. Brandt substituted him. Brandt's name was not on the assessment roll and George W. Morton, 75 years old, was chosen. He said he had no business except tending to his chickens at home. Morton declared he had an open mind on the case, had formed no opinions and could listen to all theories as to the cause of the disaster. He was passed by the defense for cause. SAINTLY IDEAL IS FOUND Massachusetts Youth Never Swore, Drunk, Kissed or Smoked. LUDLOW, Mass., Nov. 6.—A fund established by Charles D. Reed, a wealthy resident, to encourage good habits among the young men of this town, has just been drawn upon to reward Howard U. Bennett, of Ludlow center, who has never used a profane word, never smoked or chewed tobacco, never touched a drop of liquor and never kissed a girl outside his own family. Bennett's reward was a gold watch, suitably inscribed, presented on his 21st birthday.

Wiggle Your Third Finger See Page 6

Champagne for Breakfast seems ridiculous, yet you smoke a heavy, black Havana immediately after the meal. Then you wonder why you aren't up "to the mark"—Brain workers smoke a light, domestic blend—the

Wiggle Your Third Finger See Page 6

Wiggle Your Third Finger See Page 6

Wiggle Your Third Finger See Page 6

Wiggle Your Third Finger See Page 6

Wiggle Your Third Finger See Page 6