High-Class Optical Work At Low Prices.
 High-priced glasses are simply a demand for unreasonable profits. There are no glasses "better than we sell." Glasses that give vision but make no allowance for nerve and muscle conditions are worse than no glasses. Dr. Dayton, our optometrist, has made a special study of nerve strain and muscle defects. Thousands have found relief from chronic headaches through his glasses. His years of study and experience, combined with all the latest appliances, and backed by the guarantee of this institution make this an absolutely safe place.
