NANKING, Nov. 16 .- Nanking is desolate tonight. Fully 1000 of its inhabitants lie mansacred and business houses and dwellings have been looted and burned. Seventy thousand persons have fied the city and others are joining the evodus. Down the railroad leading from the city a long, snake-like line of humanity is trudging in search of safety.

It was the hand of the Manchus that brought the devastation. While the republicans were in camp three miles away awaiting ammunition and rein forcements, the Manchus began the work of earnage.

work of earnage. Men, women and children were sinuphtered. Neither youth nor age was taken into account. White, the embien of the revolution, marked its wearers for mutant death. Chinamen with white shoes, a sign of mourning among them, or even a white hand-kerchief, were ruthlessly shain. Queue-less heads severed from bodies were everywhere to be seen. The imperializes are reported to be everywhere to be seen. The imperialists are reported to be short of ammunition for their big Krupp guns and their most capable gunners are said to have descried them. The republicans complain that owing to the neutralization of the railroad they have been unable to transport men and guns from Shanghal quitekly. These are being brought by hoats and pack mules. A desperate baitle is expected soon
