Deceitful Church Members and Two-Faced Society Folk Denounced.

WORST MAN IN AUDIENCE

One Attending Meeting Writes That He's Steeped in Deepest Sin and Is Encouraged—Revivalist Would Burn Runshops.

GIPSY SMITH'S PROGRAMME FOR THREE DAYS. Friday, 11:30 A. M.—Meeting for women only at Orpheum Theater. 12 noon—Meeting for men only at Empress Theater. 7:30 P. M.—Prayer meeting of 500 Christians at the White Temple. 7:50 P. M.—Gipsy Smith Tabernacle. Saturday. No meetings. Sunday. 1:00 P. M.—Meeting for men only at Gipsy Smith Tabernacle. 7:30 P. M.—Gipsy Smith Tabernacle.

Hypocritical church members and society folk were denounced by Gipsy Smith last night in his sermon in the big auditorium. "Would you think more about the rings on your fingers or the style of hat you ought to wear, or would you give your child a drink of whiskey to make it sleep while you went away and spent the afternoon playing bridge—would you do that if you had come in touch with Jesus?" queried the exhorter.

"A woman may be a member of the church and do it, but she is not born again. A church tree cannot bring forth good fruit, and a good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit. By their fruits ye shall know them." The multitude of the walls on all sides, listened intently as the Gipsy poured forth his vituperation of "quacks" and "quackeries" and responded when he called for those who wished to go to the inquiry room. Then cards were passed, and the ministers present and they distributed them among the audience, to be signed by those who wished to accept Christ.

The choir gave effective support to the appeals by singing "Without ceasing the song, he would begin to sing the first few words and would be joined instantly by the thousand voices behind him. He will break into song in the midst of his speaking and carry the masses through with him. Taking for a text the words of the woman, narrated in the gospel of Mark, he said: "You women of society, do you think if you loved Jesus you would kick at your woman who is the greatest hindrance that you have, and you know he did it, play cards and dance with your daughter? No," he thundered, "you would break and she would do that, and say to him, 'You shall not go back into decent society until you bring that woman with you.'"

Strong Speech Intended. "Do you think if you loved Jesus you would allow your daughter to sit up half the night with a vulture who had done a deed like that? I call that cant, blasphemy. God gives a moral conscience. You say I am speaking too strongly? It is time somebody did speak, and speak plainly. "Do you think if you loved Jesus you would allow your property that is used for immoral purposes; and you know it? Do you think if you loved Jesus you would roll up your eyes while he is speaking? No, you would say, 'Thee' and at the same time hold out your hand for the devil's black coin? Do you think if you loved Jesus you would, with a clear conscience, address a mass meeting of South Portland residents at St. Lawrence Hall last night relative to the proposal of the city to take over Ross Island as a public park and industrial district. It was decided that the development of the island would aid plans for the construction of a bridge for South Portland. There was a large attendance, and the island plan was indorsed unanimously.

Gipsy Smith's Daily Sermon

I have been asked by three wives and two or three mothers if it is any use to continue to pray for unconverted husbands and unconverted sons. They seem to have gotten discouraged and have lost heart, and maybe a little faith in God. All have expressed their almost hopelessness and yet they say they try to struggle on and continue in prayer; yet they are asking for help while they are praying. "Is it worth while?"

Thus far the collections, taken every night, have yielded to the committee in charge of the evangelistic meetings $14,647. At the auditorium it is said to have cost $10,000. H. W. Stone made the statement to the congregation last night that four times that amount ought to have been raised.

The evangelist last night read a note from a man who wrote: "Have you met the worst man in Portland? He is the verdict of some people. I am that man. Pray for me. I am in the audience." "My brother," said Gipsy Smith, "Jesus can save the devil's castaway, and he can save you."

Another letter was from a man who said he had been a drunkard, a gambler and a thief, and served many years in prison and was making a desperate struggle to do right."

SOCIALISTS DENY ATTACK Local Branch Repudiates Anti-Gipsy Smith Action. Declaring that the attacks that have been made on Gipsy Smith have not had the sanction of the Socialist Party in Portland, a resolution has been transmitted to Dr. Benjamin Young, signed by E. Leonard Wilkinson, recording secretary. The resolution reads: "Whereas, certain individuals purporting to be Socialists, have on their own initiative and entirely on their own responsibility, seen fit to attack the meetings now being held in the city under the direction of Gipsy Smith, thereby placing the Socialist movement in Portland in a false position and strengthening the hands of its enemies by their irresponsible actions. Be It Resolved, That we, the members of Branch Four of Local Portland, repudiate the actions of such individuals, being unwarranted and entirely out of harmony with the Socialist propaganda.

CROWD DERIDES SPEAKER "Horse-taming Evangelist" Answers Attack on Gipsy Smith.

Surrounded by a jeering crowd which completely filled Sixth street between Morrison and Alder streets, William Mullen, of Long Beach, Cal., known as "the horse-taming evangelist," last night defended Gipsy Smith against the attacks of a Socialist preacher. The speaker was continually interrupted by taunting remarks, and several times the crowd started to "rush" him, but he maintained his poise and answered the remarks hurled at him with a smiling face. "The best argument against Socialism is your own actions here tonight," he told the crowd. "For reasoning you substitute biases."

streets when he heard the Socialist speaker deriding Gipsy Smith, and religion in general. He interposed and an argument followed. A large crowd collected and soon the street was blocked. Mr. Mullen moved to the sidewalk and there he told the crowd that their arguments showed they were not Socialists, but agnostics. He could hardly make himself heard because of the noise. At times he would be interrupted with snatches of song, at other times with jeers. Mr. Mullen concluded by saying that he was willing to prolong his stay in Portland for a day or two, if the Socialists desired to meet him in public debate. It was his intention to leave for California at 1:30 this morning.

TURKEYS NEAR 30 MARK

Indications Are That Thanksgiving Fowl Will Sell at 27 1-2 Cents.

A wholesale turkey price of about 23 cents and a retail price of not over 27 1/2 cents Thanksgiving week is indicated by the best advisers the dealers can get from the sections that supply this market. The Oregon crop is not a particularly large one, but there are plenty of turkeys in Idaho, and most of them will come to this city.

One thing the dealers believe will keep down the price of turkeys is the cheapness of chickens. These are selling in the wholesale market at 10 to 14 cents a pound alive, and as there are plenty of them, they are also not advanced much. Wild game is also plentiful. If the price of turkeys is put too high consumers will turn to these lines. Dressed turkeys have been arriving freely for the past ten days. They were used in filling orders for the Alaska trade. Several large shipments will be dispatched on the steamer that leaves Seattle today.

President Elliott, of Northern Pacific, Files Year's Report—Earnings Decrease but Outlook Is Bright.

Improvements in the physical property of the Northern Pacific were numerous in the fiscal year ending June 30, 1911, according to the annual report to the stockholders just made by Howard Elliott, president of the company. The report shows that the total main, second and third tracks operated by the Northern Pacific now is 6449.53 miles, an increase of 1094 miles in six years.

TOTS GROOM PONIES

YOUNGSTERS PREPARING FOR COMING HORSE SHOW.

Drill by Young Society Folk Will Be Feature—Entry List Will Be Large This Year. A children's pony drill, given by the Little Ponies, will be one of the features of the Horse Show next week. The children are practicing the intricate figures of their drill after school hours, and both youngsters and ponies are taking great delight in perfecting their performance, which will be one of the most interesting on the long and elaborate programme.

There will also be a "younger set" drill for society debutantes, besides the intricate man drill, in which 16 maids, matrons, benedictines and bachelors will ride, mounted on beautiful horses. One of the most magnificent saddle horses on the entry list is "Eastern Emperor," belonging to Harry Corbett, who probably will show this horse himself. Three other fine animals also will be shown by Corbett. New entries are being made every day, and Ambrose M. Cronin, chairman of the executive committee, says the saddle horses listed already exceed the number shown at any previous event. Harness entries are few in number and will be shown only incidentally. Complete lists of entries will be published in the coming week. The show will be held at the Auditorium, beginning Monday morning and the seating capacity is only 700, seats will probably be unobtainable early in the week.

PASSENGER MEN GATHER

Service, Land Shows and Winter Schedules Are Discussed.

Passenger officials in the Northwest held a meeting in Portland yesterday to discuss questions of mutual interest. Exhibits at Eastern land shows, winter schedules and service were under consideration. Those who attended the meeting included William McMurray, general passenger agent of the O-W. R. & N. Company; A. J. McCarthy, chief clerk of the Chicago, Milwaukee & Puget Sound Railway at Seattle; W. P. Warner, of Portland, district freight and passenger agent of the M'Waukee; W. A. Ross, of Seattle, assistant general agent of the Chicago, Milwaukee & Puget Sound Railway at Seattle; W. C. Wilkes, assistant general agent of the Northern Bank and Hill Lines in Oregon; M. J. Butler, rate clerk of the North Bank and Hill Lines in Oregon; C. G. Sutherland, assistant general manager of the O-W. R. & N. Company; and W. D. Skinker, general freight and passenger agent of the second district of the O-W. R. & N. Company.

WOOL OUTLOOK ROSEATE

Oregon to Have Record Crop in 1912 Is Prediction.

Oregon will produce a record crop of wool and mutton next year, according to the plans now being made by sheepmen in the eastern part of the state. Thousands of lambs have been born in the last few days for fattening purposes. They will be fed on the range of Wallowa and Umatilla Counties during the winter. Many agents for Eastern woolbuyers have been in the field for the last few weeks and have bought nearly all the visible supply in some parts of Eastern Oregon. One agent bought 15,000 head on Monday.

earnings for the year, Mr. Elliott sees a hopeful outlook. The crops in Minnesota and North Dakota were much better this Autumn than in 1910. He says, although not equal to a good year; the crops in Montana were never better and there is a marked development of agriculture in the part of that state tributary to the Northern Pacific lines. The crops of Idaho, Washington and Oregon are good.

An interesting item in the report shows that the character of the business now handled by the road is changing with the growth of the country, there being a greater proportion of merchandise and short-haul business than formerly. The average haul of freight in 1906 was 242 miles. Last year it was 273 miles. The average distance traveled by each passenger in 1906 was 111.3 miles; last year it was 82 miles.

Operating expenses were reduced $47,445.23, of which $7,888,917.59 was in labor and $2,468,727.23 in material and miscellaneous charges. Freight earnings decreased $5,245,811.10, passenger earnings decreased $4,205,918.20. Temporary suspension of heavy construction work by railroads and a lessened proportion of output are held responsible for the marked falling off in earnings.

CATARRH OF THE STOMACH

A Pleasant, Simple, But Safe and Effective Cure For It.

COSTS NOTHING TO TRY. Catarrh of the stomach has long been considered the next thing to incurable. The usual symptoms are a full or bloating sensation after eating, accompanied sometimes with sour or watery risings, a formation of gases, causing pressure on the heart and lungs and distended breathing, headaches, fickle appetite, nervousness and a general played out, languid feeling.

There is often a foul taste in the mouth coated tongue and if the interior of the stomach could be seen it would show a slimy, inflamed condition. The cure of this common and obstinate trouble is found in a treatment which causes the food to be readily, thoroughly digested before it has time to ferment and irritate the delicate mucous surface of the stomach. To secure a prompt and healthy digestion is the one necessary thing to do, and when normal digestion is secured the catarrhal condition will have disappeared.

According to Dr. Harrison, the safest and best treatment is to use after each meal a tablet, composed of Diastase, Aseptic Pepsin, a little Nux, Golden Seal and fruit acids. These tablets are not only a healthy and delicate food, but they are a powerful and thorough digester will follow their regular use after meals.

The plan of dieting is simply another name for starvation, and the use of prepared foods and new fangled breakfast foods simply makes matters worse as any dyspeptic who has tried them know.

Dr. Bennett says, the only reason I can imagine why Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are not universally used by everybody who is troubled in any way with poor digestion, is because many people seem to think that because a medicine is advertised or is sold in drug stores or is protected by a trademark it must be a humbug, whereas, as a matter of fact, any druggist who is observant knows that Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets have cured more people of catarrh of the stomach, indigestion, heartburn, heart trouble, nervous prostration and run-down condition generally, than all the patent medicines and doctors' prescriptions for stomach trouble combined.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is the safest preparation as well as the simplest and most convenient remedy for any form of indigestion, catarrh of the stomach, biliousness, sour stomach, heartburn and bloating after meals. For sale by all druggists at 50c a box. Send your name and address today for a free trial package and see for yourself. Address: F. A. Stuart Co., 160 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich.

Clean pots and pans with GOLD DUST

Germes of decay accumulate on oft-used pots and pans, and ordinary soap and water only cleans off the surface.

Gold Dust does the work—and does it right. It digs deep after germs, cleans like a new whistle and leaves your pots and pans as bright as the day they were new—and sanitarly safe. Gold Dust does this work in just half the time required by soap or any other cleanser. Does it better, too. Gold Dust cleans everything like magic.

Do not use borax, soda ash, ammonia or kerosene. GOLD DUST has all the cleaning power of a perfectly clean and lasting form. "Let the GOLD DUST TWINS do your work"
